YOU CAN'T WIN AGAINST SUCH SLUGGERS AS THOSE EVER-HITTING INDIAN LADS

Russ Hall's bunch of youthful big-league aspirants, made their best attempt of the week to win yesterday afternoon.

And they had the game sewed up, 2 to 1, when the ninth inning rolled around. But the old saying—"You never can tell about a ball game until the last out has been made"—proved truthful once more, and the Indians, after trying things up in the ninth, grabbed off the battle with a four-run margin in the extra inning.

Sutherland had held the Indians well in check up to the last couple of innings. Although Harstad did not let many Tigers hit him, his control was bad and he walked nine Tacomas, one of his walks, in the eighth, coming when the bases were filled.

That 10th inning affair was a bad one. Zamlock started things with a hit and was sacrificed to second. Gislason bunched a grounder to Leard, and the Tiger second baseman, in his eagerness to make a quick play, booted the ball. Harper hit a long double and two men scored. Then Williams, the lanky Indian center fielder, hit the ball on the nose. That pill soared up into the air like an aeroplane and headed for Oakland station. The small boys are still looking for it. Williams' home run scored two more runs, and the game was lost.

The young Tiger team did its best to win yesterday. It was on its toes all the time. Several sensational catches were made, including a wonderful spear of a long fly by Joe Connolly, in center field, with two Indians on bases.

Carl Zamlock, the newly acquired star pitcher for Spokane, worked on first base, and demonstrated that he is almost as good a pitcher-first baseman as Dutch Reuther.

The score:

Spokane	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Gislason, 2b	4	1	0	2	1	0

THE PERCENTAGE COLUMN MAN REPORTS

The official dope today shows that in the nine games played already between Spokane and Tacoma, the Tigers have only made 52 hits while the Indians have made 85.

Does this throw any light on the reasons for the Tigers' downfall?

KILBANE BURNS UP TENNIS COURTS TO DEVELOP SPEED FOR HIS TITLE BOUT

"Ninety per cent of the boxers have their fight in gymnasium. That's why I limit my preliminary sparring to five short rounds in training for an important battle. That's why I play tennis, skip the rope, indulge in a six-mile hike before breakfast and play handball and the old-fashioned game of one 'o' cat."

Johnny Kilbane, featherweight king, who defends his title against George Chaney, Baltimore southpaw knockout artist, in a scheduled 15-round fight at Cedar Point, O., on the afternoon of Labor day, gave vent to this statement yesterday as he laid aside a tennis racket and seized a baseball bat at his camp in Cleveland.

SPORT DOPE

From the Vancouver Sun—The McCredies are just a bit leary about lumping Portland back into the Northwestern league, fearing that Portland fans will not appreciate Class B ball. This could easily be remedied, however. Should Portland come into this circuit, the magnates would be nearly unanimous for making this Class A.

Jack Keorns of San Francisco says that Billy Murray is "all in." He says that the Portuguese boxer is forced now to pick dead ones, or else lose his matches. Murray is the boy who was defeated by Frank Farmer at Glendale last winter.

Billy Donovan of the Yanks says he hasn't had a quorum of sound-limbed ball players since July 1.

Otto Floto of the Denver Post, also part owner of the Sells-Floto circus, thinks that Sam Langford can whip Jack Dillon. Langford is one of the marvels of pugilism. Fans used to think that Joe Wolcott was great. But Joe, in his palmist days, was not equal to Langford. Joe was not as big as Sam, nor as strong, nor as hard a hitter, nor did he have the fighting heart of Langford.

With the football training season for the University of Washington set for Sept. 11, Coach Doble is not attempting to hide his pleasure over the order permitting school students to leave the border army service and return to their studies. Dave Logg, the long-legged center; Bill Grimm and Ross McKechnie are three soldier boys whom Doble is especially anxious to see in his training camp next month.

Jess Willard ought to feel decidedly lonely on Labor day. He will be about the only well known boxer who hasn't a match for that day. Among the bouts already listed are the following: Freddie Welsh vs Charley White, Colorado Springs, 20 rounds to a decision; Jack Dillon vs. Jim Coffey, New York, 10 rounds, no decision; Johnny Kilbane vs. George Chaney, Cedar Point, O., 15 rounds to a decision; Johnny Williams vs. Frankie Brown, Baltimore, 15 rounds to a decision.

Billy Mascott and Joe Gorman, the two popular featherweights of Portland, will meet again next Wednesday night before the Rose City Athletic club.

Johnny Coulon is matched with Battling Chico at Venice, Cal., tomorrow night. Coulon expects to weigh 110, although the weight limit is 118 pounds.

Monte Attell, who a few years ago was boxing all over the country against good boys, is again meeting the best 116-pounders. He seems to be staging an excellent comeback. He now is threatening to go after Johnny Ertle and Kid Williams.

