

Seems Like Old Times to Have a Boxing Smoker at Glide Rink, Eh?

NEWS OF THE STARS OF TWO FIRMAMENTS— Sports and Theatrical Edward A. Peters, Main 12 Sports Editor.

ALL-STAR CARD FOR GLIDESHOW

MAIN EVENT Paul Steele, Tacoma, vs. Frankie Sullivan, Los Angeles. SEMI-WINDUP Frank Farmer, Tacoma, vs. Pat Dorian, Seattle. SPECIAL EVENT Frank Pete, Wilkeson, vs. Sammy Morris, San Francisco. PRELIMINARIES Stanley Clements, Vancouver, vs. Al Lupo, Tacoma. Jack Hartford, Tacoma, vs. Sandy Carbone, Tacoma. Ole Anderson, Ruston, vs. Val Comstock, Tacoma. Lonnie McIntosh, Seattle, vs. Mike Pete, Wilkeson.

FRANKIE SULLIVAN, LOS ANGELES CONTENDS FOR THE COAST LIGHTWEIGHT CROWN, AND (RIGHT) PAUL STEELE OF TACOMA, WHO MEETS HIM AT THE GLIDE TONIGHT.

A real boxing show, with seven of the best matches that could be made in the northwest, is promised for the Business Men's Gymnasium smoker at Glide rink tonight.

The bill is announced as an all-star card and there can be no doubt in the minds of Tacoma fans that the advance notices will be lived up to.

Paul Steele of Tacoma, who has decided to re-enter the ring after a retirement of more than a year, meets Frankie Sullivan of Los Angeles in the main event. This bout alone is attracting immense interest.

Steele is a scientific boxer, and his work for an entire year has been devoted to giving boxing lessons and scientific training. Sullivan, who is an Irish-Portuguese of the old fighting school, is a slugger. When a boxer and a slugger get into the ring together, the fans usually see a regular match, as the science of the one prevents the bull strength of the other from doing any damage.

Friends of Steele believe that he can win if he will confine himself strictly to boxing, and not try to mix with Sullivan in a slugging contest.

Sullivan will not be any too anxious to prolong the fight and take a chance on defeat, as he is matched with Eddie Campi, one of the best lightweights in America, at Seattle Friday night.

The semi-windup of tonight's card will be between Pat Dorian, the Seattle fireman, and Frank Farmer of Tacoma. It is Dorian's first match since he went on the road two years ago. It is also Farmer's first bout since his marriage. Both men are graded to the minute.

Frank Pete, the Wilkeson boxer who recently went to Seattle to get boxing instruction, will meet Sammy Morris, the clever

San Francisco boy. Al Lupo, Tacoma fighting newsie, will box Stanley Clements of Vancouver, former national amateur featherweight title holder.

Mike Pete has been matched with Lonnie McIntosh, the Seattle boy who won the far western featherweight title at the San Francisco exposition. Jack Hartford, pride of the St. Leo's gymnasium, will tackle an old-time enemy in Sandy Carbone. These boys have been working for a month to get in perfect condition for the battle. Ole Anderson of the Ruston Athletic club and Val Comstock of the Armory A. C. will also meet.

Paul Steele is in better condition than ever before, he says. Critics who saw him go through two fast rounds with Al Lupo yesterday afternoon say that Paul has not only developed a shifty change in his tactics, but is demonstrating a new strength in his left arm. Paul has worked hard for the bout, and believes that he will put Sullivan down and out.

Joe Hill will referee all bouts. Tom Armstrong will be timekeeper, and Sam Huntington will act as announcer. The show starts at 8:15.

Meredith To Be Aviator

(United Press Leased Wire.) PHILADELPHIA, March 27.—Ted Meredith, famous University of Pennsylvania athlete and holder of the world's half and quarter mile records, has announced his intention of entering the United States army as an aviator. Meredith plans to organize a University of Pennsylvania flying squadron. Don Lippincott, a former sprinting champion, who took a prominent part in the last Olympic games, also plans to become an aviator.

