ALLIES PLAN TO EXILE KAISER

—CHARGES AMERICAN PROFESSOR.

ST. HELENA SLATED TO BE HIS PRISON

(The writer of the following astounding revelations of "the prime intention" of Anglo-French diplomacy "after the war" is a famous American college professor and authoritative expert in the dealings of international law. He just returned to the United States this week, after an entire summer in London and Paris where he was in constant communication with the highest government officials there. During this time he was made acquainted with the proposed "disposition" of the kaiser of Germany by the allies, provided the allies win the great war, as, of course, they are now fully expecting to. The Times prints this amazing story simply as a piece of important news, and it is to be considered in this respect alone by his readers. That the allies ARE discussing these things as reported by this professor, who insists that he remain anonymous, I have no doubt. For the reporter of these events is a man above reproach.—Editor.)

BY A FAMOUS AMERICAN PROFESSOR.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Are the allies preparing St. Helena for the kaiser of Germany—in the event they win the war, as they certainly believe they are going to do?

This is no fantastic question, asked for the sake of sensationalism, and based merely on wartime rumors. Instead it is an outgrowth of the MAJOR TOPIC of certain grim deliberations now taking place in the entente capitals of Europe.

I KNOW it is the major topic, the "prime intention" of the big men of the allies, for the sole and simple reason that I heard them DISCUSSING it myself!

And the question in high circles of London and France now is not so much whether or not the allies can wreak vengeance on the kaiser IN PERSON. It is simply WHAT this punishment shall be!

A TREMENDOUS PERSONAL DRAMA THAT WILL STARTLE THE EYES OF THE WORLD IS CERTAINLY GOING TO ACCOMPANY THE DE-NOUEMENT OF THE WAR!

Of this I am positive—that in those final negotiations when the fate of nations, the happiness of whose peoples, are at stake, so fiery a drama will involve, in some measure, at least, the house of Hohenzollern, that it will obscure in the eyes of the world all those other questions—questions of frontiers, of indemnities and the like! For granting that the allies will have any debatable rights at the war's end, the discussion of the fate of Emperor William like that of Achilles, Caesar and Napoleon, is bound to go down into history as one so engrossing to the popular mind that it eclipses in interest the world-events in which he played a part!

Merely as some tangible proof of the widespread existence of this grim determination on the part of the allies, of England in particular, to mete out a dire fate to the kaiser personally, I will cite to you the public testimony of Dr. Benjamin Rand, philosophical librarian at Harvard university, given on the dock at New York, after a long visit to England.

KAISER WILHELM

Dr. Rand said: "One of the frequent notes we heard struck at the meetings held on the second anniversary of the war was to the effect that the INDIVIDUAL guilty must not be allowed to escape, and the malefactors responsible for the sinking of the Lusitania and the murders of Miss Cavell and Capt. Fryatt must be punished!"

As to why "the individual responsible" is, nobody in England has the least doubt. Englishmen speaking of it hardly ever consider it necessary even to mention his name. Frenchmen, however, frequently speak openly of "the coming courtmartial of the defendant, Hohenzollern."

The British government, through Premier Asquith, has given two distinct pledges of uncompromising punishment, pledges that are aimed not only at the kaiser, but at the Hohenzollern dynasty, and all the directing officers of the German army.

On April 27, 1915, he declared "WITH ALL DELIBERATION" that the government would hold it its duty to exact reparation against "the guilty agents and actors in the matter," and July 31 last, following the murder of Capt. Fryatt, he emphatically reiterated the intention of the government to bring to justice the criminals "WHOEVER" they might be, and "WHATEVER" might be their positions!

The allies mean by this none other than Emperor William himself, and do not consider in the least a joke the fact that the kaiser was found guilty of murder by the jury of Kinsale after the Lusitania horror.

French legal experts declare that by Germany's own acts she recognizes the right of a nation to try a criminal AT THE SPOT WHERE THE CRIME WAS COMMITTED, regardless of the nationality of the criminal. This recognized doctrine, they assert, will make the solemn trial of Emperor William by military or civil tribunals at Lille, and in Belgium and in England and Serbia binding under international law, whatever may be the sentence!

Will that sentence—depending, of course, upon the allies being victorious—consist in banishment for life to St. Helena?

Every word spoken by those in a position to know indicates that banishment of the Hohenzollerns would be the punishment. In that case St. Helena would be the logical place. To this volcanic island of 47 square miles' area, Great Britain has sent many of her prisoners of war, including Gen. Cronje and other Boers. But of course the case of Napoleon is the great precedent to which the allies point for parallels.

