YOUNG PITCHER IS WILD, LOSES GAME FOR TIGER

SPOKANE, Aug. 17.—Wildness of Rickey Williams, Tacoma's new pitcher, coupled with the steady and powerful arm of "Dutch" Reuther, were responsible for the Tigers' defeat at Natorium park yesterday afternoon, 5 to 1.

The Tacoma contingent made only three hits in the entire game. None of the hits counted for anything, because the Tigers' only run, made in the third, came during a temporary weakness of Reuther, when he walked Bankhead, with the bases full. Reuther pulled himself out of the hole by striking out Baldwin, the next—and last—Tiger to face him that inning.

In the first inning Williams showed a weakness. He walked Gislason, let Mensor single, and permitted Harper to hit a short one that he beat out. A wild pitch by the Tacoma pitcher, and a single by Williams gave the Indians their first two runs.

Two singles and a pair of well placed sacrifices gave Spokane another in the fifth. Three singles and a passed ball in the sixth were worth another tally, and a walk, single, and error by Bohne, allowed the Indians to make their fifth run in the seventh.

PERCENTAGE COLUMN MAN REPORTS

Rickey Williams, Tacoma's new pitcher, was the only Tiger who gained anything in batting yesterday. Every other player slid down the line a little farther.

It was Williams' fifth game with Tacoma, and he made his third hit.

Here's the way they look today:

DAILY CHATS WITH FAMOUS BALLPLAYERS

GEORGE GIBSON, PITTSBURG PIRATES: "A young outfielder was making his first splash in the majors in Pittsburgh spangles and early in the game a high fly was batted his way. Somehow he lost his nerve and failed to judge it properly. He made three or four circles and finally gave it up as the ball hit on his head and bounced away to a far corner letting two runners score.

"The boner cost us that game. Fred Clarke was wild. Picking up a catcher's mask, he yelled: 'Here you lousehead mutt! Take this mask and put it on or they'll knock your brains out with the next fly!'"

Arranging For Amateur Games

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 17.—Arrangements were completed by the National Amateur Baseball association last night for the amateur baseball championship tournament, to be staged this fall.

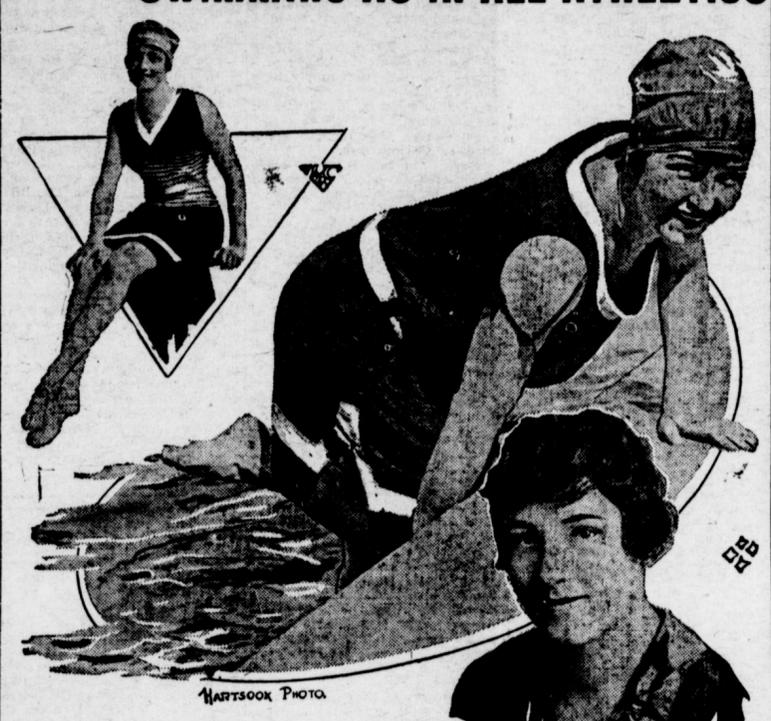

Sectional games will be played first, to determine the north, south, east and west titles, followed by finals between the sectional champions.

FIRES STEEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—Harry Wolverton, manager of the San Francisco Seals, last night indefinitely suspended Pitcher Bill Steen for "indifferent playing." Trouble between Steen and the management has caused the pitcher to make little effort recently to win, it is said.

State Bus College opens Aug. 18th. Revised Gregg Shorthand, by New Bookkeeping.

SENSIBLE LIVING NECESSARY IN SWIMMING AS IN ALL ATHLETICS

Miss Olga Florence Dorfner, national girl champion in the hundred-yard swimming race.

BY OLGA FLORENCE DORFNER, American Champion Girl Swimmer. (Copyright, 1916, Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

Work-a-day persons seem to take it for granted that all an athlete has to do is to follow a few simple rules and, as a result, leap easily to the heights. They seem to imagine that he is endowed with certain unusual qualities which enable him to overcome his doubts of personal prowess and become a winner without trouble or anxiety.

This, of course, is not the case. An athlete is just a human like other folk. He is subject to the same weaknesses and fears that beset the rest of humanity. The rules which aid him on his way to success apply with equal force to everybody else—rich man, poor man and all the classes in between.

