DOWN-AND-OUTS GET A CHANCE AS SANTAS

WIFE STAYS ON ABSENT LEAVE

Santa's assistants. Former "down and out" now busy making toys in Miss Christine S. Foster's toy shop in New York City. Some 70 old fellows whom the world had discarded as "too old to work" now are happy to be on the job.

Fred M. Creston, Tacoma fireman, gave his wife a four month leave of absence from the carpet sweeper and the wash tub. She liked it so well she refused to come back. Now Creston is suing for a divorce and custody of his child.

Ella B. Creston, the wife, said in Judge Clifford's court today that Creston sent her only 25 one-cent stamps during the time she was away. She objected to her husband's allegations that she was cruel to him and professed as much love for her little boy as the father.

Creston alleges his wife left him on two occasions for other men. He forgave her, he said, the first time when she insisted she had "sown her last wild oat."

"She was a perfect wife for two years," continued the husband. "Then she got to running out nights and began treating me something scandalous."

HENRY FORD SICK ABED

CHRISTIANA, Dec. 21.—Henry Ford is ill in bed. It is thought his case is possibly serious. The party will remain in Christiana until he recovers.

The newspapers have changed their sentiment toward him and refer to him as an admirable character. It was learned today that spies had been sent by the belligerents to ascertain if an ulterior motive prompted Ford to make the trip.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Seventy old fellows who only a short time ago were aged down and out-ers, straggling home- less along the waterfront of New York, have just about completed a tremendous output of Christmas toys in the strangest and most picturesque toy shop in the world.

And one brave little woman, Miss Christine S. Foster, is responsible all by herself for the success of the workshop in which these toys have been made. Al- though unaided she has carried through to the state of accomplishment that the world's first comprehensive attempt to deal with an ancient and bitter tragedy—that of the men who are "too old to work."

Miss Foster paid each of her Santa Clauses 50 cents a day and gave them good meal at noon. Then she rented a five-room apartment on the East Side, furnished it, and installed a group of her best workers there. Now these old men have a home of their own.

The oldest of Miss Foster's "apostles" is 88, the youngest about 60. A former architect works beside an old cabman. A once successful lawyer chats with the illiterate one-legged gray-beard next him who used to serve on a canal boat.

So when the rest of the society women packed up and sailed off to Newport or Bar Harbor, Miss Foster suddenly consecrated her life to the saving of these broken old fellows.

Bishop David Greer contributed the use of an old church building, and in it Miss Foster installed work benches, and about them came the 12 old men—her "12 apostles," she called them.

"We started by making one black cat—and we had a frightful time getting its eyes in the right place," she said today. "But those old men, who had never handled a brush nor a saw before, stuck to it until they made a good black cat on wheels as any child could want."

"Old men learn about my shop from some of those whom they meet in the lodging houses and who are already at work here, and every day a new applicant turns up. They are ragged, filthy and sullen at first. It is three weeks before I ever see a smile out of a newcomer."

LOCAL Improvement District No. 451—Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of Ordinance No. 6277 of the City of Tacoma, a roll has been placed in my hands for the collection of the assessment levied for grading to the established grade, the area between Broadway and Ridgewood Avenue from South 12th Street to South 14th Street, with roadway 20 feet in width and a parking space on each side thereof two (2) feet in width, together with the necessary storm water drainage.