But CAN THE ALLIES CATCH THE KAISER? Even if his armies should be completely defeated?

The Germans are known to have several trump cards that they would surely play to ensure such an outcome! The only reason Napoleon did not flee to America was that there was no way of making his escape. Emperor William, it is known, would choose the United States as his foster land, in the event of the great disaster to his armies which no German now admits is possible. For the United States is the only great power that has not turned against him. Even Brazil, supposedly the center of a powerful German colony, has voted its open sympathy with the allies.

And for Emperor William there would be a definite avenue of escape to America. How?

Well, I was seriously told in London that the recent trip of the submarine trader Deutschland to Baltimore was really only AN EXPERIMENTAL VOYAGE—with a distant purpose in mind, connected with William II of Germany! In the last days of the war, some Londoners firmly believe, there will be a special express train made up in Berlin ready in the event of final defeat to take a cleared track to Wilhelmshaven!

And—say these prophets—the kaiser would be safely brought to Baltimore under the Atlantic ocean by Capt. Koenig of the Deutschland!

N. P. EARNS 10.5 PCT. IN LAST YEAR

(United Press Leased Wire.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Northern Pacific earned 10.47 per cent on its stock during the year ending June 30, against 7.58 per cent the year previous, according to the statement of the railroad issued this afternoon.

The surplus available for dividends is $25,729,874, an increase of nearly $7,000,000. Dividends declared amount to $17,560,000, which is unchanged from last year, leaving a surplus of $8,369,874. The capitalization of the road is $250,000,000.

The old board of directors was re-elected. Crawford Livingston, a heavy stockholder, was chosen in place of the late William P. Clough.

FLASHES

(United Press Leased Wire.)
NEW YORK—Willie Gray, 10 of Fall River, "borrowed" $20 from his aunt, came here and had his fling among the white lights by buying candy and movie tickets. Police found him awestricken at the Grand Central terminal.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Determined to bring Irene to the altar, Roy Gordon, colored, flitted by Irene Walker, his first love, wed Irene Parker, his second. He asked the court to change the last name on his first license but this could not be done.

CLEVELAND, O.—Ambulance calls are now received via wireless in Cleveland. When Director of Utilities Farrell collapsed in the water works tunnel here, an S. O. S. call had doctors at his side in time to save his life.

CHICAGO—A mania to attend wakes as a recreation, caused the arrest of Miss Amrie Gordon, 18, who had visited two wakes in one evening.

PHILADELPHIA.—When the "town council" of Glen Olden requested Policeman Markley to occupy his otherwise unoccupied time pulling weeds and cleaning gutters, he resigned.

WASHINGTON.—An "anti" lobby of American publishers may be expected here if the League of American Penwomen get away with their latest project. They agreed today to advocate free postal delivery on authors' manuscripts.

DESERTED FOUR CHILDREN, CHARGE

Charged with deserting and leaving destitute his wife and four small children, Caesar Daz, a non-union longshoreman, was arrested at the Milwaukee dock Tuesday morning by Deputy Sheriff Stenro.

The arrest was made on information received from Rock Springs, Wyo., where his destitute family lives.

He had been going under the name of August Zeppel in Tacoma. When arrested he at first denied he had a family. He will be returned to Wyoming.

ON THE WAY!

SHOEMAKER SHOWS ATKINS "LOST" NOT MERE $50,000, BUT $138,300

Instead of making a mistake of $50,000 in the budget for Tacoma's municipal expense next year, Commissioner Atkins announced in his recent estimates that the city revenue for 1917 would be $965,390. Controller Shoemaker, by a careful analysis of every source of municipal revenue reported Tuesday that the year's revenue would total $1,104,023, a difference of $138,633.

The difference includes the following items: Interest on investments, $20,000; sinking fund receipts from light and water funds, $15,000; street railway receipts, $8,500; library receipts, $1,300; additional interest, 50,000; discrepancy in figuring tax levy, $1,500; difference in dock receipts, $30,000; interest fund receipts from dock fund, $9,000; miscellaneous revenue increases, $5,000.

By disallowing $85,000 worth of outlay for new apparatus and improvements sought by the public works and public safety departments, which were not absolutely necessary for the operation of the city next year, the city controller's figures showed that the council's task of budget cutting really consisted of reducing the estimated expenditures by $34,000, or five per cent.

In spite of these facts, Shoemaker reports, the council last week contemplated cuts aggregating $150,000 and $200,000.

Commissioner Atkins has been ordered by the council to revise his budget figures and bring in the new totals Wednesday.

