TOM MIX ACTS HERE IN FILM THAT HE WROTE

"Pals in Blue," a thrilling three-reel western drama written by Tom Mix, the popular Selig star, and with Mix in the leading role, opened a two-day engagement as the headliner of the new Shell theater bill today.

It is a drama of many themes, the first part of the story showing Tom and Jerry, cowpunchers and loving companions, joining a circus for a wild west act. The circus goes broke, leaving the cowpunchers stranded in a strange country. They get into an Indian fight and Tom is wounded. The action follows in rapid fire fashion, with a real touch of human interest as the climax.

LIBERTY FILM STAR WAS REAL MOVIE "FIND"

Jean Sothorn, the little blonde who portrays the deeply sympathetic role of Pamela, in the Wm. Fox photoplay of "Should a Mother Tell?" appearing on the screen at the Liberty theater this week, was a genuine discovery among the many candidates for first place before the camera. Miss Sothorn was found by one of the Fox directors doing a vaudeville act at the Riviera theater in New York city, and attracted by her graceful poise and beauty engaged her immediately to play the part of Pamela in this notable production. Runa Hodges, who takes the early part of Miss Sothorn's role, at the age of 5 years, creates much laughter and comment by her childish pranks and acting.

"The Rosary," the supreme film triumph of the season, opened to enormous business at the Apollo yesterday. This film is in seven reels and is produced by Selig, producer of "The Spoilers." The stars are Kathlyn Williams and Charles Clary, and they are supported by an all-star cast. The film is endorsed by church dignitaries of every creed, as well as the most prominent laymen and the public at large. Charles Clary, the prominent Seattle actor, in the role of Father Brian Kelly, in this character, plays a role that will place his achievement in a place that will remain in eminence for many years to come. Too much can not be said for Miss Williams for her rendition of the role of Vera Wallace.

WILL PLEAD GUILTY

Jacob Joal, a traveling negro saloonist, informed Prosecuting Attorney Selden that he is ready to plead guilty to selling liquor to an Indian and take a six months' jail sentence. He will be arraigned late today.

The Ben Hur basket outing and picnic announced for next Sunday has been postponed until Sunday, Aug. 15, at Point Defiance park.

William H. Crane Appears In Favorite Role of 'David Harum'

William H. Crane, originator of the stage character of "David Harum," in one of the scenes of the film play, at the Colonial this week.

Viewed by a large crowd, the famous film production of "David Harum" was presented in Tacoma Tuesday afternoon for the first time at the Colonial theater. William H. Crane, an internationally prominent legitimate star, appears in the title role.

For many years Mr. Crane resisted large offers from a number of important film concerns to present one of his great characterizations in motion pictures, and he is one of the last of the more important stars of the contemporary stage to record his art on the screen.

WARDROBE WORTH FORTUNE SHE WANTS "RAGS" PART

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 4.—Fannie Ward, often called the best-dressed woman on the stage, whose wardrobe of gorgeous gowns, priceless furs and exquisite jewels would almost turn the brain of an ordinary feminine, wants to play a "rags" part. She has 200 hats in her wardrobe and nearly half a thousand

SUNSET BILL

Today's new bill at the Sunset theater, Sixth avenue and Fifth street, contains several features, including the following: Charles Chaplin in "His Musical Career," Rhea Mitchell in "The Valley of Hate," Western two-reel drama; "Movie Fans," a Falstaff comedy, and "The Artist's Model," society two-reel drama.

Foster to Be a Model Prisoner, He Tells Guard

Charley Foster, who was sentenced from 10 to 20 years in the state penitentiary at Walla Walla for assaulting Joe Yetter in an attempted break at the county jail, left this morning in company with a traveling guard to start serving his sentence. Foster's only comment was that he intended to be a model prisoner.

City to Spend $12,175 On Main

Deciding that more fire protection along the waterfront was an immediate necessity, the city council today introduced an ordinance calling for the expenditure of $12,175 for a 16-inch water main extending from the Puget Sound Flouring Mills north to connect with the present mains north of Old Town.

JUSTICE ALLOWS $25 FOR FIGHT DAMAGES

Elmer M. Thorp did severely beat up A. J. Jarland, an ex-policeman, wrecking $99.99 worth of teeth, facial skin and glasses. Justice Frank H.raham yesterday figured the missing masticators were worth only $25. However, he added $13.60 for costs.

The Famous Players Presents

Wm. H. Crane

The Noted American Actor in

David Harum

The play that strikes the human note with more force, and has received more favorable mention by the public and press than any book or play that has ever been produced.

Wm. H. Crane was the originator of the stage production, and with the assistance of Harold Lockwood, Kate Meeks, Guy Nichols and other Broadway stars, it can readily be seen that "David Harum" is an offering of the highest order.

By all means see David Harum. It is one of our best pictures.

Every incident of the novel's thrilling story has been pictured in the hundreds of big scenes, while some were secured only after the entire company had been transported to Africa. "Under

URGE SAFETY FIRST AT SIXTH

J. A. Hoshier, president of the Titlow Beach Improvement club, today asked the city council to make some provision for safety at the Northern Pacific's Point Defiance line crossing of Sixth avenue.

Twenty trains each way a day shoot across Sixth avenue at a 50-mile speed, said Hoshier, and there is no flagman or warning signal. The council will ask the public service commission to demand protection.