PLAY WITH A "KICK" IS HERE THURSDAY

Max Marcia's stirring drama "The House of Glass" with Cohan and Harris' notable New York cast and production, will be at the Tacoma theater Thursday night. This new play is proclaimed one of the best of recent years and its success has been a glowing one. Regarding "The House of Glass" the Los Angeles American said in part: Billed as the biggest drama of modern times, it is all that it is said of, but is of the refined melo-drama style, a story with "kick" in it. Adelina O'Conner, pretty, sweet and gracious, plays the part of Margaret Case, the tylist, who loves the unworthy man, pays for her love with a prison sentence, goes to a new country and marries a true gentleman, who has it in his power to make or break her former lover. How she keeps her secret, how the man is punished and the climax of surprising situations makes the very best of dramatic telling. Go and see "The House of Glass." You will like it. All the parts are well handled by competent artists. There's a "giggle" here and there and your evening will not be wasted.

Girl Presents Real Thriller

Vaudeville patrons who thrive on thrillers will get their fill at the Pantages this week in the act of Co-Dora, the girl in the golden globe.

Riding a motorcycle inside a steel globe that takes up more than half the stage, this maiden does loops-the-loop, spirals, up-side-down stunts and a number of death-defying acts, while a male assistant stands in the center of the circle, within a few inches of the flying wheels. It is a unique act and a dangerous one.

Billy Small, former orchestra leader at Pantages, returns as a tramp violinist, and is scoring a big hit. He is clever with his "fiddle."

George and Mae Le Fevre have a handsomely costumed dance feature. Will Rawls and Ella von Kaufman have a company offering of the old variety days style, replete with good humor.

Bernard changes his makeup so fast that it keeps his audience in a fever of excitement. He plays all the characters of a little comedy. The Oakland sisters wear beautiful gowns and sing nicely.

Chapter 1 of "Patria," the new serial in which Mrs. Vernon Castle is appearing, is featured.

READY FOR TITLE BOUT

(United Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, March 27.—The wonderful ability of Freddie Welsh, the world's lightweight champion, to condition himself and fight like a real champion when he wants to, is the only thing that keeps him from being on the short end of betting, as his bout with Henry Leonard, set for tomorrow night approaches. Leonard, with two bouts with the champion already in his record, is doing better work with his hands and feet than he ever did. Both boxers have worked themselves into superb condition. When this is said of Welsh it means that a great fighting machine is ready for action.

GOOD BALL PLAYERS RECRUIT IN NAVY

War recruiting is depleting the ranks of the Tacoma ball players. Lloy Piekert and Steve Kolker, who played with Ed die Hickey's Narada club nine last season, joined the navy yesterday and started for Bremerton this morning. "They were my two best players, and I don't know whether to organize a new team now or not," wails Hickey.

PETER'S PIFFLE

Sam Huntington, silvery toned announcer, who will spiel at tonight's all-star smoker, says he has reduced 50 pounds in a year. And what makes him sore is that all his clothes hang on him like bags.

Anybody'd know that Harry O'Neil and Dick Young are partners. They both made 99 in Sunday's tournament at Meadow park golf course.

Every major league mogul hopes to win, says a headline in the a. m. sheet. Why not include the minors and amateurs, while you're about it?

Not only has Mount Tacoma been given justice, but so has Paul Steele. Two of Tacoma's papers who have refused to mention Paul's battles or his smokers during the past six months, have finally lifted the curse. Maybe Sam Wall helped!

Tacoma isn't the only place where they have a recall. See where Brand Whitlock, minister to Belgium, is a victim.

Tacoma reporters are planning to organize a baseball team and play the policemen. Any cop who knocks a home run in that game never need look in a paper for his name again. We suggest that members of the dry squad commandeer the refreshment bucket.

A lot of fishermen who go out to their favorite streams Sunday for the first fishing of the season are going to receive April Fool packages. The season is already about four weeks late, because of heavy rains and high waters. Better wait a month, boys, and play safe.

Says Russ Hall: "There may be '20,000 Leagues Under the Sea,' but thank goodness, the Northwestern is still above water!"

Miss Talmage Has Big Hit In "Panthea"

A love scene from "Panthea" at the Apollo.

