

TIMES EDITORIALS

Who's Better Authority?

"I say—and I speak from experience, not guesswork—that the eight-hour law will help business.

This is not the statement of a politician, campaigning for votes, or of a labor leader.

It is the statement of Henry Ford, the most successful automobile manufacturer in the world and one of the biggest employers of labor in this country.

Three years ago Henry Ford reduced the hours of work in his factory to eight hours a day and fixed $5 a day as the minimum wage.

He ought to know something about the effect of this action on his business. Henry Ford is one of thousands of enlightened business men in this country who are operating on an eight-hour-a-day basis.

We have not heard that there have been any failures due to an eight-hour day.

In view of this can you imagine any sadder spectacle than that afforded by Candidate Hughes who is going about the country attacking President Wilson and congress because they prevented the railroad strike by passing an eight-hour law for railway trainmen?

Candidate Hughes approaches this question as he approaches every other question—as a technical lawyer, without vision and entirely lacking in human sympathy.

We are willing to give Hughes credit for intellectual honesty but we submit that the country has a right to demand something bigger and better in its presidents than mere intellectual honesty.

Every time that Candidate Hughes speaks, he piles up the evidence that he is entirely lacking in those qualities of mind and heart which President Wilson possesses in such generous measure.

As governor of New York, Hughes vetoed the two-cent a mile railway fare bill, after half the states in the union passed and enforced such a law.

He vetoed the bill reducing the street car fare to Coney Island from ten cents to five cents and by this veto made it harder for millions of common folks to enjoy the benefits of the sea shore.

As justice of the supreme court, Hughes invariably lined up with those justices who put property rights above human rights.

His attitude as governor, as justice, as candidate has been perfectly consistent with his character.

In some way, that is beyond us to analyze, the illusion was that Hughes was a forward-looking man.

Undoubtedly there are some people who are still devoted to that illusion.

But unless we greatly miss our guess the illusion is rapidly dissolving and the "hundred per cent candidate" is being visioned by more and more people as he really is—plutocracy's ideal candidate for president.

Charles Fairbanks announces that this country is passing through a great epoch, "with amateur statesmen at the helm." Intimating, of course, that Hughes and himself are professionals. Oh Lord!

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

By Woodrow Wilson

So I have come willing to make this narrative of experience to you. I have come through the fire since I talked to you last. Whether the metal is purer than it was, God only knows; but the fire has been there, the fire has penetrated every part of it, and if I may believe my own thoughts, I have less partisan feeling, more impatience of party maneuver, more enthusiasm for the right thing, no matter whom it hurts, than I ever had before in my life.—To National Press Club, Washington, D. C., May 16, 1916. (From "Wit and Wisdom of Woodrow Wilson," copyright, 1916, by Doubleday, Page & Co.)

New Phase Likely

Having captured Combles, the big fortress holding up their advance north of the Somme, the allies are now in position to invest Peronne upon two sides, subject it to an enfilading fire and force the Germans to abandon the town or leave it to eventual certain surrender, with its great stores of munitions and its large garrison. It is not necessary even for the allies to attempt to storm the town.

They have but to advance their two wings and gradually surround it, just as they did Combles and Thiepval. The capture of Peronne will give the allies control of the railroad upon which the Germans depend for the maintenance of their whole present line. The most important line of defense remaining between the French forces and Peronne is the river Torille. At the junction of the Torille with the Somme the French have won to the river bank, while east of Bouchavesnes they are within one and a quarter miles of it.

Unless they can rally tremendously, the Germans cannot hold Peronne and will be forced to retire all down their line. All menace to Verdun will then be at an end and the war upon the west front will enter into another phase.

Positively no truth in the report that Villa is wearing a big, flowing beard. In a country so infested by fleas as Mexico, a flowing beard would be fatal in two days.

A Seven-Word Sermon

The other day a man leaped from a sixth story window, in Los Angeles, to the pavement below, in plain sight of hundreds of horror-stricken passers-by. Upon his body was found this brief note:

"The reason why? I lied to myself!"

A volume might not tell more. There are a lot of men who would scorn to lie to others, who habitually lie to themselves. And when they do, they pay the price alone. Are you lying to yourself? Ask your conscience and answer fairly and squarely.

DON'T DODGE! If you are doing it, you want to know it. THEN, STOP IT! You will gain respect for yourself, and therefore win more respect from others.

Positively no truth in the report that Villa is wearing a big, flowing beard. a workman has is the right to starve.

Handsome Actor Is Attracted to Paula

"I wonder, Margie," continued Paula, "if you ever met a man who hypnotized you at first glance."

illustrate the wonderful magnetic influence that sometimes exists between man and woman.

