BAHSTON FANS HAVE IT ALL NICELY DOPED OUT

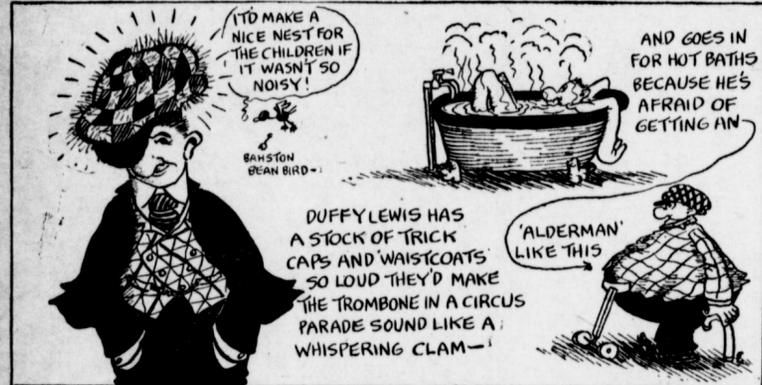

BY H. C. HAMILTON
 United Press Correspondent.
 BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 7.—While an entire nation waited with expectancy the Brooklyn Dodgers and Boston Red Sox stood poised today for a rush which will bring them into a collision whose resounding smack will be heard from Maine to California.

Among Boston fans only confidence is to be found. It's of the cocky, hit-me-if-you-dare sort. The city of intellect is about to clash with the city of rubber plants, perambulators and churches and the former can't see where growing rubber plants and pushing go-carts contribute anything toward producing a world's championship ball club.

But when you are brought up in an atmosphere that enables one to figure out mathematically why a ball scots along the ground instead of sailing into the ozone when struck this way instead of that, then you have something on which your reasons for being among those present in such company can be based.

TRAVELING WITH THE CHAMPIONS
 "Babe" Ruth, the Boston Red Sox pitcher, has never been asked to write beauty secrets for a woman's magazine.

The only things that keep Ernie Shore, the aviator pitcher, from becoming a bass drummer are his knees.

All the Red Sox players knock wood for good luck. As the Braves' park, where world series is to be played, isn't constructed of that material, it'll be kinda tough for them unless there are some wrestlers present.

The bird who chirps "The game ain't over until the last man is out," makes us think of them great proverb, not from Ben Franklin, "Breakfast ain't over until the egg is off the chin."

Some of the streets in Bahston are so narrow a fellow can't fall over, and so are the doors leading into the sporting editor's rooms for fans who want free tickets.

With Tacoma Amateurs By Billy Carns.

Hans Johnson, smelter ball club manager, says the Burnside may "load up" for tomorrow's game if they like, but that several teams heretofore have done the same thing much to their regret. An opposing team only a few weeks ago imported a professional battery, much to their financial and mental distress, and still couldn't beat the Smelter.

When it comes to consistent bowling, Audridge and Kellerman have it on the rest of them. They seem to average about 275 all the time.

The Lincoln High school boys are champions of the diamond, but the Stadium lads are in their glory when the good old grid-iron season opens.

What has become of the guy who went to work without any breakfast, drank buttermilk for dinner, and gave his week's wages to old Doc "Flynn Flam Flynn"?

Phil Springer, Fern Hill blacksmith, has just returned from a hunting trip to Bear prairie, six miles from Longmire springs, where he bagged a deer and a bear. He is going again soon with a party of friends.

Tacoma will see one of the best amateur baseball games tomorrow that has ever been played in the west. A crowd of 2,000 is expected to see the game.

The Montessano football team will play the fast Hoquiam first team today.

The City Bowling league has not organized as yet, though the members have met several times for that purpose. It has been decided to wait a week or so and get the averages of all bowlers, so that six clubs of

NEFF AND WOLGAST IN DRAW

SEATTLE, Oct. 7.—Chet Neff, Seattle boxer, kept Ad Wolgast, former world's champion, on the run for four fast rounds at Dreamland last night and easily earned a draw. Although Wolgast drew down most of the admission money, Neff won all the credit. He made a game fight, and had Wolgast tired and glad to quit when the final gong rang. Several thousand fans attended.

