10,000 Americans May Carry Flag In Battle

LONDON, April 25.—America may not have to await the raising and training of an expeditionary army in the United States to put the Stars and Stripes in action on the battlefields of France.

Colonel Bullock of the Canadian army, a Chicago clergyman and later lecturer before the New York school board, was working today with the aid of influential Americans—on a scheme to transfer all Americans now fighting with the allied armies into one American fighting unit.

Bullock explained his plan to the United Press today. He expects very shortly to invite American fighting with the Canadians, French and British imperial forces to combine in a half division, wearing the American uniform and carrying the American flag.

He estimated today that 10,000 Americans could be raised—all trained in the warfare now in vogue on the western front.

EDITOR HERE

Hamilton Holt, editor of the Independent magazine and vice president of the League to Enforce Peace, was to speak at the Commercial club Wednesday afternoon. He is west in the furtherance of the idea of a world league to enforce peace.

"It is not a pacifist movement, or a stop-the-war movement, but a league to establish a league of nations by treaties to enforce peace after the war is over," said Mr. Holt Wednesday morning.

ROB LECTURER OF RELIGIOUS CHARTS

While Rev. J. F. Robinson of Geneseo, Ill., was examining religious books in a Pacific ave. book store late Tuesday afternoon, a thief walked off with his suitcase, containing everything that he had brought with him on a lecture tour of the east. Among the contents were $17 in cash, a Prince Albert coat, a diary, religious books, and religious charts.

Rev. Robinson was sent west by the Methodist Episcopal church. He lectured at Trinity Methodist last night, minus his charts and books.

HOT TIMES IN KAISER'S TOWN

(United Press Leased Wire.) AMSTERDAM, April 25.—The new anti-government socialist party in Germany precipitated tumultuous disturbances in yesterday's meeting of the reichstag, according to Berlin dispatches today.

The socialist Ledebours, one of the organizers of the new party, charged that the government was responsible for the food crisis in Germany. He demanded that the reichstag discuss the whole situation and the government's mal-administration on Wednesday. Amid tempestuous debate the resolution was rejected.

Later Berlin advices declared the reichstag would not meet again until May 2.

U. S. NAVY COLLIER STRANDED ON ROCK

(United Press Leased Wire.) SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 25.—The U. S. collier Brutus, Captain J. R. Driggs, is impaled on a submerged rock "somewhere in the Pacific" and several United States ships and tugs have been rushed to her assistance.

How badly she is damaged could not be ascertained. She struck at dusk Monday.

The rescue ships were expected to reach the Brutus last night and an attempt was to be made to pull her into deep water today. A part of her cargo may have to be jettisoned. She carries a crew of 37.

COUNCIL SHIELDS ANTHEM

Two patriotic ordinances were passed by the city council Wednesday and will go into effect within 10 days.

The first prohibits any person, orchestra or band from playing the Star Spangled Banner in a medley, and demands that if any part of the national anthem is to be played, the entire air must be given. The song cannot be used in dance music, and must not be played as an exit march in theaters.

Musicians must stand while playing it. Fines of $100 or jail imprisonment of 30 days are provided for violations.

The second ordinance provides that the American flag shall not be used in any advertising matter, that no printing or advertisement shall be placed upon it, and that it shall not be defiled, defaced or trampled upon.

City commissioners are wondering whether or not they must remove a sign placed on a big flag in the council chamber, which announces that the flag endorsement to the city in 1916 by William E. Clayton, defeated candidate for council.

SOUTH TACOMA AND OAKLAND WANT ST. CAR

A fight between residents of South Tacoma and Oakland addition, over the proposed extension of the Center street car line developed Wednesday when R. D. Lytle, 3510 Monroe st., Oakland addition, complained to the city council that public endorsement had been made of South Tacoma's appeal, but not of the one from his community.

Oakland people want the Center street cars extended to their neighborhood, and connected with the Traction line. South Tacomans want the line extended along Edison boulevard to Union ave., the main street of South Tacoma.

The council recently endorsed South Tacoma's petition, but forgot about the Oakland request. T. R. & P. officials are said to be willing to consider either extension, in order to gain better transportation to the army post.