"I am not talking wholly, Margie, of physical magnetism. It must be something stronger than that. There comes a mist, a sudden shiver, and life is never the same again."

"Margie," said Paula suddenly, "it has been many years since I looked into the eyes of Ernest Lawton, and yet that first look still lingers. He saw me in the manager's office and as he opened the door to the inner room he turned and shot back one parting glance fraught with meaning. I sat in a trance fully five minutes, only to be jolted out of it with, 'Miss Newton, the Big Noise wants to see you.'"

"I felt my knees shake. I wondered if I could walk to that door without swaying. Then came Emma's words, 'Play the game, child; play the game. Remember you have to do this or leave the table.' I straightened up and entered the inner room. A big, perspiring man sat there, his feet on the desk and his hat on the back of his head. There was a slight look of curiosity on his face. Beside him stood Ernest Lawton, hat in hand.

"You remember Ernest Lawton, Margie; he is one of the handsomest men on the stage."

"Both men spoke at once. The manager bruskiy, 'What's your line?'" The actor courteously, 'Sit down, Miss Newton.'

"Acting, I hope," I said in answer to the manager's question, as I sank into the chair placed for me Ernest Lawton.

"Don't you know?" was the manager's surprised query.

"No," was my answer, "I have acted only in amateur theatricals."

"The manager grunted. 'She'll never do, Lawton. She's green.'"

(To Be Continued.)

LAND SHOW FOR 11 DAYS

(United Press Leased Wire)

SEATTLE, Oct. 3.—The first land show, representing the agricultural and horticultural products of Washington, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Alaska, is to open here tomorrow.

The exposition covers more than 70,000 square feet of space and is the greatest in scope since the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition in 1909.

The Alaska display is housed in a tent covering more than 5,000 square feet. Fifth avenue between Union and University streets is covered with canvas and this with the arena provides room for the great display of fruits, vegetables, grains and grasses. The exposition will be in progress for 11 days.

OLYMPIA-TACOMA-DUPONT STAGE
Leaves Tacoma Leaves Olympia Donnelly Hotel Kneeland Hotel
6:00 A. M. 8:00 A. M.
11:00 A. M. 1:00 P. M.
1:00 P. M. 4:00 P. M.
4:00 P. M. 6:30 P. M.
9:00 P. M.
Subject to Change Without Notice.
PHONE: MAIN 762

The Outbursts of Everett True. BY CONDO.

IF YOU'RE TRYING TO RAISE THE ROOF I'LL GIVE YOU SOME HELP!!!

Personal and Social

The Ladies' Aid Society of Epworth M. E. church will hold a rummage sale, consisting of dresses, skirts, waists, shoes and coats and many other articles of value, 1106 Center street, Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Otto Kettner of 3416 North 31st street will be hostess to the Tuesday Study club Tuesday afternoon.

Tacoma Temple 58, Pythian Sisters' auxiliary, will entertain for members and friends Tuesday afternoon at the Pythian club rooms.

The Ladies' Aid society of Epworth M. E. church will hold a rummage sale at 1106 Center st. Thursday and Friday, Oct. 5 and 6.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Edward H. Todd, 608 North Sprague street, Wednesday at 2 o'clock sharp. The program will be from the text-book "World Missions and World Peace" reader, Mrs. H. G. Roberts. All women of the church and congregation are cordially invited.

Phil Sheridan Relief Corps will give a card party at the Armory Friday night. Play will begin at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served.

DEMS PLAN SERIES OF OPEN MEETINGS
The first of a series of nightly meetings will be held tonight by the Pierce County Democratic committee at 1014 A street. J. J. Anderson will speak, at 8 o'clock.

Stand, Croft Hotel, 1519 Pacific Ave.
MOOSE AUTO STAGE
Tacoma and Yelm.
Lakeview, Hillhurst, Greendale, Roy, McKenna, M. T. MILES.
Leaves Tacoma 11 a. m. and 4:30 p. m., Sundays 8 a. m. and 9:30 p. m. Leaves Yelm 7:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m., Saturday nights 6:30 p. m., and Sundays 4 p. m.

THE TACOMA TIMES
MEMBERS OF THE SCRIPTS NORTHWEST LEAGUE OF NEWSPAPERS. Telegraphic News Service of the United Press Association.
Entered at the postoffice, Tacoma, Wash., as second-class matter. Published by the Tacoma Times Pub. Co. Every Evening Except Sunday. Official paper of city of Tacoma.
PHONE: All departments, Main 12.

