CHRISTMAS SUGGESTION

NARCISSUS WAS A SISSY BOY--

—WHO LIVED IN BYGONE AGES. HE WAS HIS AUNTIE'S PRIDE AND JOY—OR SO SAY HIST'RY'S SAGES. HE WORE A WRIST FATCH AND A RING—
—a sport shirt in the summer, a silvery tenor he could sing; at tea he was a hummer. He always powdered up his nose before he went to dinner, and when he wore his striped hose Narcissus was a winner. One day Narcissus saw his face reflected in a puddle. He couldn't leave the dog-gone place; his mind was in a muddle. He sat there staring at the pool; admiring his reflection; he plum forgot to go to school, forgot his class election. In fact he sat there day and night, the joke of coon and 'possum. One morning as the east grew light he turned into a blossom! Narcissus' soul goes marching on in every modern legion; his name is Percy, Jack, Leon—in short his name is Legion! He stares into the looking glass in front of stores at even when busy folks desire to pass, as for their homes they're leavin'. I wish the gods would change his role, and make of him a mummy, a lamp post or a barber pole, a tailor's wooden dummy!
—CHARLES B. DRISCOLL.

The McKinley Red Caps were defeated yesterday afternoon in the Stadium by the Washington Mavericks by the score of 1 to 0 in one of the best grammar school soccer games played this year.
The Red Caps were the aggressors throughout the game, but were unable to get past the stone-wall defense of the north end school. Washburn scored the single point for Washington on a penalty kick. Alxander Burnett refereed.

Come down tomorrow night. See the wholesaler at The Times office, 9th and Commerce Streets.
Circulation Department

Let us tell you how to pack a basket for a poor family you know.
This is a half-bushel basket from the corner grocery. First are potatoes and then apples; these are supposed to be staples of the Christmas basket. In paper bags saved from time to time, place white beans and butter; add some jelly and ketchup, with a jar of fruit and one of pickles from the cellar. If there are children in the family for whom the basket is intended, put in a bag of popcorn.

CLOTURE IN U. S. SENATE

A Cloture isn't something to hang clothes on. Nor is it an obstruction on the brain. Nor yet a part of the plumbing of the capitol at Washington.

When Senator Owen tries to force a Cloture rule on the United States senate, it means that he is trying to put a limit to the time a member can consume in making a speech.

A Cloture is a shut-off, a stop-gap on the frailty of congressmen to gain political advantage by killing time.

A Cloture kills the filibuster. It means less politics in congress and more business.
