

Tacoma Theatrical Season Opens "HALF-WAY HOUSE," QUAIN PLAYLET, RETURNS NEXT WEEK

"OLD NICK" AND BERTIE.

William H. Crane and Thomas W. Ross, in one of the scenes from "The New Henrietta," which opens the Tacoma theatrical season next week.

Dramatic doctors Winchell and Victor Mapes were tendered a delicate task in revising Bronson Howard's famous play "The Henrietta," which is to be the attraction at the Tacoma Theater on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, but there were reverent as well as skilled craftsmen, and their work has added a modern dash and flavor that makes it more irresistibly appealing than ever, and that is saying a great deal.

This red blooded, lively, swaying play has long been a model of effective dramatic writing and stands unequalled for two generations as a source of robust and continuous fun. The revival is directed by Joseph Brooks, who had the play written for the famous comedians and enjoys the advantage of having W. H. Crane in his original role, and a cast of all stars, including Thomas W. Ross, Maclyn Arbuckle, Laura Hope Crews and Mabel Taliaferro to illumine its splendid opportunities.

"HALF-WAY HOUSE," QUAIN PLAYLET, RETURNS NEXT WEEK

Mrs. Perkins Fisher in "The Half-Way House," added feature on the new week's Pantages program.

Among the notable features comprising the new vaudeville bill at the Pantages theater beginning Monday will be the great Hippodrome attraction—Holland Dockrell's horses. Dockrell's feature is designated simply as "Four Beautiful White Horses," formerly a headline attraction with the big Barnum & Bailey circus. Marvelously trained and beautiful to look upon, the horses represent the aristocracy of the equine world. The Four Beautiful Gillespie Sisters are gifted with lovely voices that blend beautifully, and are recognized as one of the best singing quartets in vaudeville. The new bill will also mark the return to Tacoma of Mr. and Mrs. Perkins Fisher in their delightfully quaint playlet, "The Half-Way House," written especially for them by Ezra Kondal. In this same playlet Mr. and Mrs.

Fisher have been successful in vaudeville for years. They have not been compelled to seek new material in order to retain their popularity, for "The Half-Way House" has never lost its charm. "Through Five Countries in Twenty Minutes" is a novel and clever dancing act presented by the Four Rennies. Sol Berns, the popular little character comedian, may be depended on to furnish a big share of mirth for the audiences at the Pantages all week. Pantages patrons who have marveled at the wonderful photography and the thrills in "Neal of the Navy," the Pathe feature for the past week, will find "The Yellow Packet," the second installment of the serial just as fascinating. In this begins the career of the hero Neal, played by William Courtleigh, Jr., and the romance of Annette Illington, played by the beautiful Lilian Lorraine.

ANOTHER GOLF LINKS

SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—A new 18-hole golf course, to be located at Washington park if practicable, was the proposal submitted to the park board yesterday by Commissioner George B. Lamping. The suggestion met with favor, and a survey of possible sites will be undertaken at once by a special committee. The Jefferson park links, operated by the park board, has proved so popular that it has become self-sustaining, and Lamping reported yesterday that on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays the course was often overcrowded. More than 400 persons have taken out annual tickets at the Jefferson park links, and the number is constantly increasing.

"400" DOESN'T PAY

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 2.—Money to wine, money to dine, money for opera, money for tango, money for almost everyone but the butcher, baker and candlestick maker. That's the situation in Newport, according to the complaints of those who sell the necessities of life to the social set of Newport. Several retail dealers here will have to close their shops and stores if the Newport social leaders don't pay their bills. The sheriff's office has never been so busy as this fall collecting unpaid accounts.

OLD PAPER SUSPENDS

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Oct. 2.—The Newburyport Herald, one of the oldest newspapers in the country, was published for the last time today. It was started in 1773 and has never missed an edition. William Lloyd Garrison, the Abolitionist, was at one time an employee of the paper, serving as an apprentice printer.

RESCUES SCHOONER

ABERDEEN, Oct. 2.—A tug last night rescued the four-masted schooner Sophia Christenson, which was reported to be in danger of being lost off Grays harbor, by Capt. H. Nelson of the steamer Yosemite, which reached here this morning. The Christenson, as well as the four-masted schooner Muriel, were brought to an anchorage opposite Hoquiam.

STR. TYCONDA BURNS

SEWARD, Alaska, Oct. 2.—The sternwheeler Tyconda, the largest steamer plying in Cooks Inlet, yesterday was totally destroyed by fire. The Tyconda was built in Tacoma in 1901 and was insured at $27,000. She formerly ran on the Tacoma-Hales passage route.

PARTIES REUNITE

BOSTON, Oct. 2.—A reunion of progressives and republicans is expected to be completed today at the republican state convention. The heading of party differences is expected as the result of the announcement of republican leaders to incorporate planks suggested by Bill Moose leaders.

MONFORT ELECTED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 2.—Elias H. Monfort of Cincinnati was unanimously elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic yesterday. A feature of the encampment was the laying of the cornerstone of the great amphitheater at Arlington cemetery.

"Calling of Dan Mathews," From Famous Story, Comes to Tacoma

A scene from Harold Bell Wright's play, "The Calling of Dan Mathews," at the Tacoma next week.

Harold Bell Wright, the most popular American novelist, has, with the assistance of Elsbery W. Reynolds, made into a play, his most popular work of fiction, "The Calling of Dan Mathews." The play is said to have proven as popular as the book, which holds a record of sales that nearly reach two million copies. "The Calling of Dan Mathews" will be the attraction at the Tacoma theater next Friday and

Saturday and Saturday matinee. Messers Gaskill and MacVitty, the producers, have given the play a sumptuous mounting and an unusually excellent cast. PROGRESSIVES WILL FIGHT IN G.O.P. PRIMARY

Indications that many progressives will fight, in this state, for progressive candidates within the republican primaries in 1916 increased yesterday with a statement from R. A. B. Young, state secretary, that he could see no use for the third organization. Progressives easily can control the republican party and name its leaders, he said. Nationally, it is likely the third party will keep its identity.