S.T.A.C. Calls Off Big Game

Several desertions from the ranks of the South Tacoma Athletic club, coupled with the fact that a number of the players are ill, caused Manager Karl to wire Coach Dobie late last night that his team would be unable to meet the U. of W. eleven on Denny field this afternoon.

Lincoln Boys Walk Over 'em

Lincoln Park high school took the second interscholastic football game of the season yesterday afternoon when the seniors trimmed the Stadium seniors to the tune of 34 to 3.

May Enlarge Tahoma Club

Instead of confining the activities of their organization to football, members of the Tacoma Athletic club are seriously considering branching out into other lines of athletic work. It is planned, in a general way, to obtain club quarters this winter, and a gymnasium. Other cities are supporting one or more such independent athletic clubs, and there is no reason why Tacoma should not. An amateur theatrical performance, for the purpose of raising funds for launching the club's new plans, may be given later in the season.

Last Practice

The Tacoma club of the Northwestern soccer league will stage its final practice at Manitou tomorrow, before the league season opens, and President Alex Burnett is anxious for a good turnout of players. On October 15 the Tacoma team opens the season by playing the Woodland team at Seattle.

Gotch On Film

Frank Gotch, world-famous wrestler, is seen in an exhibition contest with Jim Essen, champion wrestler of Scotland, on the new athletic film which opens at the Colonial Sunday. Willie Ritchie will demonstrate his ring ability. There will also be some swimming races.

Play Sunday

Bill Spencer's Invaders will play the Cozy Corner football club in the Stadium Sunday at 2 o'clock. The teams will be evenly matched at 145 pounds. Wally Bray of the Hopkins A. C. baseball team has joined the Invaders and will play in Sunday's game.

Spanaway Club Getting Active

The Spanaway Athletic club is planning to make the coming season its most successful one. A contract was let this week for the new club rooms, to be 40 by 65 feet in size, and work will progress rapidly on the structure. Basketball and boxing will be featured this season. The new gym will not only be equipped with a basketball court, but it will have a large balcony for spectators.

Valeska Surratt Will Follow Audrey Munson On Apollo Bill

With the conclusion tonight of a week's engagement of "Purity," in which Audrey Munson has been appearing as the star, the Apollo will Sunday open a four days' engagement of Valeska Surratt in her latest William Fox feature, "The Way."

Society Maid Re-Forms Coal Heaver Into Gentleman; Then He Marries Her

Scene from the prologue to "The Cave Man," in which Robert Edson is starred. This unique picture opens at the Colonial Sunday.

A pictorial attraction that is claimed to be far above the average in merit is "The Caveman," which will be shown at the Colonial tomorrow and the first of next week. Robert Edson is starred.

The story, written by Gelett Burgess, deals with the attempt of Madeline Mischief to make Haulick Smagg, a coal heaver, into a society lion. After some rich comedy situations Smagg runs away and goes back to his coal wagon. But a spark of latent ambition has been aroused within him.

"The Great Divide" Comes To the Melbourne Sunday

A scene from "The Great Divide," in which House Peters and Ethel Clayton will appear at the Melbourne Sunday.

One of the greatest film productions shown in Tacoma this year will be "The Great Divide," which comes to the Melbourne theater beginning Sunday. William Vaughan Moody's great American drama has been given a wonderful setting in the pictures, for instead of filming the scenes in some studio with fake scenery, the story is laid in the Grand Canyon of Arizona, and the photography of this magnificent locality is strikingly beautiful.

Romance and Adventure In New Fox Comedy Drama at the 'Hip'

This stirring Fox drama of the west comes to the Hippodrome Sunday for a three-day engagement.

Mae Marsh In Clever Play

Mae Marsh in "The Little Liar" at the Regent is drawing huge crowds in her portrayal of the little girl whose dreams were mistaken for lies. The scenes are laid in a second rate boarding house and the slums of a big city. Miss Marsh is supported by Robert Harron and a large cast.
