WOMEN'S COUNCIL OPENS STORMILY

USE COCOAUNT OIL FOR WASHING HAIR

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulisified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair. Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get mulisified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. "Advertisement."

CLEAR COMPLEXION

Don't worry about skin troubles. You can have a clear, clean complexion by using a little zemo, obtained at any drug store for 25c, or extra large bottle at $1.00. Zemo easily removes all traces of pimples, black heads, eczema, and ringworm and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zemo is neither watery, sticky, nor greasy and stains nothing. It is easily applied and costs a mere trifle for each application. It is always dependable. Zemo, Cleveland.

PREDICTS FLOOD OF B. C. SPUDS

OLYMPIA, Jan. 13.—T. O. Morrison, horticulture commissioner, yesterday predicted a great flood of Canadian potatoes into this country in the spring. He believes the high price of Washington potatoes and the removal of the quarantine on B. C. potatoes will lead to an overstocked market.

Knock Wet Arguments

Claiming that the Seattle Brewing & Malting Co., in its petition for a temporary order to restrain Attorney General Tanner from disposing of its excess stock of beer, was begging the real issue, U. S. Circuit Judge Gilbert and District Judges Cushman and Rudkin handed down a formal decision today denying the petition.

The judges ruled that it was illegal to have any liquor whatever after Jan. 1, and that it was merely a gratuitous concession on the state's part that 10 days were allowed to get rid of the liquor.

They also held that the brewing company had no right to question the validity of the Webb-Kenyon act, which provides that the interstate protection of liquor does not hold good in prohibition states. It is automatically thrown out when a state becomes dry.

The question of the legality of shipping liquor into a state when it is not permissible to manufacture it was passed entirely by the judges. They said it had been settled so many times in previous cases that it had ceased to be an open court question.

Draw Net On Bootleggers

Prosecutor Remann said today he is fast weaving a net around several prominent ex-saloonmen of Tacoma who are selling liquor over the bar to their intimate friends. He does not want to make an arrest until he finds the source of supply and then he will swoop down and make his arrests. He said that the violators have been extremely cautious.

Verni Politia, of Carbonado, and Steve Barchesky, of Wilkeson, who were arrested Tuesday in the cups of the raid on the mining towns, were arraigned today.

The three other offenders waived preliminary hearing and pleaded guilty. The dates for their hearing have been set for Jan. 18 and 21. It is thought they will demand a jury trial. All three are out on a heavy bond.

Send Italians to Aid Cettinje

ROME, Jan. 13.—Italian soldiers probably will be ordered to relieve the Montenegrins within two days in an effort to save Cettinje, the capital, from almost certain capture by the Austrians. It is believed this subject was considered today at a conference between the king, military chiefs and the cabinet.

Without An Operation

WONDERFUL HEALING OF RUPTURE
How a New Jersey Man Got Rid of a Severe, Obstinate, Right Inguinal Hernia Without the Slightest Trouble.

Below is a picture of Eugene M. Pullen, a well-known carpenter of Manasquan, New Jersey. If you could see him at his work, particularly when he handles heavy timber, jumps and climbs around like a youth, you would scarcely imagine that he had formerly been afflicted with a rupture.

At an early age, Eugene Pullen was an express driver. He handled railroad baggage. One day after delivering a heavy trunk on an upper floor he felt a pain in the right groin. The suffering increased and it was not long before the young man noticed the swelling.

The doctor told young Pullen that he was ruptured and that he must either wear a truss throughout life or submit to a drastic operation. All surgeons know that hernia operations, with anaesthetics, etc., are dangerous; they may end fatally. Moreover, it is a well established fact that many rupture operations are not successful; the bowel soon breaks through the sewed-up opening and protrudes worse than ever.

Like most others, Mr. Pullen declined to take the risks of an operation; the expense and loss of time had to be considered, too. Hoping he might get a little better encouragement, he went to another physician who, to his sorrow, gave him even less hope. It was pointed out to the young man that unless the rupture were perfectly held all the time or the surgeon's knife successfully used, he might expect an increase or doubling in the rupture with further complications, or the dreaded strangulated hernia which kills so many ruptured people.

Victim of Trusses. The victim bought a truss, a hard, spring-like affair, the best he could get. It tortured him. He tried another—still no relief. He was compelled to give up his express business. The hard tasks of ordinary men were forbidden him. He became an insurance agent, in which position he did not need to do bodily work. For six years Mr. Pullen dragged around, using various trusses, hard, elastic, etc., with never any contentment. One day his mother told him something she had just found out. It was a simple and easy thing for him to do. He lost no time.

Discarded His Truss. Relieved came at once; he almost forgot that he had a rupture. Afterward came a cure—a complete healing—and, although years have passed and Mr. Pullen is an energetic carpenter, working on buildings, climbing over roofs, lifting lumber and such like, he is absolutely free from the old hernia. He knows he is completely, lastingly cured. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble—comfort and contentment from the very outset. He is a strong, cheerful-minded man.

Valuable Information Free. The valuable information which Mrs. Pullen read in a newspaper many years ago and gave to her son, together with further important facts, will be sent free to any reader of this who writes to Eugene M. Pullen, 812B Marcellus Avenue, Manasquan, N. J., enclosing a stamp for reply. Mentioning the kind of rupture you have—whether on right or left side and what you have already done in your effort to cure it. A legion of cases of all kinds of rupture in men and women, including inguinal (groin), femoral, naval, scrotal, etc., have been reported completely healed. Age seems to make no difference.

Patients to Be Printers

A newspaper, printed and edited by the patients at the Mountain View sanatorium, containing local gossip and news and articles on tuberculosis, its prevention and cure.

This is the aim of the patients who have joined in a campaign to raise a fund for a small printing press to make their publication a permanent one. Two or three issues have already been turned out with the aid of a typewriter.

The patients have dug down into their own pockets and have subscribed as much as they could afford. One man gave 35 cents—all he had in the world. The fund has been swelled by the Order of Eagles, Superintendent and Mrs. R. J. Cary and others.

Superintendent Cary expects that the amount necessary for the purchase of the press—not less than $125—will be obtained soon. He says he will be glad to receive any amount of money, no matter how small, to complete the fund. Dr. Cary issued a statement today thanking the people of Tacoma in behalf of the patients for helping to make the holiday season a happy one.

Dry Law Hits Jim Shiel Hard

Prohibition is proving disastrous to James Shiel. Shiel, as you would know if you had ever been in jail, is chef at the city hall. Up to Jan. 1 he made a good living supplying meals to city prisoners at eight cents each, but since the state went dry he has had an average of only six customers a day, and the profits have dwindled so that he practically is forced to quit business, he says.

"The only way that I see of making a living here any longer," said Shiel today, "is to furnish entertainments with the meals like the other restaurants are doing. I am thinking of staging a little smoker in the jail one of these days. Maybe that will drum up some business." Romeo Hagan, well known boxer, who is spending the cold weather in a warm city cell, will be the headliner of Shiel's coming entertainment.

SCHMIDT GETS LIFE SENTENCE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 13.—Matthew A. Schmidt, found guilty two weeks ago of murder in connection with the Times dynamite case, was sentenced yesterday by Judge Willis to life imprisonment in San Quentin. He was denied a new trial.