"THE AUTOMATION"

ANSWERS BY CYNTHIA GREY

Q—Miss Grey answers all letters of inquiry by mail when postage is enclosed.

Q—Letters of general interest are answered through this column unless the correspondent requests that they not be.

Q—Miss Grey receives callers at the office from 11 o'clock to 5 o'clock on Wednesdays.

Q—I am a girl going on 17 and have been going with a young man about four years my senior. In this time I have had a birthday and he gave me a box of candy. He will soon have a birthday and I would like to give him something, but don't know what to give him, or don't know whether it would be proper or not. He doesn't smoke.

BROWN EYES.

A—It isn't at all necessary to give the young man a present; but if you wish, it will be proper to give him a good book (the little leather bound gift books of famous poems make an ideal gift for such an occasion.)

Q—I am a young man 16 years old. I had two girl cousins of 15 and 16 years of age living in the east, who wish me to write to them. I have never seen them, or pictures of them and they have never written to me, but have asked other relatives here to tell me to write to them.

I am seeking your advice as to whether to write to them and what kind of a letter to write?

A—If you really want to write to your cousins in the east it will be perfectly all right to do so, even though you have not met them. Write the same kind of letter to them that you would to any of your relatives. If your cousins have never visited in the west you should be able to write a letter especially interesting to them.

Q—Will you kindly print a good recipe for piecalfini? Print as quickly as possible for I don't want my green tomatoes to spoil. Thanking you, I remain, MRS. E. I.

A—One-half peck of green tomatoes fully grown. Chop well and add 3/4 pint salt. Let them stand a day in cold water. Chop a large head of cabbage, 4 large onions, and 5 green peppers; cover with boiling vinegar. Let sit four hours, then drain through a colander, add 1 cup molasses, 1 teaspoon each cloves, allspice and white mustard seed. Cover with cold vinegar.

Q—I have recently returned from a visit to another city, where I spent several months. During my stay there, I became very interested in a young man two years my senior. We spent a great deal of time together.

Since my return, I have corresponded with him quite regularly. Although he has never told me directly that his intentions are serious, he seems quite attentive. How am I to know if he is serious and should I, or not take his attentions seriously?

TROUBLED M.

A—It would be very unwise upon your part to consider the young man seriously. Some men take delight in making fools of girls by assuming a semi-serious attitude toward them. After the young man has asked you to marry him it will be time enough to take the matter seriously.

Q.—In the last picture of the "Iron Claw" the motion picture serial, there was an exceptionally beautiful bedroom suite in the girl's boudoir. How can I find out the name of that style of furniture and where it can be bought? GENEVIEVE.

A.—You might write to the Pathe Exchange, 25 West 42nd street, New York City, for information.

take delight in making fools of girls by assuming a semi-serious attitude toward them. After the young man has asked you to marry him it will be time enough to take the matter seriously.

Q.—In the last picture of the "Iron Claw" the motion picture serial, there was an exceptionally beautiful bedroom suite in the girl's boudoir. How can I find out the name of that style of furniture and where it can be bought? GENEVIEVE.

A.—You might write to the Pathe Exchange, 25 West 42nd street, New York City, for information.

Q.—Will you kindly print a good recipe for piecalfini? Print as quickly as possible for I don't want my green tomatoes to spoil. Thanking you, I remain, MRS. E. I.

A—One-half peck of green tomatoes fully grown. Chop well and add 3/4 pint salt. Let them stand a day in cold water. Chop a large head of cabbage, 4 large onions, and 5 green peppers; cover with boiling vinegar. Let sit four hours, then drain through a colander, add 1 cup molasses, 1 teaspoon each cloves, allspice and white mustard seed. Cover with cold vinegar.

Q—I have recently returned from a visit to another city, where I spent several months. During my stay there, I became very interested in a young man two years my senior. We spent a great deal of time together.

Since my return, I have corresponded with him quite regularly. Although he has never told me directly that his intentions are serious, he seems quite attentive. How am I to know if he is serious and should I, or not take his attentions seriously?

TROUBLED M.

A—It would be very unwise upon your part to consider the young man seriously. Some men take delight in making fools of girls by assuming a semi-serious attitude toward them. After the young man has asked you to marry him it will be time enough to take the matter seriously.

Q.—In the last picture of the "Iron Claw" the motion picture serial, there was an exceptionally beautiful bedroom suite in the girl's boudoir. How can I find out the name of that style of furniture and where it can be bought? GENEVIEVE.

A.—You might write to the Pathe Exchange, 25 West 42nd street, New York City, for information.

