Indians Dies

Edward Eels, 75, pioneer of the Northwest, died Wednesday morning at the family residence, 1020 North J street. Rev. Eels, as is better known, spent many years of his life in working with Indians. He traveled throughout the Northwest on horseback, and was always starting out on a circuit ride to visit the Indians. His wife, four daughters and one son survive him. The funeral will be held Friday from the First Congregational church, and the body will be shipped to Seattle for interment.

Why Physicians Advise Magnesia For Acid Indigestion

Thousands of people whose stomachs trouble them after eating a meal have found that by taking a teaspoonful of pure bisulphated magnesia in a half glass of hot water after meals they can do away with peptic pills and other digestive aids and can still be able to eat heartily of whatever foods they please and have no stomach trouble afterwards. Physicians say that hot water forces a much needed blood supply to the stomach while bisulphated magnesia is undoubtedly the best, safest and most powerful neutralizer of stomach acids that can be found. A single teaspoonful will sweeten the food contents of a sour acid, burning stomach in five minutes by the watch and natural digestion will follow without pain or uncomfortable feeling of any kind. Continued use of bisulphated magnesia does not weaken natural digestion and it is perfectly safe to use at any time. It can be had at almost any drug store, but be sure it is bisulphated magnesia you are getting. Do not use other forms of magnesia for this purpose.

Chicken Food From Garbage

Outlining a plan for converting the city's garbage into poultry food, by refining and cooking everything but metal and cloth, H. W. Faust of the Union Poultry Food Co., Los Angeles, wrote the Tacoma council Wednesday offering to build a $60,000 plant here if he could have all the city's garbage for a period of 50 years. He estimates that he could make 10 tons of poultry food daily, and he will pay the city $1 a ton for the privilege.

Sure Tom Is Golf Fiend

Unmistakable signs that Tom Morris, the jovial county auditor, is a golf fiend, were in evidence in his private office in the court house Wednesday. Four white, shiny golf balls are reposing on Tom's window sill. Upon examination, it was found that Tom had bought a can of white paint which is used for painting golf balls, and had proceeded to use it.

Youth Bound and Gagged

(Special to The Times.) SEATTLE, May 16.—Floyd Raymer, age 16, managed to cut himself loose after older boys gagged and bound him to a tree, built a fire at his feet and ran away, while playing here today. When rescued by his mother, the boy said "he swallowed some smoke."

ITALY'S DRIVE GAINS GROUND

(United Press Leased Wire.) HOULIM, May 16.—Italy's great offensive is gaining ground. Over a front of from 25 to 30 miles, Italian guns are roaring today, while infantry is steadily advancing. Several thousand prisoners sent behind the lines, according to word received here today. The fight was reported very heavy on the hills behind Gorizia.

URGES VALUE OF CANNING

"Spring Canning" was the subject of a talk given by L. M. Jones, county boys and girls club organizer, Tuesday night at Stellacoom. He demonstrated how rhubarb, asparagus and other greens and vegetables can be canned. "To balance a persons ration, there is nothing like eating vegetables, and greens. Can them, so in the winter your meals will also be balanced," said Jones. "Any jar used now for vegetables, can be used later in the year for fruit."