"Panthea" at the Apollo is a photoplay of so many excellent qualities that to see it once scarcely satisfies. It creates a desire to see it again, and there will undoubtedly be many "repeaters" during the engagement.

Norma Talmadge is a star worthy of the magnificent setting and the excellent story, full of powerful emotional situations. It is admirably told. Beginning in Russia, exciting events there are quickly told, and the largest part of the action of the play transpires in London and Paris.

Norma Talmadge gives a great interpretation of a love-enslaved wife who sacrifices herself for her husband's success.

Ainsworth Star In "Trufflers"

Since Sydney Ainsworth's portrayal of Count Quinnox in Essanay's "The Prince of Graustark," there has been a popular clamor for more of him in pictures. The clamor has been more than met in the current Essanay feature, "The Trufflers."

In Essanay's adaptation of this story by Samuel Merwin, which was published in the Cosmopolitan magazine, Mr. Ainsworth appears in the best role of his screen career, and at the same time he does the best work of his career. He impersonates the Peter Erlason Mann of the story.

Mr. Ainsworth is still a young man, yet he has achieved a wonderful record not alone in the silent drama, but on the speaking stage, beforehand. He is an exponent of Conway's dramatic school, and made his stage debut with Maude Adams in "The Little Minister." After an extensive Broadway appearance with Robert Edeson in "Soldiers of Fortune," "Strongheart" and "Classmates," he joined Essanay's staff of stars in 1914.

OH, MY! BILL LEARD'S SORE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27. Bill Leard waxed highly indignant the other day because of a remark by Harry Wolverton of the Seals, quoted in a local newspaper, the tenor of which was that organized baseball might just as well let down the bars to negroes if it is to permit Chinamen to play. "Think of that!" fairly hissed the scrappy Leard. "Think of it. Ayou is an American-born, half-Chinese-half Hawaiian, has attended American schools and speaks English almost as well as I do. And Wolverton has on his San Francisco club Jacinto Calvo, a Cuban who butchers the American lingo. "There's one for the book."

Seattle Takes Hockey Title

(United Press Leased Wire.) SEATTLE, March 27.—Playing in the whirlwind manner that has marked their game from the second contest through three straight games to victory, the Seattle ice hockey crew last night annexed the fourth and deciding game in the world's championship in the Arena, nine to one, from the Canadians of Montreal. As in the last three games the far-famed "Flying Frenchmen" could do but little against the fast work of the locals. The contest was even more one-sided than the two that had gone before, which Seattle won easily.

Divided Her Favors, Maybe

Geraldine Farrar went over to Port Lee the other day to see her husband, Lou Tellegen, play a very important scene. It is not customary with Miss Farrar to witness her husband's actions before the camera but in this particular case he was toying with a huge Siberian wolf as an incident to the action in the Famous Players-Paramount picture, "The Long Trail." It is not clearly stated whether Miss Farrar came to cheer on Lou Tellegen or the wolf.

There is no account in the Bible of the origin of writing. Writing is first distinctly mentioned in the 14th verse of the 17th chapter of Exodus.

SUBMARINE FILMS PROVE HIT IN LATEST THRILLER

The crew of the "Nautilus" manning a torpedo in Jules Verne's "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea," at the Colonial.

A picture that takes the breath away—this is "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea," at the Colonial this week. Nothing like it has ever been filmed before.

The difficulties to be overcome in filming a story of the character of Verne's classic can be imagined, and that these have been successfully surmounted reflects great credit upon the producers. The sinking of the ship by a torpedo, the terrific combat between Captain Nemo and the devil fish, and the funeral on the bottom of the ocean are features that will live in the memory. "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea" remains at the Colonial all week.

The Yeomen A. C. defeated the Bates-Federals on the Logan grounds Sunday by a score of 4 to 0. Hootch Radke held the B-F boys at his mercy, allowing only two hits throughout the contest. He struck out 14. Slager and Radke did the stick work for the Yeomen, while Brown made some hair-raising catches in left field.

Jimmy Panatolia, of the stable of boxers managed by Eddie Earl, will be out of the fight game for some time. He is going to the hospital soon to have an operation on his nose. A fractured bone, which has been giving him considerable annoyance of late, will be removed. Manager Earl has canceled all of his engagements for this season, but says his man will be ready to again enter the squared arena next year.

