

Ready for Big Circus

Everything is ready for the scheduled exhibition here next Wednesday of John Robinson's ten big shows, the best organized organization that has been touring this country for eighty-nine consecutive years. All that seems to be needed now is favorable weather; and even should the weather man be out of sorts and contrary on the morning of circus day, he will not be able to thwart the plans of the management, which has provided waterproof canvas covering.

The free street parade is promised here for the little folks and grown-ups.

The management has provided for a downtown reserved seat sale on the morning of circus day at the Sherman, Clay & Co. piano store.

Hughes Talks at Last

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6.—Justice Hughes yesterday made his first public address since the opening of the pre-convention campaign. It accompanied the presentation of an American flag to the honor graduates of the National Cathedral school and was delivered in the seclusion of the school lawn. He told the young women graduates that the flag meant "America first, an undivided allegiance and a nation united and equal to its tasks." Catherine, the daughter of the Justice, was a member of the graduating class.

Cecil Jordan Guilty

Cecil Jordan was found guilty of being an habitual criminal yesterday in less than two hours after the state began presenting its evidence to the jury. The prosecution showed that Jordan had been convicted of felonies twice before and was convicted in Tacoma last week for robbing the store of the Edgewood Trading Co. Cecil's brother Earl was found guilty of grand larceny last week. The law provides that a person convicted under the habitual act may be sentenced to life imprisonment.

Lopez Pays Penalty

CHIHUAHUA CITY, June 6.—Paying the penalty for his brutal crimes, Pablo Lopez, Villa's chief lieutenant in the raid on Columbus, N. M., late yesterday faced a firing squad of constitutional soldiers at Santa Rosa, Chihuahua's place of execution. When the officer in command gave the order to present arms, Lopez raised his head, smiled until his teeth showed, then looking directly at the soldiers said: "In the breast, brothers; in the breast." He was killed instantly.

"Victors Don't Run"

LONDON, June 6.—"Victors do not run away," was the comment in reply to the German claims of victory in the great naval battle. The Morning Post calls the fight a "victory so momentous that the results may prove the turning point of the war." Other publications call it a glorious victory for the British, one of them saying, "The navy won a great victory and the admiralty announced it like a defeat."

The Beauty Smile; How to Get It

Lillian Benfeldt Thompson

Youth and beauty are two treasures that every woman prizes. Nothing will chase both of them away quicker than a gloomy disposition. If a woman would keep her youth and beauty, it is folly for her to yield to the blues and foolish mental states that are bitter enemies of all that is young and beautiful.

Smiling real smiles, not painful, unwilling imitations of a smile, will do more to help women retain their youth and beauty than all the lotions in the world. A woman is bound to grow old some day, my skeptic friends tell me in arguing against my smile theories.

Certainly. We all must grow old in time. But haven't you noticed a cheery-faced, white-haired old lady with a smile that comes from her heart?

And didn't you think she looked young and beautiful in spite of her years?

One can be old and still look young. Age, of course, changes the lines of youth, but the beauty in women and that cheery expression of the face, which is a sign of perpetual youth, will always remain if they will only learn the psychology of the smile.

In the Sunday magazines of the newspapers one reads of a multitude of schemes used by women to develop and retain beauty.

Some take milk baths, others use champagne in their tubs, while many find comfort in a vast array of beauty lotions, creams, dyes and all that sort of thing.

I care not for artificial aids to beauty. My smile suits me. Instead of indulging in some patent beauty remedy in the mornings, I simply smile. If I feel rather out of sorts when I awake, go through a series of smiling exercises which I have developed for my own use.

Sometimes I must confess I don't feel like smiling just at the beginning of the day, but I keep at it and sooner or later I find that I am returning to my normal, cheerful self.

Smile medicine is all that I have ever used to keep whatever of beauty I may have.

I want to impress this fact on the women and girls who read these stories.

Anger and gloom distort the face and destroy youth and beauty. Smiles have the opposite effect. The face that is always smiling may have a few wrinkles around the eyes, but the effect takes nothing away from beauty, while the frown lines bring on ugliness.

Frowns are the expression of an ugly disposition and naturally paint a similar picture on the face.

No girl can hope to be good looking who weakly gives way to fits of the blues, disappointments and all the ills that one meets up with in life.

Don't do it. It's not worth while. Life's too short. You'll keep your good looks and attractiveness a workable asset if you practice your smiles and forget to frown.

Tomorrow I am going to tell you about the BUSINESS SMILE.

Ministers won't march in parade. Ministers of Tacoma adopted resolutions in which they said they would march in a parade in the interests of the league to enforce peace, but that they would not carry preparedness banners.

Hen won't attend Chicago Jamboree. Detroit, June 6.—Henry Ford's secretary has announced that Ford will be unable to attend the Chicago convention owing to the stress of business.

Alkali makes soap bad for washing hair. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain muscled coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

FIVE BIG ACTS FOR NEW BILL

Five big vaudeville acts and another episode of the thrilling movie serial, "The Iron Claw," comprise this week's bill at Pantages.

"Pastimes of the Plains"—a clever exhibition of riding, lariat throwing, and cowboy stunts, featuring Miss Adele von Ohi and her performing horse. Very good.

"School Days"—nine youngsters under Roy Mack's direction, in a musical comedy skit filled with good humor. Interesting.

Knapp and Cornalla—versatile comedians who "do a little bit of everything." Clever act.

Scanlon and Press—two men and a girl in some good songs and some better dances. The dance numbers are splendid.

Chester's posing dogs—reproduce famous painting in a unique style. Act represents long training. Very good.

"The Iron Claw"—a thrill a second.