Q.—Will you kindly print a good recipe for piecalfini? Print as quickly as possible for I don't want my green tomatoes to spoil. Thanking you, I remain, MRS. E. I.

A—One-half peck of green tomatoes fully grown. Chop well and add 3/4 pint salt. Let them stand a day in cold water. Chop a large head of cabbage, 4 large onions, and 5 green peppers; cover with boiling vinegar. Let sit four hours, then drain through a colander, add 1 cup molasses, 1 teaspoon each cloves, allspice and white mustard seed. Cover with cold vinegar.

Q—I have recently returned from a visit to another city, where I spent several months. During my stay there, I became very interested in a young man two years my senior. We spent a great deal of time together.

Since my return, I have corresponded with him quite regularly. Although he has never told me directly that his intentions are serious, he seems quite attentive. How am I to know if he is serious and should I, or not take his attentions seriously?

TROUBLED M.

A—It would be very unwise upon your part to consider the young man seriously. Some men take delight in making fools of girls by assuming a semi-serious attitude toward them. After the young man has asked you to marry him it will be time enough to take the matter seriously.

Q.—In the last picture of the "Iron Claw" the motion picture serial, there was an exceptionally beautiful bedroom suite in the girl's boudoir. How can I find out the name of that style of furniture and where it can be bought? GENEVIEVE.

A.—You might write to the Pathe Exchange, 25 West 42nd street, New York City, for information.

Q.—Will you kindly print a good recipe for piecalfini? Print as quickly as possible for I don't want my green tomatoes to spoil. Thanking you, I remain, MRS. E. I.

A—One-half peck of green tomatoes fully grown. Chop well and add 3/4 pint salt. Let them stand a day in cold water. Chop a large head of cabbage, 4 large onions, and 5 green peppers; cover with boiling vinegar. Let sit four hours, then drain through a colander, add 1 cup molasses, 1 teaspoon each cloves, allspice and white mustard seed. Cover with cold vinegar.

Q—I have recently returned from a visit to another city, where I spent several months. During my stay there, I became very interested in a young man two years my senior. We spent a great deal of time together.

Since my return, I have corresponded with him quite regularly. Although he has never told me directly that his intentions are serious, he seems quite attentive. How am I to know if he is serious and should I, or not take his attentions seriously?

TROUBLED M.

A—It would be very unwise upon your part to consider the young man seriously. Some men take delight in making fools of girls by assuming a semi-serious attitude toward them. After the young man has asked you to marry him it will be time enough to take the matter seriously.

Q.—In the last picture of the "Iron Claw" the motion picture serial, there was an exceptionally beautiful bedroom suite in the girl's boudoir. How can I find out the name of that style of furniture and where it can be bought? GENEVIEVE.

A.—You might write to the Pathe Exchange, 25 West 42nd street, New York City, for information.

Q.—Will you kindly print a good recipe for piecalfini? Print as quickly as possible for I don't want my green tomatoes to spoil. Thanking you, I remain, MRS. E. I.

A—One-half peck of green tomatoes fully grown. Chop well and add 3/4 pint salt. Let them stand a day in cold water. Chop a large head of cabbage, 4 large onions, and 5 green peppers; cover with boiling vinegar. Let sit four hours, then drain through a colander, add 1 cup molasses, 1 teaspoon each cloves, allspice and white mustard seed. Cover with cold vinegar.

Q—I have recently returned from a visit to another city, where I spent several months. During my stay there, I became very interested in a young man two years my senior. We spent a great deal of time together.

Since my return, I have corresponded with him quite regularly. Although he has never told me directly that his intentions are serious, he seems quite attentive. How am I to know if he is serious and should I, or not take his attentions seriously?

TROUBLED M.

A—It would be very unwise upon your part to consider the young man seriously. Some men take delight in making fools of girls by assuming a semi-serious attitude toward them. After the young man has asked you to marry him it will be time enough to take the matter seriously.

Q.—In the last picture of the "Iron Claw" the motion picture serial, there was an exceptionally beautiful bedroom suite in the girl's boudoir. How can I find out the name of that style of furniture and where it can be bought? GENEVIEVE.

A.—You might write to the Pathe Exchange, 25 West 42nd street, New York City, for information.

Q.—Will you kindly print a good recipe for piecalfini? Print as quickly as possible for I don't want my green tomatoes to spoil. Thanking you, I remain, MRS. E. I.

