SEAPLANE SOARS ABOVE SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Oct. 22.—With William Boeing, millionaire lumberman and sportsman, at the wheel the new $10,000 military type tractor seaplane, which arrived last Friday from Los Angeles, soared over Seattle yesterday morning. It marked the first flight under the auspices of the Northwest Aero club.

EASY WAY TO GET RID OF ITCHING

Don't worry any more about that itching skin-trouble. Just get a jar of Resinol ointment and a cake of Resinol soap. With the Resinol soap and warm water bathe the affected parts thoroughly, until they are free from crusts and the skin is softened. Dry very gently, spread on a thin layer of the Resinol ointment, and cover with a light bandage—if necessary to protect the clothing. This should be done twice a day. Usually the distressing itching and burning stop with the first treatment, and the skin soon becomes clear and healthy again. For trial free, write to Dept. 5-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

CONFESSIONS OF A WIFE

(Copyright, 1915, by Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

This morning a great number of telegrams, letters and flowers came to Herbert from Kitty's friends in —. "Dok must have gotten my telegram and told them the sad news. But not one word to me from him. About 9 o'clock the expressman brought a wonderful blanket of roses from Jim and Harry, and Eliene sent enough lilies and roses to make the room a bower.

Herbert looked at the flowers with smoldering antipathy and seemed to resent them more and more. "Think how much good all this money would do my poor people," he said at last as we had hard work to find a place for a basket of pink carnations and lilies of the valley.

And do you know, little book, as he said that I realized where he lacked Kitty's eyes. His first thought was for his poor, who constituted his business. He forgot for the instant how Kitty loved flowers and how all these dear people had remembered her. He only saw in the blossoms—not sympathy which the givers could express no other way, but a waste of money that might have been expended on the living.

This idea is all right in theory but, little book, I was glad that her inanimate form would be laid to rest among the bloom that meant so much to her. It seemed to me that Herbert might have forgotten his poor for a little while. He was going to have such a long time to remember them in and such a short time to think of Kitty.

I, of course, knew he loved Kitty, but I found that ever he was one more illustration of the fact that a married man must always have something in his life that is more interesting than his wife. I am not finding fault, little book, with the married man. Perhaps it is all right that he should have other and greater interests than in his wife, but here's the trouble: A man always expects that he and his concerns shall be the only interest of his wife. He is apt to be jealous of any occupation that shall engross a woman's mind. He does not want his wife to be all mother even after children have come to them. Most men would deny this if you accused them of it but I am sure if I could ask of a hundred women picked out at random at least 95 would say that they came second to some other interest in their husband's lives. I have almost come to the conclusion, little book, that I'll become interested in something outside my home and family. Wouldn't it be an ideal way to live if two people had perfect respect, perfect confidence, perfect faith in each other and would allow each to go his separate way with the sure knowledge that love and trust was always there. The great trouble with it all is that each not only wants to assert his own individuality but he also wants to subject the other's individuality to it. Some day this will probably be adjusted, little book. Some day we will all understand, but until that time comes things will be considerably mixed and to unmix them looks to be as hard as to unscramble eggs. We can only grope for the light as we see it in the far distance. (Continued tomorrow.)

STRONG PLEA FOR MERCHANT MARINE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—In an address before the San Francisco Commercial club yesterday, Sec. McAdoo made a strong plea for government creation of a naval auxiliary merchant marine. "If private capital can't afford adequate steamship service on the Pacific coast, then the government should," he said.

Keep Young

Just as well be young at seventy as old at fifty. Many people past middle age suffer from a bent, aching back, and distressing urinary disorders, when a little help from the kidneys would fix it all up. Don't wait for gravel, dropsy or Bright's disease to get a start. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have helped thousands, young and old. They are the most widely used remedy for bad backs and weak kidneys in the whole world. Here's a South Tacoma Case. Mrs. P. A. Greenleaf, 7012 S. Prospect Ave., says: "Like most old people, my back bothered me a great deal at times and my kidneys got weak and disordered. Doan's Kidney Pills came to my aid in fine style, driving away the torturing pains and making my kidneys act properly. I was also rid of the headaches and dizzy spells."

CURIOUS — Want to know man who furnishes most subject for talk? Tly weather man.

Jo-Days Bellringer

A prominent New York clergyman through his study window once spotted an unwelcome caller coming up the parish house steps. He sought refuge in an upper room while his wife remained below to talk to the woman. After a while, hearing no sound he tiptoed below and entered the parlor. "Has that horrible old bore gone?" asked the pastor. The bore was still in the room but the wife's quick wit saved the day. "Yes, dear," she replied, "and Mrs. Parker is here now."

TOO CLEVER

That Mrs. Smarte is getting too clever," growled the butcher. "What's the matter?" asked his wife. "When she came in just now she told me I ought to rename my scales the Ambuscade brand."

"Well, why—?" "I've just looked up the word," went on the infuriated man, "and the dictionary says that ambuscade means 'to lie in wait.'"

THE EASIEST WAY TO END DANDRUFF

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely, destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail. adv.

Speaking of ballheads, a correspondent of the Hong Kong Kolum describes "boneheads" as "people who are bald on the inside of their skulls."

AN INNOVATION

Nora (seltzer bottle in hand)—"That's a good idea, ma'm, havin' soda and water in them bottles with the squirts. I've done the floor in no time, and there's three bottles left out of the dozen yet."
