

Girl Mngr. Sure They'll Win

During the middle of last year's baseball season, a group of young fellows in the F. S. Harmon & Co.'s furniture plant challenged the employees of the Washington Parlor Furniture company to a ball contest.

The Washington boys didn't have a team, and didn't know how to get one, but they were game. And they were trounced most thoroughly.

So when the ball season began to approach again, the Washington furniture makers, with bitterness in their hearts and vindication as their goal, began organizing a team. And after they had organized, they needed a manager. And they called loudly and mightily, but no one volunteered for the job.

"Let's appoint Agnes," suggested someone. Agnes Anderson is one of the popular girl employees of the plant.

And the appointment was promptly made.

"I had the job wished on me, but I'm going through with it," said Agnes today. "My only trouble is in making all the boys turn out for practice. I know the game, and have even played baseball for several seasons, but I don't know the secret of forcing them to train properly. I'll learn, though, in time."

But for all that, the girl manager has put her huskies through their paces regularly, and they are ready for battle. The Washington boys recently challenged the Harmon crew to a return game, and the contest is set for tomorrow afternoon at Whitman grounds.

There'll be a big crowd of rooters for each team.

But the most anxious one on the lot will be Agnes Anderson, as she sits on the bench directing her players by finger signs. "My boys are going to win, and that's all there is to it," says Miss Anderson. "But just the same, I can't help worrying about the game."

TIGERS WAGE A BATTLE

For the first time in a whole week, the rain ceased yesterday afternoon long enough to permit members of the Tiger squad to enjoy some real practice.

Boss Tealey Raymond split his training camp into two teams, and let them demonstrate how much they knew about baseball. The regulars, a team composed mostly of men experienced in professional ball, won a 5 to 0 score, but the rookies put up a good battle against them.

All the pitchers, with the possible exception of Katula and Schindler, were in fine shape. These two recruits were nervous and had hard time getting control.

The teams lined up as follows: Regulars—Stevens, c; Katula, Schindler, Collins, p; Raymond, ss; Sutherland, 1b; Peterson, 2b; Collins, McCorkle, 3b; Hauglund, lf; Bankhead, cf; Carson, Telford, rf.

Rookies—Flagged, c; Carson, Ment, Telford, p; Holmes, ss; Connolly, 1b; Bogart, 2b; Dubart, 3b; Pierce, lf; Worth, cf; Cole, rf.

GOOD FACES CLEVER BOY AT SEATTLE

Sammy Good, the hard hitting lightweight who meets Harry Casey at the Eagles smoker next week, is facing one of the hardest fights in his career tonight.

He meets George Ingle at Seattle. Ingle has been winning consistently of late, and is known as one of the best boxers in this part of the country. Although Good recently demonstrated his renewed ring ability by knocking out Willie Hoppe, king of the four rounders in California, he is expected to have a hard time with the Seattle youth.

Matchmaker Shanklin added another bout to the Eagles' card today.

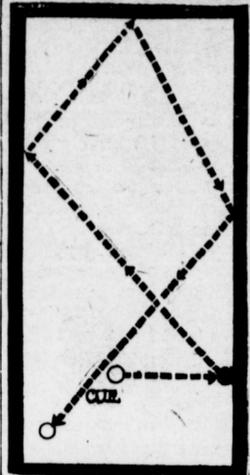

Sammy Morris, the young demon who showed so much class with Frank Pete at the recent Glide rink show, will tackle "Toughy" Wing, of Portland.

Wing is the boy who put up such a clever fight with Joe Richmond at the last Eagles show. These two boys are among the best featherweights in the Northwest and should provide a good semi-windup to the double main event.

Toughy Wing defeated George Ross, the sensational Canadian boer, recently, and has scored two wins over Eddie Quinn of Tacoma. The fourth bout for the card will be between Walter Porsch of Roy and Mike Pete of Wilkeson. Porsch was last seen here when he mixed with Jack Shaughnessy in a fast bout before the Eagles. Both boys are clever, and a good bout is expected.

Sammy Good, with Lonnie Austin and Sol Levinson came to Tacoma last night to arrange for the Good-Casey bout. Levinson, who is Good's manager, is the manufacturer of the famous Levinson boxing gloves.

Petite Vivian In Leading Role

"Zey speak all ze time of ze kiss—but nevalr of ze marriage!" pouted pretty Julie, the dainty heroine of "The Wax Model."

As far as that goes, Julie—who is really pretty Vivian Martin—looks so charming that it is no wonder somebody desires to kiss her, and one is tempted to envy the lucky Englishman who finally wins her.

A pleasing picture play, with plenty of comedy, is the present attraction at the Colonial. Vivian Martin is piquant and petite in the leading role.

"Hell Morgan's Girl" will come Sunday.

Steger Film Work of Art

There are many strong dramatic situations in "The Stolen Triumph," the newest Metro wonder-play, which is at the Apollo until Saturday night. Excellent character work done by the star, Julius Steger, lifts this feature into the realm of high motion picture art, and the play altogether is one to be enjoyed and remembered.

