PLANNING BAZAAR

Great interest is being shown in the bazaar to be held by the Normal Hall association in Valhalla temple, Nov. 3, 4, 5 and 6. Business houses of the city are making liberal donations of various articles which will be on sale, and interesting programs are being arranged. The committee consists of the following members: Ancient Order of Vikings, Christ Sather, C. E. Moen; Sons of Norway, A. B. Horn, George Sennes, Theo. Jester; Daughters of Norway, Mrs. Martha Heggstad, Mrs. Andrew Foss, Mrs. Anna Christanson, Mrs. Charles Gunderson; Ladies' Aid No. 1, Mrs. P. F. Nelson, Mrs. O. E. Moen; Norland's Lager, B. Norstad, Christ Halswick, Gust Sand; Lede Stjernen, Oscar Austad, Emil Sorland; Norge, Albert Iverson, Soren Vereide; Ladies' Aid No. 2, Mrs. Inga Carlson, Mrs. Martha Peterson, and Mrs. Julia Marker.

BANQUET TOMORROW

The Italian-American club and Victor Emanuel III society will celebrate the 413th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus. The celebration will take place tomorrow night at St. Leo hall, where a banquet will be given. Committee in charge: Armand J. Ravetti, toastmaster and chairman; John Gallucci, treasurer; G. Fiorino, secretary; F. Miele and G. Manza, assistants. Speakers: Mrs. B. Greco, "Columbus the Man We Honor"; Mrs. James Melone, "Our Club"; Rev. Father Pisani, "Our Two Rulers"; Tom Carbone, "The Ladies"; George Spagna, "The Italians as Members of the Human Society."

WOMAN IN NEW ROLE

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Woman has invaded another man-ruled kingdom. The "lady horse doctor" has arrived. McKillop's Veterinary college, alma mater of many of the noted veterinarians of the country, includes in its 200 students four co-eds. The pioneers who will be the country's first "woman horse doctors" are Mrs. Gladys Price-Harz, wife of a well known veterinarian, and the daughter of the late Dr. Prichard Price; Mrs. William Hulse of Chicago, Mrs. Lole Jones of North Yakima, Wash., and Mrs. George Crossley of Terre Haute, Ind.

BISON TO DISAPPEAR?

PETROGRAD, Oct. 11.—Will the war cause the extinction of the European bison? The area in the east now under the control of Germany contains the great forests in which are found the only survivors of the typical bison left in Europe, which long since would have vanished but for the protection of the czar. Even if the Lithuanian herds are not shot down during the coming winter they run a great danger of extermination, for they always have been partially supplied with food during the winter by foresters.

ISLAND FAIR COMING

Vashon-Maury proposes to prove this week, beginning Wednesday, that it is not merely a strawberry-raising community. In a country fair which will mark the end of a successful season on the island there will be shown all sorts of small fruit, apples and pears, prize vegetables, dahlias and stock of all kinds. Friday is Tacoma day. The islands expect 2,000 visitors. Steamers leave the N. P. dock at 7:30 and the municipal dock at 9:45 a. m. A. J. Linstad is fair manager.

SMELTERMAN KILLED

Buried under a small avalanche of wood which he was engaged in feeding into a refinery fire at the Tacoma smelter, Louis Poehler, age 53, was so badly crushed last evening that he died within an hour. The tumbling pile of wood caused him to lose his balance and he fell into a pit near the refining ovens, 20 feet deep. Poehler leaves a widow and two children at Ruston.

PETITION FOR REESE

Friends of John Reese, proprietor of Reese's camp at Paradise park, began the circulation of petitions yesterday addressed to the department of the interior asking that the department refrain from removing him from the mountain. Ralph C. Dean, a student in the state university law school, is active in the movement. Reese's petition already has 4,000 names, so it is said.