"We don't care about getting the army post business run through Oakland," complained Lytle. "It won't help us any, although South Tacoma seems to think it will. All we want is to have 10 or 15 minutes cut from the time we now spend on the street cars every trip."

BOUNTY FOR TIMBER WOLF

Jesse McCray, a trapper of Ashford, has the distinction of bringing the first fur of a timber wolf into the county auditor's office for a bounty. He appeared with a fine specimen Wednesday.

McCray caught the wolf in a trap near the Eagle Peak mine above Longmire's, near Narada Falls. He said the wolf and its pal had killed two does, and that he had a trap out for some time trying to catch them.

He finally landed the wise old wolf by setting a trap baited with some of the venison that the wolf killed.

McCray's bounty was $15. He also received $1 for a wild cat's fur.

HANDS OVER $200,000,000

(United Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo today handed to British Ambassador Sir Cecil Spring-Rice a treasury warrant for $200,000,000, Great Britain's first participation in the $7,000,000,000 war finance fund.

The amount is available out of the $250,000,000 of treasury certificates just offered through the federal reserve system.

Secretary McAdoo has asked the banks to have the proceeds of this issue ready by today and as soon as the money is deposited in the reserve banks it will be available for government use.

BEGIN FOOD SUPERVISION

(United Press Leased Wire.) PORTLAND, Or., April 25.—Federal supervision of the handling of food is now in effect. The American Can Co. announced from its Portland office this morning that it would be unable hereafter to supply packers with tins for certain kinds of vegetables because of restrictions made by the government in its efforts to conserve not only the metal, but also food-stuffs.

Several fine hunting rifles and good revolvers were turned into the U. S. marshal's office Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning by men classified as "alien enemies."

They turned them in to comply with the recent order of the U. S. attorney general. Every man who has turned some sort of a gun in has said he is a law-abiding citizen and wants to comply with the laws.

TWO FOOD MASS MEETINGS CALLED Two agricultural meetings have been scheduled for Wednesday night in the county. One at the Lake City school, with Charles Richardson speaker, and another one at Midland with Maurice Langhorne as speaker.

In the Editor's Mail

Who Is He? EDITOR THE TIMES: Somewhere in this city, I understand from a conversation overheard on the street, is a man who was once considered champion long range military rifle shot of America.

The gentleman—I butted in on the conversation—did not know his name, but was as anxious as I to "dig him out" because "we old fellows need him" in the home guard as an instructor. Can The Times smoke him out for us? We understand he is an old timer in Tacoma.

ONE OF THE HOME GUARD. If this letter comes under the eye of the man in question or of any of his acquaintances, would they be good enough to telephone or drop me a line. I will see that the information is passed right on to "One of the Home Guard."—Editor.

The Y. M. C. A. EDITOR THE TIMES: Referring to the Y. M. C. A. discussion, and what may be done to improve its financial condition, probably the best thing to be done, is to increase its membership. If men generally understood, what the association can do for them and what they can get here for their money, every man of Tacoma interested in his own welfare would join the Y. M. C. A.

For real sociability and good fellowship, fraternal organizations are not in it with the Y. M. C. A. Some doctors and lawyers would be out of a job if all the young men and business men of the city were members of the gym class and took a shower bath or swim each day, because they would never be sick, and be so agreeable that they would never get in trouble with each other.

The Y. M. C. A. has value received to you, to every man who gets into it and needs only to be presented to men in the proper way to get them to enroll as members.

If I had the say, I would employ an expert to get members the same as the wholesale house employs men to sell goods.

Membership in the Y. M. C. A. is saleable at par, in the Y. M. C. A. I have been an active member of the gymnasium classes under four successive physical directors, and under the present Mr. Nickerson the class has almost trebled in size.

Mr. Nickerson is an earnest, enthusiastic personality equipped for Y. M. C. A. work far above the average. Besides he is not of the old lady type, complaining to his pupils of the financial difficulties he has to meet.

If any one is able to make the physical department of the Y. M. C. A. grow, Mr. Nickerson is the man. He has an endless number of exercises to teach, is enthusiastic and optimistic all the time, is deeply earnest and sensibly religious and makes a fellow feel glad he belongs to the gym class.

Respectfully, J. W. ANDERSON, 314 California Bldg.