It is reported that members of the old Eastern Monarch baseball team are reorganizing and are going to give some of the new teams some hard battles as soon as the weather permits. All members of the team will be 45 years of age or more. They said last night that they would make any of the young chaps step some when they get to going. They promise to let us hear more from them in the near future.

Jack Farrell, one of the city's best semi-pro catchers, is still a free agent. He has been offered several contracts, but declares there is plenty of time yet. Jack likes to look over the lineup before he agrees to play with a team. When he finds a team that suits him and they need a good backstop Jack says he will put his signature on a contract.

A letter from Arletta says they will give another dance at that place Saturday night, April 7. The committee wish to announce that arrangements have been made for a boat to leave Municipal dock at 7:30 on that night. The boat stops at Old Tacoma. Dancing begins at 9:45 and stops at 4 a. m.

Percy Heale, who played the outfield for the Stellacoom ball club last season, has not turned out for practice this year. It is not known who he will play for as yet. Some say he may leave the city. Heale was at one time one of the city's best backstops.

The Washington Parlor Furniture Co.'s team defeated the Yeomen at Logan grounds Sunday, 3 to 2. D. Geer and Michelson were the furniture makers' battery, with King and Brown working for the Yeomen. Harlow and Olson were umpires.

Howard (Hong) Armstrong says he may call his players together some night this week for a get-together meeting. A captain Bobby Burns of Dallas, in the fourth round of their scheduled fifteen round mill last night. The referee stopped the bout.

DENVER, Colo., March 27.—Jack Britton, coast featherweight, scored a virtual knockout over Bobby Burns of Dallas, in the fourth round of their scheduled fifteen round mill last night. The referee stopped the bout.

Togo Smith, popular Indian pitcher, will not pitch around Tacoma this season. He is leaving town but refuses to say where he is going. It is believed he is on his way to Portland to pitch for one of the fast semi-pro teams there.

Allen Browne is sure sweet on that new catcher of the Majestic. He has been napping Manager Fowler on the back ever since he signed him and says that the new member sure looks like the goods.

We have a hunch Paul Steele is going to give that Californian a good run for his money tonight. Paul is in the condition of his life and says he feels that he can hold his own with anyone in his class.

The Times booking agency now has 50 members. We shall try and keep each team supplied with games this season. New teams are joining daily. If your team is not listed, call Main 12 and get on the lists.

A headline in a Sunday sport paper says: "Wife of logger who boxes with Dorian Tuesday night helps keep husband in shape." We wonder who is matched with Dorian—the logger or his wife?

Dave Bales has just received the new equipment for his trailer and will be ready to take the Majestic baseball team members out any Sunday. He expects to accompany the team on all trips.

Two new faces who will be seen in the Majestic baseball lineup are Jensen and Marty Foley. Both are fast semi-pros of experience.

Bill Leftwich had a good season in bowling and is now hoping that he can duplicate the record in baseball. He played first base on the Hopkins A. C. ball team the latter part of the season.

The Hopkins Athletic club wants a practice game for Sunday. Any team wanting the game should call The Times Sporting Editor.

A barn dance for the benefit of the ball team will be given by the Hopkins A. C. Friday night at the club rooms.

THE GOOD JUDGE MEETS A DISCONTENTED WESTERN MAN

NEIGHBOR, YOU LOOK AS IF YOU HAD LOST YOUR LAST FRIEND—ANYTHING I CAN DO FOR YOU? LOST MY LAST AND BEST FRIEND—WAS A POUCH OF W-B CUT TOBACCO. YOU KNOW A LITTLE CHEW LASTS AND CONTENTS A MAN. IF HE GETS A CHEW OF W-B TOBACCO, I'M CERTAINLY GOING TO GET ONE TOO.

WHO is there that's got the heart to refuse a man a little chew from his pouch of W-B CUT Chewing—especially if he's a gentlemanly fellow who would appreciate rich tobacco? Once a man gets used to real tobacco, it goes mighty hard with him to swing back to the ordinary over sweetened kind. W-B has out in two the amount he tucks away in his check.
