Fire in Hospital

DENVER, Jan. 27.—Pneumonia may afflict 200 patients who rushed into the street scantily clad during zero weather when a fire started today among chemicals in the basement of St. Joseph's hospital.

TACOMA OUT WITH A BREEZY NUMBER

The January number of the Tacoma came off the press yesterday with several new pieces of art by Carver and a number of interesting stories.

MODERN RIFLE PRACTICE TEACHES MEN TO WITHSTAND FIRE OF ENEMY

A crouching posture ranks next to prone as a position from which to fire. The standing position is practically barred. A man presents too great an elevation. Sgt. Jackson is shown here demonstrating the crouching position. Note that the knee acts as a brace in shooting from this position.

PETER'S PIFFLE

Poor Tommy West! He ventured down town yesterday afternoon and he sure looked like he needed sympathy. Tommy's left hand is swathed in bandages and looks like a ham. Four fingers of his right hand are exposed. His face is blistered and covered with tender, red skin. His angles are so red with men who had to wear slippers. West is the popular semi-pro baseball player who was badly burned some time ago when he tried to light a fire with kerosene.

Talk about the funny psychology of prohibition! Everyone thought that the pocket billiard business would flourish, with saloons out of business. But the billiard men report a dropping off of business ever since Jan. 1.

We know a guy who met a fellow yesterday who said he heard of a man who had liquor on his breath. Where's County Detective Fred Shaw?

City Detective Peter D. McKay made a timely remark today. "It's funny," quoth Peter, "that these fellows who used to say they didn't like the stuff and only drank for sociability's sake, don't hang around the saloons any more."

If Frank Farmer and his diamond-toothed manager, Sam Howard, go on the vaudeville stage together, as is reported, it will be easy to guess which little Oshkosh promoter of the two will demand the spotlight on him all the time.

BENJAMIN AND MASCOT MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

Paul Steele will leave today for Portland, where Joe Benjamin, his clever lightweight protégé, meets Billy Mascot before the Rose City Athletic club Friday night. Mascot is the boy who recently defeated Tex Vernon.

"If there is any possibility of a smell over the match, as has occurred in other bouts at Portland recently, I will not allow Joe to go on," said Steele today. "Benjamin is a clean boy and a clever boxer, and I will not allow his name to be mixed up with anything scandalous. I believe he can beat Mascot. The bout is for the lightweight championship of the Northwest."

DREW CANNOT BEAT RECORD

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The world's record of 70 yards in 7 1-5 seconds held by Howard P. Drew of the University of Southern California, was equaled by Drew last night at the track and field games of the Millrose Athletic association at Madison Square Garden. Try as he might, however, Drew could not clip a fraction of a second from his record. Roy W. Morse of this city finished inches behind Drew.

MUST CANCEL FED SUITS

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—One of the details of the baseball peace settlement, which has not yet been worked out, is that the Federal league must withdraw all their suits against organized baseball. The stockholders of the Baltimore Federal club are believed to be holding back the withdrawal of the suits, because of their desire to be admitted into the major leagues.

ELMA HOPING TO WIN TITLE

ELMA, Jan. 27.—The boys' and girls' basketball teams of the Hoquiam high school will play Elma teams in the local gymnasium Saturday evening. Elma has hopes this year of again winning the southwest title. The boys' team won their first game of the season from Malone Athletic club last week by 32 to 9.

JOHNSON IS SOFT-HEARTED

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Ban Johnson, president of the American league, declared today that he hoped to see a radical change in organized baseball next fall. Johnson is planning the organization of a body of baseball magnates and players, to take the place of the national commission, where the playing end of the game can be more fairly represented.

LEITH IS LEAVING

Once more the Tacoma Country and Golf club finds itself without a professional golfer. Willie Leith, professional at the club for two years past, gave notice today of his resignation and will leave for Butte where he has been given a more lucrative position with the Butte Country club.

NOT MUCH!

Despite the efforts of certain promoters to create enthusiasm over a match between Frank Farmer and Billy Weeks in Tacoma, there is little possibility of the bout.

GOLF TOURNEY FOR SPOKANE

SPOKANE, Jan. 27.—Announcement was made here last night that the 16th annual tournament of the Pacific Northwest Golf association will be held on the Spokane Country club course June 26 to July 1. The Spokane course is one of the best in the Northwest, having been laid out by David Finlay, professional of the club and an expert golf architect.

MURDER CASE ON

Attorneys for the state attempted today to belittle the testimony of the witnesses for the defense in the trial of John McCormick, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Frank Peterson on Christmas eve in front of a Pacific avenue restaurant.

BASEBALL SITUATION AROUSING INTEREST

Although in one breath Joe McGinnity denies that he has any intention of leaving Tacoma, in the next he admits that he has been carrying on negotiations with several persons during the past months for the sale of the Tacoma Tiger team. Edd. N. Watkins, former owner of the team, and the T. R. & P. company, are the two latest prospective purchasers, says McGinnity.

BOXER, MOVIE ACTOR

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27.—Rudy Inholz, Boer lightweight, has quit work on Jim Jeffries' farm and will become a movie actor. About a year ago Stanley Yankum cracked Rudy on the Adam's apple, putting his fighting career, also his votes, on the bum. The little scrapper has worked in Jeff's alfalfa fields ever since.

SLID HOME; LOSE LEG

An injury caused by a slide to the plate will result in amputation of the right leg of Jim Baskette, former Cleveland, Toledo and Kansas City pitcher, say reports from Chattanooga, his home. A piece of bone has been removed from Baskette's leg, but there are signs of decay, physicians say. Southern league fans are raising a fund to aid the ball player.