Bay Island Woman Walks Down Beach, Killing Self

Suffering from ill health and imagining that she was a burden on her family, Mrs. O. C. Anderson, 50 years old, wife of a prominent rancher on Anderson island, calmly walked down to the beach in front of her home Monday night and plunged into the salt water. She drowned in three feet of water, and her body was found an hour later by the husband.

Mrs. Anderson ended her life while her husband and three grown sons were at supper. After setting the table she excused herself and disappeared. The suicide was reported to Coroner Stewart Tuesday, and a deputy was sent for the body. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson settled on their ranch 30 years ago, and had developed one of the finest places in the Bay-Island district.

30 DAYS IS DRUGGIST'S SENTENCE

Superior Judge Card issued a warning to violators of the dry law Tuesday in the form of two 30-day jail sentences imposed on drug store and soft drink parlor proprietors.

George Gill, Tacoma druggist, whose stores in South Tacoma and in the North End were raided by county officers last April, was sentenced to 30 days in jail and a fine of $150.

Ben Munnick, arrested with J. J. Connelly in a raid on the Oasis soft drink bar, 11th and K, Aug. 27, was given 30 days in jail and a $50 fine when he pleaded guilty to a similar charge.

Connelly Not Present.
Connelly, who has been out on bond to appear in court for arraignment and sentence Tuesday morning, failed to show up.

County officers are searching the city for him. Judge Card intimated he would get still a heavier sentence.

Gill, who has given up the North End store since his arrest, was convicted on clear evidence showing that although he had permits for only 72 bottles of beer, he had 850 bottles in his possession with intent to sell.

Limit Is 90 Days.
Letters were introduced from Gill to a California wholesaler in which he gave orders for the shipment of liquor, adding, "This is only a starter. I can probably use twice this amount once a month."

Gill expects to appeal. In both cases Deputy Prosecutor Thompson recommended jail sentences and fines. The limit is $250 fine and 90 days in jail.

STRIKE IS NEAR END

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Practical collapse of the New York traction strike was evidenced today by the withdrawal of police protection from subway trains and the decrease of such protection on the surface cars.

Up in Westchester county there was still trouble on surface cars, but not what police regarded as violently serious.

A bullet whizzing into a speeding "L" train at 114th street early today clipped off a piece of the ear of Melville Wright, 40, and caused a momentary panic.

A number of persons were injured when a Third Avenue "L" shuttle train crashed into a huge electric wrecking crane.

Talk o' the Times

Greetings, how did you like getting out of bed this morning?

They say money talks. Verily! And when the city council finds $50,000 it didn't know about it's a regular Jim Hám Lewis.

Ever notice that the gents who howl the loudest against an eight-hour day are the same gents who work three to six hours, or not at all?

A candidate who casts his vote for suffrage is worth two who says the other fellow should.

A BACHELOR NEVER FIGURES ON MARRYING A WIDOW, BUT WHEN A WIDOW FIGURES ON MARRYING A BACHELOR THE WEDDING BELLS DO RING!

Shoemaker put the budget situation on a new footing.

And now the British claim to have captured two Bremen. Perhaps some of those conflicting yarns were true after all. But can it be there are two Villans, one dead and one alive?

Just as folk were getting up and dressing at the Big Bend camp meeting tent colony, Sun-came along and blew most of the tents away, leaving the people standing there wearing nothing much except a look of surprise. It was quite a freak of nature.—Essen Meadow (Ga.) Journal.

HERE'S A FACT TO PORTCARD TO YOUR FRIENDS BACK EAST

September building permits called for an expenditure of $142,692 as compared with $40,613 for September, 1915. This is a gain of 250 per cent. The total for the first nine months of this year shows a gain of 100 per cent over the first nine months of 1915.

BUTTER AND EGGS SET A NEW RECORD

(United Press Leased Wire.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Prices for butter and eggs reached the highest prices ever known here for this season of the year and dealers today said the end was not in sight.

Extras in creamery butter sold for 34 cents, which a year ago sold at 27 cents a pound.

Eggs that a year ago sold for 23 3/4 to 24 cents reached 30 and 31 cents wholesale.

HOPES SON DIES

CHICAGO—"I hope he dies, I would rather see him dead than in a penitentiary," said Mrs. Mary McCourt, mother of Daniel Harnett, one of the bandits in the Burr Oak Inn bandit raid early today.

Tires Pierced By Porcupines

WINSTED, Conn., Oct. 3.—Motorists traveling thru the wilds of Southern Berkshire are continually delayed by porcupines puncturing their tires.

A porcupine which held up the car of William Fox, near Sandfield Center, paid with its life for filling one of the tires with quills.
