

CATHOLIC ORDER PLANS BIG AFFAIR

The three courts of Catholic Order of Foresters, St. Leo's, Holy Rosary and St. Benedict's, will hold a joint initiation Monday evening in the Holy Rosary hall, South 30th street and Tacoma avenue. Twenty-five candidates will be initiated. Twenty-five other candidates are under examination, and will be initiated the second Monday in July.

State Organizer J. B. Lynch is chairman of a committee of nine Foresters, three from each court, which is making preparations for the ceremonies and banquet.

Chief Ranger Charles A. Dow of Holy Rosary court will be master of the initiation ceremonies. Music by the Forester orchestra will be furnished. A splendid banquet will be served. It will be prepared by Lady Foresters and the serving will be done by the Forester young men waiters.

Many clergy and Foresters from out of town will attend.

NO MIDDLE GROUND

SALEM, Ore., June 18.—The state industrial accident commission issued a ruling today whereby all establishments having power-driven machinery, whether it is a coffee grinder or any other mechanical device, must either accept or reject the terms of the compensation act by July 1 or come under it automatically.

CONSIDER MEXICO

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18.—The Mexican and international situations occupied the attention of the president at the cabinet meeting today. It is understood that until further efforts are made by the warring Mexican factions to agree upon a permanent peace, no further steps be taken.

Sec. Lansing presented the cabinet denials of von Bernstorff that Dr. Meyer GeGrhard was anything other than Red Cross agent, or that there was a plot of German agents to tamper with official mail in this country.

THREAT WORKS;

MOTHER GETS $10 FROM SON

Mrs. Mary Goss, 8610 Park avenue, Fort Hill, the aged widow who begged the city council for assistance early this week, because she was penniless and had a large water assessment to pay, appeared at the city hall today and paid her first year's installment of $14.

The widow told Commissioner Atkins that her son, Prof. B. D. Goss, superintendent of the Bremerton schools, had sent her $10 immediately after receiving the letter sent by Commissioner Mills, and that she had received $10 from her property. The assessment was due today, and Mrs. Goss told the commissioner that she would have to live on the remaining $6 for an entire month.

SHERIFF BUSY

Sheriff Longmire today requested all persons who wished to be arrested kindly to wait a day or so, if convenient.

He sent one deputy to Okanogan to get Bert Keyser, auto thief; another to Aberdeen to get J. H. Springer, grand larceny charge; and went himself to get a man for non-support in Seattle. That took all but his office deputies out of the county.

S. E. Morris of Seattle has an Indian motorcycle. So has County Motorcycle Cop Chilberg.

Morris hit 'er up for 60-per on the Seattle road last night. Chilberg was a trifle faster, and after a number of terrific pacing, caught Morris.

"That's all right," said Morris, when arrested. "I'm coming back next time with a faster machine."

"$10," said the court.
