WASHINGTON MOOSERS SHOWING INSURGENCY

CHICAGO, June 5.—Unusual calm prevails about the opposing headquarters. The progressives admit the old guard absolutely controls the organization. They declare that they are not worried because they don't care to exercise any ability.

All signs of serenity showed possibilities of disintegration today when the Hughes boom brightened. Perkins announced the progressives hadn't asked Hughes any questions nor tried to force any definite announcement from him.

The Washington state delegation arrived today and presented indications of insurgency against Perkins' plea for harmony.

Thomas Murphine of Seattle, was elected chairman of the delegation. Austin Griffiths declared the progressives would remain separate and intact.

WEEKS ON BLACKLIST

Chaplain for Woman's Party.

CHICAGO, June 5.—Thirteen hundred suffrage delegates descended upon candidates' row today and demanded immediate action toward the submission of the federal equal suffrage amendment.

The women worked under specific instructions to get a flat "yes" or "no" answer. No evasions would be allowed.

Senator Weeks flatly rejected the women, and immediately went on the party's blacklist.

How will the 4,273,000 voting women of the United States cast their ballots Nov. 4?

If some anxious presidential candidate wants to know let him ask the Woman's party. This non-political party is, according to its leaders, going to send the next president to the White House.

The Woman's party, now fully organized and launched on the political seas today, expects to be able to swing the woman vote to that party which inserts in its platform a plank advocating the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the national constitution.

"We do not want a mere declaration of principle," says Miss Doris Stevens of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage.

"We want a definite statement from the republican and progressive conventions and we want it in the form of platform planks.

Republican party leaders have been sphinx-like in their attitude toward suffrage.

Russell and Young to Cover Conventions for the Times

Russell's trenchant typewriter and Young's slashing quill will show you exactly what goes on while the national conventions are picking their presidential candidates!

The famous sociologist and the equally noted caricaturist will be the bright particular stars of The Times news and art staff at the republican-progressive and democratic national conventions!

Their illuminating articles and art will show you politics as it really is played—and Russell's long career as a political writer and Young's skill as a caricaturist of statesmen are your guarantee that the stuff they send will be worth your attention.

Watch for Russell and Young—in The Times beginning today.

PERKINS T. R.'S ADVANCE SCOUT

Here is the chief financier of the Bull Moose party in 1912, taken just after he stepped off the train to "put over" the Bull Moose candidate the U. O. P. convention in 1916.

Charged With Illegal Vote, She Faints

When Genevieve McQueen heard Attorney John Leo explain to the superior court today it would be necessary to introduce a number of witnesses who had committed a criminal offense in voting illegally in a school election, the strain proved to great for her and she fainted.

Mrs. McQueen and six others are accused of casting votes at a recent election for school directors at Elbe when they had no right to vote. Three recently moved to Pierce county, while four are not even citizens of the country, it is charged.

The cases in question are those of Bertha Whitney against Maude Morse and S. B. Sachs against G. A. Baker. They are being tried jointly. The plaintiffs in both cases allege they would have been elected had the "ringer" been kept out of the election.

MANILA DELEGATE AGAINST FREEDOM

Henry Bayard McCoy, republican national committeeman from Manila, has come across the world to attend the G. O. P. convention and he comes with a mission.

"Big American business can do big business with the Orient through Manila, and in no other way," says McCoy. Manila is the natural base of operations. We want to hang on to it, or Japan will build a power in the world with which we will have to reckon some day."

INDIAN PRINCESS TO TELL PRESIDENT HER PEOPLE ARE BEING MISTREATED

Ruth Griffiths of Cleveland, whose Indian name is Nacomee, says she will protest to President Wilson against what she calls mistreatment of her people on Indian reservations. Miss Griffiths' father is Joseph Griffiths, or "Chief Takan." Kiowa blood flows in his veins. He and his daughter recently visited their people in the west.

"The country's agents won't let the Indians sell their own produce off the reservation," says Miss Griffiths. "They have a system of letting other people in to buy it at any price they may name."

New Warehouse For Milwaukee

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad today took out a building permit for its new $78,000 warehouse, to adjoin the present Ocean docks operated by the road.

The new warehouse will be 500 feet long and 150 feet wide, one half the size of the present warehouses. An unusual increase in Oriental business during the past season has cramped the present facilities of the railroad.

"VOTES FOR WOMEN" ARGUMENT PUT UP TO CONVENTION CROWD

A picturesque and important part of the convention-fest in Chicago is the appearance of the several women's suffrage organizations, the most vociferous of which is the Women's party. Here's a Women's party speaker, Miss Elsie Hill, haranguing a gathering of delegates to the republican convention, at Michigan boulevard and Van Buren street, Chicago. She's standing in a horse-drawn vehicle in which workers of feminine suffrage made the rounds of the Loop. Gay yellow and purple streamers announce the coming of the "Votes" party, who offer for sale copies of their official organ, "The Suffragist," containing the official program of the votes-for-women agitation.

MEAT CO. TO MEET DEMANDS

Several Japanese gardeners near Fife, in the Puyallup valley, are washing their vegetables, which are brought daily to Tacoma for the markets, in polluted and filthy water, according to Health Officer Montague today.

The health officer, with Milk and Meat Inspector R. A. Button, made a tour of valley ranches and slaughter houses, inspecting sanitary conditions.

"We warned them to cease the practice, and if they do not heed the warning, they will be arrested," declared Dr. Montague.

Dr. Montague declared that two of three slaughter houses visited today were in fairly good condition, so far as the sanitary handling of meat was concerned.

"The third one was pretty bad, but the owners promised to clean up at once, and we will see that they do."

The Tacoma Meat company, which obtained a temporary injunction last week against the health department publishing any reports derogatory to it, following an inspection by Drs. Rich and Montague, today advised the health commission that it would immediately clean up its plant and conform fully to the health department's demands.

NO JURY FOR JORDAN TRIAL

Council for Cecil Jordan, who is facing trial on an habitual criminal charge, exhausted the list of peremptory challenges today in drawing a jury to hear the case. The court excused six others.

The difficulty in choosing the jury was brought about by the fact that both Earl and Cecil Jordan were found guilty by juries drawn from this month's panel. Many of those drawn today had sat on one of the other cases.

Deputy Prosecutor Selden believed the jury would easily be completed today and some testimony would be taken. The state will attempt to show that Jordan has been convicted of three felonies, which, under the law of the state, makes him an habitual criminal. He may face a life sentence in the state penitentiary.

CONFESSES HE ROBBED STORE

Henry Eckstrom, who was brought from Colfax Sunday by Detective Milone to answer a charge of highway robbery here, confessed today to Detective Captain Fackler that he was one of the three men who held up the Yullip drug store, South 2nd and St. Helens, in March. Joe Barsmanian, one of his companions, is already under arrest.

Safe Door Holds

An attempt was made last night to force open a large steel safe in the offices of the Puget Sound Steel and Boiler works, on the tideflats. Cracksmen forced open a window to gain entrance, and knocked off the combination dial of the safe. Several blows were struck on the mechanism of the door, but the lock jammed, and efforts to open it proved futile.