The successful athlete realizes the value and necessity of clean, sensible habits of living. A healthy body helps wonderfully in keeping a clear mind, one that is keen in its attacks against discouragements and fears that bob up for a bout now and then. So, for that reason, the athlete is careful to live right. He keeps in training, follows certain rules of conduct physically and mentally.

Some of my friends think it only natural that an athlete should keep in training as a necessary part of his work. But they fail to realize that they would gain just as much benefit in their own work as the athlete does in his, if they followed out a similar course of sensible living and careful habits.

Go in for your work with all the zeal and enthusiasm you can command. Don't think of not succeeding. Get that idea out of your mind. Do your best. Live sensibly. If you do this, you will progress in your battle with fear and attain a comforting success.

You may not be a champion, but you will have the joy of accomplishment and the satisfaction of work well done. You will not be haunted by doubts. You will go about your duties with a singing heart.

SPORT DOPE

Fat La Rue of Oakland, amateur heavyweight champion of the United States, who appeared in the amateur boxing tournament at Seattle a few months ago, is lining things up for an invasion of the east. He will be managed by Charley Harvey, and he is going after the heavyweight championship of the world. Harvey had Owen Moran out on the coast in years gone by. Jim Coffroth will also act as adviser to the young white hope.

Although Kid Williams has not done much fighting in the last 18 months, he has just announced that he intends to retire from the ring for good before December 5, 1917. That will be his 24th birthday. Before that time he claims he will do plenty of fighting and give all the bantams a chance to meet him.

Willie Ritchie is about as popular in San Francisco as a German Zep in London. At every opportunity the San Francisco boxing chroniclers slip the gaff into little Geoffrey Steffen, up to the bitter hilt. At present they are declaring that Willie never misses an opportunity to have his picture taken. One scribe says Willie follows the camera men around in the militia training camp, where he now is, and does the rush act every time the camera gets ready for business.

The draft season began this week in the minor leagues. The national baseball commission has ruled that on and after August 15 all minor league players that have not previously been sold, are subject to draft by leagues of higher ratings. Filing of drafts closes September 22. Beginning Sept. 22, the Class AA leagues get

Former Tacoma Golfer Is Sensation In the East

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 17.—James M. Barnes of Philadelphia broke the course record of the Blumentown Country club, and went five under par, when he reported a score of 137 for 36, a special preliminary to the Western open golf championship, which began today.

Barnes was formerly a professional at the Tacoma Country and Golf club. He has made a remarkable record on eastern courses since leaving the coast.

Circus Story Woven Into a Movie Feature

Pretty Bessie Love, who made a big hit at the Regent with William S. Hart in "The Aryan" and with Douglas Fairbanks in "Reggie Mike," returned to the Regent today with De Wolf Hopper in "Stranded," a play of heart interest and emotion. It is a story of the stage and the show world, and Bessie Love appears first as a circus acrobat. De Wolf Hopper has the part of an old time actor, and puts much human interest into it. A Keystone comedy, "Ambrose Madcap," with Mack Swain, is the added attraction.

CHAPLIN IS ONLY ACTOR IN 'ONE A. M.'

With a new Chaplin scream, shown for the first time in Tacoma, and with three nifty vaudeville acts, a free-act King Bagrot photoplay and pictures of the New Jersey explosion and fire, the new bill at the Hippodrome opening yesterday is a big money's worth.

In fact to the person who wants to laugh, "One A. M.," the Chaplin film, is worth the admission price alone. It is a merry Chaplin affair in which the comedian is the only actor. The "One A. M." of the title refers to the time that the tipsy man-about-town gets home. Chaplin does this character in his inimitable style and creates no end of fun. It is as funny as though he were surrounded by comedy stars instead of appearing all alone.

Unique Stunt Performed by Animal Actor In Bara Play

Director J. Gordon Edwards came near founding a managerie in connection with the taking of the new William Fox picture, "Under Two Flags," which opened at the Colonial today with Theda Bara in the leading role. In the scenes at Cigarette's house, where the veteran lives with his pets, it became necessary to have a crow, two chickens, a dog, a cat, and a rat. Most of the animals pressed into service behaved with good grace; but the rat refused to be led.

Famous Star In Emotional Play

Miss Ethel Barrymore, surrounded by a group of Metro stars, in her latest film success, "The Kiss of Hate."

Ethel Barrymore, one of the most popular women on the American stage, who is equally popular as a motion picture player, has a great role as Nadia in "The Kiss of Hate" in which she plays at the Apollo until Saturday night. It is a play in which a beautiful woman is persecuted and gives herself up to a brute to save her brother from a fate worse than death. The play is filled with intense situations and action.

Bracey Is Back

Patrons of the Melbourne welcome an old screen favorite back yesterday when Sidney Bracey returned to that theater in the big Gold Seal feature, "The Crystal Warning." Bracey is remembered as the star of the "Million Dollar Mystery" serial and is seen to fine advantage in the new Gold Seal production.