Coming to the Apollo Sunday the William Fox screen success, "Sins of Her Parents," introduces many able players, headed by beautiful Gladys Brockwell, an actress of exceptional charm and talent.

ROY TEAM IS SPEEDY THIS YEAR

Although little has been heard as yet from the Roy team in the Valley league, that club is promising to give the other Valley leaguers a hard run for the money.

The team looks strong, and should put up a stiff battle. Benson will be behind the bat again, with Henry Murray as the principal pitcher. This battery is recognized far and wide as a hard one for amateurs to tackle.

Nels Calder, who played with McKenna last year, is on first. Dewey Calder, the sensational infielder with National last year, will be on short. Johnny McLoughlin has signed for the third sack job.

In the outfield are Montful, Harstad and Meyers, all with the team last year. Roy has a couple of high school players who will probably fill out the infield.

While Roy is improving its grounds, a coat of clay is being placed on the Roy field, and if the bad weather will cease for a few days, the park will be put in first class shape.

AMATEUR SPORTS

Die Anderson, the Ruston heavyweight, is training with Frank Farmer at present. According to those who have watched the work of the Ruston youth the last week, he is getting better all the time. It is likely that he will be matched in Tacoma soon. He gave a good account of himself in his first professional battle at the Glide recently.

Kinley ave. Rain interfered with last Sunday's game between McKinley and Glide Rink, Miss Agnes Anderson, manager of the Washington Parlor Furniture Co. team, will use her speed battery, Hootch Radke and Hicks, in tomorrow's big game with the F. S. Harmon Co. team.

In a very exciting game of baseball played on the McKinley school grounds, the McKinley school team defeated the Horace Mann team yesterday by a score of 4 to 3.

Kuehl proved to be the Horace Mann star, while the stars on the McKinley Hill team were Utch, who allowed only 5 hits, and Libke, who did the heavy stick work for the Hill boys.

The batteries: McKinley Hill—Utch and Clark; Horace Mann—Saunders and Olson, Gene Seather, umpire.

Manager Bruce Grant of the Smelter ball team, says he thinks all his men, but perhaps one, will be able to make the trip to Olympia Saturday, when the Smelter nine meets the Great Falls squad.

The Tacoma Elks baseball team plays the Tacoma Tigers at Athletic park Sunday at 2 p. m. George Mallory, captain of the antlered tribe, has had his men out for practice several times lately in preparation for the big event. He says his men will give the Northwestern troupe a good battle.

The Hopkins ball team wishes to arrange several games with Tacoma teams before starting on their out-of-town schedule. The manager of the team said last night that they wish to make a "clean up" at home first.

Hammond and Lowe will form the Majestics' battery for Sunday's game at Stellacoom, while Hootch Radke and Shager will work for the Yeomen. Billy Carns has been asked to umpire.

The Hopkins A. C. basketball team stages another of their classy dances at the club's headquarters, 3010 Portland avenue, Friday night. Proceeds go to the baseball fund. Their dances are always a financial success because every member of the club is a booster.

Manager Armstrong, of the Woodmen of the World diamond artists, received a letter from St. Martin's college yesterday asking him to bring his team to Lacey April 22. He says he will accept the challenge. Armstrong says that all the managers in the city are after his men and that he wants to know if there are no other team moguls who can get a team together.

The McKinley Hill baseball team will play the Whitman All-Stars Sunday at 2 o'clock on the McKinley grounds, 43rd and Mc-

The Services of a Savings Bank In Helping You to Build Up a Fund for Investments

THE power and influence of a Savings Account is enormous, and the good it exercises in all communities through inducing thrift—is tremendous. No honest man can make money WITHOUT having money to make money out of. A Savings Account is the seed from which money for investments grow. The SAVING habit was the seed out which every great fortune in America grew. Use a Savings Bank for the purpose for which it was founded—to help you accumulate a surplus—DOLLAR BY DOLLAR. Do this and your seed will grow without risk, while you work and sleep.

Officially, it pays you 3 per cent. UNOFFICIALLY—it pays you a great deal more. It increases your self-respect 100 per cent. It increases your credit, when desirable, 50 per cent. It saves you from 8 to 20 per cent, if you pay CASH when buying land, houses, furniture, books, clothing, pianos, or most of the thousand and one things people do buy.

What does the bank ask of you? Merely this: Don't waste your money; don't burn up your time and labor and have nothing left but useless regrets. That you forget the past that cannot be helped, and begin saving TODAY. It merely asks that you have enough GRIT to start a Savings Account, occasionally adding to your deposit in amounts so small you can hardly miss them.

Is the game worth the candle? Is peace, comfort, self-respect, happiness and leisure—worth anything? You must have money or you cannot have these. The Bald Eagle may be a "tough old bird" to corner, but his picture on the back of a dollar makes it LEGAL TENDER.

LEGAL TENDER behind your check, is the idea. This is the idea behind a Savings Account.
