

Webster Wrong-Cane's More'n a Walking Stick

By A. J. Eldred
Cane—"A walking stick." That's all Mr. Webster has to say about the subject in his informative, though somewhat dry, publication.
Herein, as in numerous other cases, Mr. Webster is tearfully inadequate.
A cane, Mr. Webster should have known, may be the means of supporting not only a pedestrian, but of supporting the wife and child of a convict, as well.
Its making may be not only a bit of manual labor, but a welcome relief from the tedious, down-tearing idleness of prison life. It may be a moral force for the convict who is making it to lean on.
In fact, these facts not only "may be," they are, in the the case of the cane which The Times has for sale. The convict, a Tacoma offender, will give the money derived from his needy wife and babe. Then, too, he wants to open something of a trade in canes while he's incarcerated.

The Times is helping, to the extent of telling the public that he has a fine silver-headed, engraved cane for sale at this office. Five dollars is the best offer we have received so far. We'd like to get one for ten, at least. The rest of the job is up to the public. Will you respond?

Edison Has Six Soccer Teams Out

Six soccer teams are practicing nightly on the Edison grounds. Principal McGovern said today the teams had not found it necessary to obtain outside games, as the large number of eleven within the school afforded ample practice. He said the boys were receiving all kinds of exercise and enjoyment out of the game.
Later in the year Edison expects to arrange several games with other city grammar schools, previous to the opening of the scheduled games for the sectional championship.

HUSBAND DEAD, KILLS HERSELF

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The bodies of Mrs. Anna Runtzinger and her three young daughters were found in their home in Brooklyn today. All of the nine gas jets in the house were turned on.
Mrs. Runtzinger yesterday identified the body of a man found in the East river as that of her husband, Joseph Runtzinger.

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.
By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.
You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

Junior Girls Disgruntled
Rumors are among girl members of the junior class at Stadium, following the election of class officers this week, to the effect that they would protest the results have not matured.
Several girls objected strenuously to the election of the girl candidates and signified an intention of protesting, claiming they were privileged to as much representation in class administration as the boys.

Principal Hunt said today nothing had matured from the disgruntled one. He said there are more girls in the class than boys and that they had had their opportunity to cast their ballots as they saw fit.
The entire state went madly

Camp Cooks Begin Work
Boys studying camp cooking at Lincoln Park high school held their first outdoor exercises yesterday on the new site of the proposed athletic grounds.

The instruction is under the supervision of Miss White of the domestic science department. Preliminary instruction includes the making of camp fires and sanitation of foods which are prepared by campers and pack students expecting engineering and the university. Considerable work will be open after