Christopher Mathewson II has arrived! John McGraw, who uncovered the original Old Master, claims he has found, in George Smith, the Columbia university pitcher, the perfect double of Bix Six. The oftener I look at Smith the greater trouble I have in convincing myself it is not the Matty of 1902," said the boss of the Giants. "Built along similar lines and resembling Matty greatly in features, Smith, to me, is the Matty of this generation."

"His position on the mound, his delivery and his cool aloofness also remind me much of Matty. Added to this, Smith delivers a fast ball with the free and easy motion of Matty and he has a drop ball that I am convinced can be the equal to the famous 'Matty' fadeaway."

"Never before have I seen a young pitcher in whom I have as much confidence as I have in Smith. He has every natural advantage and is certain enough about himself to make a great pitcher. He also has one delivery that Matty never was able to master—a slow ball."

HOMER WINS WITH HOMER

GREAT FALLS, Aug. 24.—A home run by Homer Haworth in the 10th inning yesterday broke an 8 to 3 tie and added another game to the Electric's long list of victories. Score: R H E
Seattle ..... 8 13 1
Great Falls ..... 9 13 1
Schmutz and Cunningham; Toner, Killlay and Haworth.

TROEH GOES AFTER THE BIG TITLE

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24.—After winning the Mound City overtime, or first match of the tourney, with a perfect score, Frank Troeh of Vancouver, Wash., champion trapezoider of the Northwest, won second place yesterday afternoon in the national amateur doubles championships.

Allen Heil of Allentown, Pa., was first with 89, and Troeh had 88. The grand American handicap shoot began today. Troeh is looked upon as a formidable contender for the title.

BONER COSTS HEINE FIFTY

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Because he ran past third after starting from first on a bunt, and was easily caught between third and home, Heine Zimmerman, third baseman of the Chicago Nationals, was fined $50 by Joe Tinker yesterday afternoon.

Woman Makes Clever Score

GRAND RAPIDS, Aug. 24.—The Kent county golf course record for women was broken yesterday when Miss Laurie Kaiser of Chicago made 18 holes in 89, 10 points under par. The score was made in the second round of the women's western open championship tournament.

"The Flower of No Man's Land," with Viola Dana; Metro.
COLONIAL
"Under Cover," with Hazel Dawn and Owen Moore; Paramount.
MELBOURNE
"It Happened in Honolulu," with Myrtle Gonzales.

BESSIE HAS DELIGHTFUL NEW DRAMA

Bessie Barriscale's name is enough to fill any motion picture theater and crowds will flock to the Regent during the engagement of "The Payment," which opened today. This favorite, winsome star, is said to have an exceptionally strong part in her new drama of heart interest.

The story is considered one of the best, if not the best that C. Gardiner Sullivan, the able Triangle playwright, has ever written.

New situations, thrilling moments and heart throbbing incidents are said to abound in it. A new Keystone comedy is also on the new bill.

HAWAIIAN PLAY AT MELBOURNE

"It Happened in Honolulu," a five-act Red Feather feature, is proving a strong drawing card for the Melbourne. The picture has the beautiful tropical island for its background and the story is one of love, intrigue and mystery that grips and holds the attention.

Pretty Myrtle Gonzales is the star and she is supported by Val Paul and an excellent company. On the same bill is a comedy production in two reels, "A Can's a Can."

Play That Made Hit On Stage Returns As Movie With Hazel Dawn In Lead

Owen Moore, husband of Mary Pickford, has the leading role, opposite Hazel Dawn, in "Under Cover," the famous stage sensation, which comes to the Colonial today as a Paramount feature.

A diamond necklace valued at $200,000 is something over which, who has smuggled it into the United States, is just as anxious to keep it. The battle of wits between these two is a thrilling and highly interesting one.

Hazel Dawn, the beautiful blonde, is co-starred in "Under Cover," the picture attraction at the Colonial today. The girl, forced to work for the United States customs because of a sister's crime, strives to get the necklace. Den-

Viola Dana In Metro Play

A fascinating young actress, and a delightful story make the feature opening at the Apollo today for three days a most enjoyable one. Viola Dana, whose genius David Belasco said was "supreme," and who is remembered for her hit in "The Poor Little Rich Girl," is said to be exceptionally winsome as the western girl who marries an opera singer and encounters experiences in New York that deeply stir the sympathies of the audience.

The play is produced on original lines, with a refreshing spirit and a tenseness of plot that holds the audience in a strong grip. A Metro Drew comedy and singing by Chief Big Elk, the Indian baritone, are added attractions.

DAILY CHATS WITH FAMOUS BALLPLAYERS

RAY CALDWELL, NEW YORK YANKEES:

"Ordinarily the steamy day is the day for the ballplayer. When a pitcher begins to grow old he needs the hot weather to get the old soup-bone in shape. A young pitcher can get in there every day and get up speed but the veteran can't do it any more. I don't mind the hot weather if it isn't too hot. Sometimes in St. Louis the climate makes you wilt.

"Whom do I consider the most dangerous batter I face year in and year out? I'd pick Bobby Veach, of the Tigers. He always seemed to have something on me. I'd rather face Cobb any time than Veach."
