GERMAN SHIFTS ATTACK

(United Press Leased Wire.) LONDON, Sept. 21.—Halted in his invasion of eastern Rumania, Field Marshal Mackensen has shifted his attack and is attempting to carry the war into King Ferdinand's country by a stroke from the northwest. The German war office this afternoon announced that the Austro-Germans have won victories on both sides of the Vulcan mountain pass, one of the gateways on the Rumanian northwestern frontier, after driving the Rumanians back 10 miles. The Bulgarian war office today admitted the defeat of German and Bulgarian attempts to penetrate the new Russo-Rumanian front in the Dobruja. The Rumanian war office not only reported the repulse of all Austro-German attacks, but declared that the Russians and Rumanians are now attacking on the whole front. In Macedonia, fierce Bulgarian counter-attacks have held up temporarily the progress of the allied left wing, except at the extreme northwestern corner of Greece, where the French reported a three-mile advance. Some progress was made by the British on the Somme front last night, but bad weather hindered operations on both sides. The principal fighting on the western front occurred northeast of Verdun, where the French carried German trenches and advanced 100 yards at one point.

GRAIN MEN WILL HEAR IMPORTANT UTTERANCE

(United Press Leased Wire.) ASBURY PARK, N. J., Sept. 21.—Great importance is attached by the democrats to President Wilson's address next Monday afternoon before the National Grain Dealers' association at Baltimore. What the president has to say on that occasion and the reception accorded his speech, they believe, will have a strong influence in two of the most important strongholds of the country. The grain dealers are in intimate touch with the farmers. They also are among the foremost shippers of the country, who, the railroads say, will "have to pay the freight" as a result of President Wilson forcing the eight-hour legislation through congress.

Stork Only 30 Minutes Apart In Visiting Cops

Police Patrol Chauffeur Roy Nelson and Police Chauffeur R. O. Stokes made a bet with each other some time ago that each would have increases in the family before the other. "Mine's going to be a boy, and he'll be the finest, huskiest cop on the department when he grows up," said Officer Nelson. "Mine's going to be a police officer, too," predicted Stokes. Nothing was heard of the bet for a long time. But both officers obtained leaves of absence Wednesday night. At midnight Officer Nelson telephoned headquarters. "It's a boy, eight pounds, and he arrived at 10:45," he exclaimed excitedly. "Heard anything from Stokes?" "Not yet," replied Sgt. Hill. Ten minutes later Officer Stokes telephoned. "Mine's a fine eight and one-half pound girl, born at 11:15," he called. His excitement even surpassed Nelson's. "Heard anything from Nelson?" "Yep, he got a boy," replied the sergeant. "Beat you just 30 minutes." "Well, his boy may be a policeman, but my girl's going to be a police matron, so I guess he hasn't anything on me," retorted the happy and satisfied Officer Stokes.

SHERIFF TO LOSE POST

(United Press Leased Wire.) TOPEKA, Kas., Sept. 21.—L. H. Lathrop, coroner, automatically became sheriff of Johnson county today following the lynching of Bert Dudley, convicted slayer of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mueller, by 50 enraged Johnson county citizens this morning. It is provided by the Kansas statutes that when a lynching occurs in a Kansas sheriff's territory, the coroner automatically becomes sheriff. At the end of 10 days' suspension, a hearing is held before the governor and the deposed sheriff may or may not be reinstated by the governor. E. G. Carol was the sheriff of Johnson county, whose place Lathrop takes. Gov. Capper expected to issue a statement shortly after noon today ordering an investigation of the lynching. The 1909 statutes provide a penalty of from five years to life imprisonment for anyone participating in a lynching and from two to 21 years for anyone helping a participant.

PROBE CAR SHORTAGE

(United Press Leased Wire.) PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 21.—Lumbermen and other northwestern shippers testified today in the Oregon public service commission's investigation into the freight car famine. Charles McGowan, manager for the Ewauna Box Co. of Klamath Falls in his evidence asserted the California Pine Box & Shook Co. was able to get cars and make deliveries when he could not do so, and that a lumber plant in Klamath with a production half as large as his was given just as many cars. President Sproule of the Southern Pacific promised relief by saying that the traffic department is arranging for interchange of traffic with the Northern Pacific and Great Northern.

Slaver Pleads Guilty; Ruined Stenographer (United Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Gustave Kugelmann, alleged to have ruined Carrie Kaufmann, the young high school girl who confessed to the police her experiences as a white slave, today pleaded guilty to one of three white slavery indictments returned against him. He will be sentenced Oct. 10. The Kaufmann girl, a stenographer in the office of a big New York corporation, confessed that after a flirtation with Kugelmann he betrayed her and then sent her on the streets to make a living for him. She continued to work as a stenographer, earning $10 a week and entertaining men at night, giving the proceeds to Kugelmann. Kugelmann declared he was only 21 years of age when he pleaded guilty. He said he had once been arrested for vagrancy in Lexington, Ky.

The Wall street gambler three months ago was betting that Roosevelt would get the republican nomination. This was the message received today by Democratic Chairman McCormick from Frank Doremus, congressman from Michigan and chairman of the democratic congressional committee.
