Children, You're All Invited Tomorrow to

THE OPENING OF TOYTOWN

—Good news—It's better and bigger than ever. Everything that can "go" is here —toys useful, instructive and playful. —Even fathers will be interested in the electric railroad systems, and steam engines that will really run things, and mothers will enjoy the furniture and tiny tea sets for make-believe housekeeping.

You will want to see—

- The wonderful submarines, cruisers, battleships, transports, speed boats and ferry boats.
- Meccano and Erector in all sizes.
- Wind-up and electric trains in large variety.
- Electric motors and steam engines of all kinds.
- Character dolls, dressed dolls, kid body dolls in a thousand styles.
- Hundreds of books for big and little boys and girls.
- Upright and baby grand pianos.
- Furniture for the doll house and lovely little dishes.
- And wagons, coasters and wheel goods for red-blooded boys and girls.
- But it's too big to tell about all at one time.

Co-eds Feast C.P.S. Studes

Students of the College of Puget Sound held their annual Thanksgiving celebration yesterday with a frolic in the Y. W. C. A. rooms. Following the mixer, where a number of games were played, the "studes" repaired to the domestic science department and partook of the Co-eds' feast.

The men of the dormitory were entertained with a special Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mrs. George Mann, 612 North Sprague street.

Children Gardeners at Ruston

The school exhibit held this week at Ruston by children of the school will do much to dispel the idea that the soil of the district is barren. The large exhibit of garden truck shows clearly that the smelter fumes do not prohibit vegetation.