A—One-half peck of green tomatoes fully grown. Chop well and add 3/4 pint salt. Let them stand a day in cold water. Chop a large head of cabbage, 4 large onions, and 5 green peppers; cover with boiling vinegar. Let sit four hours, then drain through a colander, add 1 cup molasses, 1 teaspoon each cloves, allspice and white mustard seed. Cover with cold vinegar.

Dr. Johnson Says: Consult us about your loose teeth, painful, bleeding and sore gums. We guarantee to cure your pyorrhoea. All operations performed by our own painless method of anaesthesia. Our work guaranteed to last a lifetime.

Harvard Dental Parlors
DR. S. P. JOHNSON, Mgr.
Open evenings for people who work.
1182 1/2 Pacific Ave.
TURN TO THE CLASSIFIED WANT ADS ON PAGE 7 FOR RESULTS. SEE PAGE SEVEN.

TRAVEL INFORMATION

Leave	Arrive
1:40 a. m. Spokane Limited—No. 1, Kalama, Pasco, Spokane	8:15 a. m.
2:10 a. m. Portland Night Exp.—Via Pt. Defiance	8:30 a. m.
3:00 a. m. Seattle from Portland via Pt. Defiance	1:30 p. m.
3:00 a. m. Atlantic Exp.—Spokane, Helena, Butte, St. Paul	10:50 a. m.
3:00 a. m. Chicago	7:05 p. m.
3:00 a. m. Williston, Carb., Idaho, Fairfax	4:30 p. m.
3:00 a. m. Grays Harbor Exp.—Via Lakewick & Dupont	9:25 a. m.
3:35 a. m. Portland Local—Via Yelm and So. Tacoma	9:25 a. m.
3:35 a. m. Raymond & So. Bend via Yelm and So. Tacoma	8:15 a. m.
10:15 a. m. Seattle Local—Seattle and Intermediate	12:35 p. m.
12:45 p. m. Seattle—From Portland, Raymond and So. Bend via Yelm and So. Tacoma	12:35 p. m.
2:00 p. m. Grays Har. local—Via Point Defiance	12:35 p. m.
2:30 p. m. Miss. Val. Lim.—Billings, Kan. City, St. Louis	8:00 a. m.
4:40 p. m. Seattle—From Grays Har. via Pt. Defiance	4:30 p. m.
5:30 p. m. Orting, Carbonado, Buckley, Kanasket, Raymond	10:50 a. m.
5:45 p. m. Portland Special via Pt. Defiance & Centralia	5:35 p. m.
5:45 p. m. Raymond & So. Bend via Pt. Defiance	12:30 p. m.
5:50 p. m. Grays Harbor Exp.—Via Lakewick & Dupont	12:30 p. m.
5:50 p. m. No. Coast Lim.—Spokane, Butte, St. Paul	12:30 p. m.
12:45 p. m. Seattle—From Portland via Pt. Defiance	12:30 p. m.
3:30 p. m. Seattle—From Grays Harbor via Pt. Defiance	8:40 p. m.
4:05 a. m. Shore Line Exp.—North and East	12:35 p. m.
12:45 p. m. Shore Line Exp.—Portland and Intermediate	8:00 a. m.
3:00 p. m. Inter. Lim.—Everett, Bellingham, Van. B. C.	8:00 p. m.
3:00 p. m. Inter. Lim.—Princeton and Intermediate to Portland	8:05 p. m.
3:45 p. m. Oriental Lim.—Spokane, Billings, Kansas City	10:00 p. m.
5:45 p. m. Southern Exp.—Spokane, Billings, Kansas City	7:05 a. m.
5:45 p. m. Owl—Everett, Bellingham, Seattle	12:30 p. m.
10:00 a. m. "Owl"—Portland and Intermediate	9:55 p. m.
12:10 a. m. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul	6:05 p. m.
5:15 p. m. Grays Har. Spec.—Aberdeen, Houlam, Raymond	12:30 p. m.
5:45 p. m. Olympia—Spokane, Missoula, Butte, St. Paul	9:20 p. m.
6:00 p. m. Columbian—Spokane, Butte, St. Paul	9:55 p. m.
Chicago	9:55 p. m.
CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL (Union Depot)
12:45 p. m. Portland and Grays Harbor Owl	4:40 a. m.
1:40 p. m. Seattle Local	12:40 p. m.
1:50 p. m. Seattle Local	1:40 p. m.
2:30 a. m. Portland, east and south	1:35 p. m.
3:40 p. m. Shasta Limited, Seattle	10:45 p. m.
5:40 p. m. Seattle Local	11:45 a. m.
TACOMA-EASTERN RAILWAY
8:30 a. m. Ashford, Morton	8:45 p. m.