

Wall St. Backs Hughes

(Special to The Times.)
 NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The World in a leading editorial headed, "What Would Hughes Do?" says:
 "Mr. Hughes is glib in declaring that everything that President Wilson has done is wrong and that the legislation enacted by the democratic party is all wrong, but he has no program, no policies of his own for publication.
 "All we have to guide us is the character of Mr. Hughes' supporters. We know that the trusts and corporations are supporting him. We know that the old guard is supporting him. We know that the Germans are supporting him. We know that Roosevelt is supporting him for reasons that are quite clear to Roosevelt but not so clear to the general public.
 "We know that Wall street is financing his campaign more lavishly than it has financed any other republican campaign since the time of Mark Hanna. We know what Mr. Hughes' supporters expect of him and we have a right to assume that they have confidential sources of information denied to the American people as a whole. Beyond that the page is blank."

Woman Sues Preacher

LUCILLE COVINGTON

Miss Covington has filed suit for $100,000, in New York and Chicago, against the Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill of New York, widely known as a civic, industrial and international peace speaker, charging breach of promise. She says she met Dr. Hill, who is married, in Chicago in 1910. She alleges he represented himself as a widower and asked her to marry him so his children might have a mother.

Revoltors Hold Crete

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 ATHENS, Sept. 25.—Thirty thousand insurgents now control the island of Crete, following the capture of Canea and Hieracaleon. Not more than 11,000 of King Constantine's Cretan bodyguard remained loyal, the rest surrendering to the insurgents.
 The capture of Canea, capital of Crete, by the revolutionary forces was accomplished without bloodshed.
 The capture of the island of Crete marks the successful consummation of the 11th revolution the island has witnessed during the last 100 years.

 Rev. Father Weibel, pastor of St. Leo's, says he expects the choir will become one of the leading musical organizations in Tacoma.

Water Supply Cut Off

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 ROME, Sept. 25.—Italian troops have cut the Trieste water supply.
 The Rome dispatch does not state how the water supply was cut. It appears probable that an Italian advance in the vicinity of Montefalco, about 13 miles from Trieste, accomplished the feat.

Income Tax Shake-up

By Basil M. Manly

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)
 WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 25.—A step toward complete collection of the federal income tax was taken in the deficiency bill, just signed by the president, which directs the bureau of efficiency to overhaul completely all methods now used by the bureau of internal revenue.
 The internal revenue bureau has had a shake-up coming for a long time, and it looks like it may get it now.
 The first thing for the efficiency experts to realize when they tackle the bureau is that publicity is the greatest promoter of efficiency.

'Need Doses of Gospel'

Why do ministers' sons show such a high average of successful leadership, as compared with children of other professional men? The explanation given by Rev. Frank Dyer at the First Congregational church Sunday was that their success was due to character building at home and the mental and moral training from their parents.
 "It simply proves that American families need larger doses of the gospel given in a happy home atmosphere," he said.
 Rev. W. A. Moore, pastor of the First Christian church, said farewell to his congregation Sunday night.

Tells of Her Escape

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 25.—Having escaped from the state hospital for the insane at Steilacoom last Thanksgiving day, Mrs. Olive B. Dudley, ex-wife of a Portland newspaper man, will return to Cosmopolis this week in an attempt to clear her commitment from the record.
 She made her escape by changing to her best clothes, raising an umbrella and walking quietly through the hospital grounds, she says. Then she walked two miles through a severe rain and wind storm to a farm house unrecognized. Physicians claim she is entirely normal.

This Gray-Haired Woman Is Devoting Life to Race Game

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 25.—A gray-haired, kindly faced woman is campaigning race horses on the Great Western harness circuit this year and she finds the sport profitable.

The woman is Mrs. W. M. Bryant of Blair, owner of Capt. Dale, one of the most promising two-year-old trotters now appearing in competition. For 25 years Mrs. Bryant has been breeding and racing horses and she has the reputation of knowing more about racing nags than any other woman in Nebraska. She is perfectly at home in a crowd of horsemen and enjoys talking horse by the hour.

Mrs. Bryant acquired her first fast stepper by mowing hay for his purchase price. She had her choice of a herd and selected an ugly looking little brute which she afterward broke and developed into the fast racer "Me Too."

Captain Dale has traveled a mile in 2:29 and is expected to list among the 2:18 trotters next season.

MRS. W. M. BRYANT
