

AND NOW JOAB IS JOABED

Whether Col. Albert E. Joab is to be sued for $5,000 for libel by Paul Haffer, alleged "smut-ter" of George Washington's memory, depends largely on the actions of the colonel.

F. L. Pendleton, attorney for Haffer, said today that his client was ready to bring suit at any moment, but that he wanted to await the outcome of preliminary motions in the case now pending against Haffer.

Haffer takes offense at the reflections cast on him by Col. Joab at the time his article appeared in a Tacoma newspaper which resulted in Joab's court action. Joab called Haffer a "black-guard" and an "anarchist."

These two terms, it is declared, are specifically quoted in the statutes as being libel per se. Pendleton explained today that they were libelous on their face and that it was unnecessary to prove actual damages. He said that a man convicted of anarchy is convicted of a felony and must face a penitentiary sentence of from one to 15 years.

Owing to the absence of Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Selden, a motion for dismissal, on the part of Haffer's attorney, was postponed until next Tuesday.

Pendleton cites as his grounds for dismissal an excerpt from Justice Graham's transcript in the preliminary hearing of the case, which follows:

"After hearing the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, the court finds the defendant guilty and binds him over to the superior court in the sum of $1,000 judgment."

To challenge Joab, Pendleton also takes exception to the fact that the witnesses were not endorsed and that the full trial was not held in the lower court.

Haffer is to give a talk March 19 in the socialist headquarters on the "Truth about George Washington." He will issue a public challenge to Col. Joab to meet him in open debate on the question.

When asked today about a public debate, Col. Joab said it was "against all professional ethics and public decency to join in any soap box oratory until after the question had been settled in court." After that he will gladly accommodate Haffer, he said.

When told about the proposed suit, the colonel said it could not come too soon.

"I'll show him up then to be the man I think he is. Friends of mine who know Haffer say that he is a Smart Alec, a well-headed egotist."

Ready For Him. "I want it clearly understood that there is difference in my opinion as to the red anarchist and socialist and the decent socialist and anarchist."

"Many of my friends are of the decent type, who believe in education and quiet action. The other type believes in direct action. They want to blow the devil out of everything. I have no use for that type."

"You tell Haffer that I fight in the open and that I am ready for him."

Unions Open Fight On Two Candidates

Organized labor jumped into the municipal campaign today, with acrimonial letter sent out by the Central Labor Council denouncing J. B. Hawthorne, candidate for councilman, because of his record last term in the legislature, and urging the defeat of R. W. Jamieson, because of his anti-labor attitude during the Ruston smelter strike.

"In looking over the complete records of the journal of the house of representatives, it will be found that at no time nor in any single instance did Mr. Hawthorne cast his vote with those who could see the humanitarian side of any law before them," says the circular.

Some of the measures which Hawthorne voted for, and which were strongly opposed by labor, were the Kleebar first aid bill, repeal of the women's 8-hour law, repeal of the 8-hour public works law, bill to amend and cripple direct legislation, bill to amend the recall, and the anti-picketing bill.

"Other measures," says the letter to labor, "which labor was directly interested in and would like to have seen defeated and which his vote will be found recorded for, are the Whitney convention bill, certificate of necessity bill, port commission bill and the budget bill.

Each of these bills was directly affecting the welfare and rights of the workers of the state, the letter says.

"Another man of whom some mention should be made," says the Central Labor Council's communication, "is ex-Sheriff R. W. Jamieson, who proved his unfair attitude toward labor in the recent smelter strike, and is of such recent date that review should not be necessary."

The labor council explains that, while it has endorsed no candidates, it urged all members of organized labor to see that "both of these perpetual office-seekers be defeated in a very decisive manner."

COG LOOSE SOMEWHERE
Representing himself to be a sewing machine repair man, a well dressed young man called at the home of Mrs. T. A. Chartel yesterday afternoon and started work on her machine.

He removed all the parts, in an effort to find the cause of trouble in the sewing machine and then, when he had the mechanism strewn about the floor, announced his intention of departing.

Mrs. Chartel threatened to call for police. Then she seized a flatiron and stood over the young man until he had put all the machinery together again.

When he had finished, she telephoned to an agency to determine whether or not the mechanic was really authorized to call on her. The agency replied that it had no such agent.

While she phoned, the young man disappeared. Nothing was stolen.

PLAYS FAIRY GODMOTHER TO YOUNG BLACK SHEEP

Mrs. D. H. Bishop

Young godmothers are not always young, beautiful and very wealthy. But Mrs. Dickenson H. Bishop, who played fairy godmother to young Philip Edgar Grant, Cornell graduate, and member of a prominent New York family, is lovely enough to play Cinderella rather than the godmother, and she has the wealth of a princess.

Mrs. Bishop was on her way to Panama when she discovered the steward in the steamer bathroom was the son of a family friend—a young chap who had strayed from home and "fallen from fortune." She urged him to return home and give up the bathroom job. Mrs. Bishop was divorced in January from Dickenson H. Bishop, the Dowagiac "stove king." He settled on her $100,000.