A Query EDITOR THE TIMES: Please tell through your paper how many of those people have enlisted in the army to fight at the battlefield. I mean those people that condemned Senator Wesley L. Jones for not voting for war.

We have no particular quarrel with those who really believe in the war, and who are willing to do their share of the fighting. The person we despise is he who shouts for war and seeks to drag others into war yet is not willing to go to war himself.

Orting, J. W. LANGFORD.

ALIENS TURN OVER RIFLES

MANY WOMEN IN CATTLE INDUSTRY (United Press Leased Wire.) LAGRANDE, Or., April 25.—Woman's part in the great Oregon cattle industry is shown by the fact that of 400 members of the Cattle and Horsebreeders' association of Oregon in session here today, over 60 are women.

Teachers' Pay

EDITOR THE TIMES: I noticed in Tuesday afternoon edition of your paper that 12 people from the South End did not think the teachers' salaries should be raised.

I have wondered if any of these 12 have ever spent an hour or so in the school room.

Does any of these 12 know just how much money and time a teacher must give in order to help the children in the school work?

Did it ever occur to them, that when a teacher closes her door, it is not for pleasure, but he or she reaches out for more knowledge that they might give the best they can to the school children and when they leave the school room they do not go home to care for themselves but are still working for the betterment of the children?

Most times they work far into the night, because their work demands their time outside of school work that the child's work might be the planner.

Did it ever occur to those 12 that the teachers have their children more hours each day than the parents do?

What would become of our children, our schools, if our teachers did what other organizations do when they fight for what belongs to them? What would they think of a teachers' strike? They have a right to higher wages in order to live as any other organization.

BALFOUR TELLS OF MOTIVES

(United Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—Condemnation of "certain" doubting critics who think France and Great Britain have come here to invade the United States into entangling alliances with European forces," was voiced by British Foreign Secretary Arthur J. Balfour in a public statement here today.

The British foreign secretary, on the eve of the greatest world war council, outlined a brief declaration of motives and principles on behalf of our European allies.

His list clenched and his jaw set, he looked squarely in the eyes of his listeners.

"I wish to assure the people of this great nation that the assistance we are going to get from the United States is based on no such shallow consideration."

Then, turning abruptly to America's part in the war, Balfour said: "You have been watching this blood-stained drama from afar. Each month the conviction in your minds has grown that no small or petty interests are involved."

"You realize that this is not a quarrel for so many square miles of territory.

"You know thoroughly well that the liberties of mankind alone are animating the allied cause.

"Therefore you have joined in the great conquest.

"We know you will try all your forces of invention, production and man power into the balance. "Nothing can turn you from it.

"You will see the war through. If there is any certainty in human affairs, that is certain.

Thanks America. "No one who has walked among you can for one minute doubt the full determination of the American people to throw themselves whole-heartedly into the greatest conflict ever waged.

"I indeed appreciate this opportunity to say to the American public how very deeply we value your kindness, your enthusiasm and the warmth of your welcome.

"All our hearts are touched by your outward and visible manifestations of that sympathetic emotion which accompanies the assumption of your part in the great cause and the insuring of its success."

The hearing will be held at the Forest Service headquarters, Atlantic building, Washington, D. C., beginning at 10 a. m.

Wants Water Fee Dropped To Allow Potato Planting

Declaring that Tacomans must act quickly if they wish to plant their potatoes, and that many citizens are waiting for the council's decision regarding free water for vacant lots, James Law, a Tacoma attorney, appeared before the council for the second time Wednesday and made an impassioned appeal.

Law wants the council to permit owners of vacant property to connect to city mains during the summer months, without payment of the usual $9 charge.

"There are thousands of vacant lots in Tacoma that could be irrigated this way, if the city would permit it," said the attorney, "but the people cannot afford to plant potatoes and run the risk of their drying up in summer time. We must have the water, and we can't pay the charges. If the city will waive this charge during the summer time, nearly everyone can afford to obey President Wil-

LIBRARY HAS INFORMATION

Magazine articles and other literature on the subject of daylight savings will be on tap for ready reference, City Librarian John B. Kaiser declared Wednesday.

Any Tacoman will be able to find out for himself the advantage of the plan and the success with which it has worked out in European countries and in other parts of the United States by going to the library.
