Prisoner Tells How It Feels to Be Hung

(United Press Leased Wire.) KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 11.—"It feels like hell!" That's the way Claud Piersol, accused of the Lloyd Keet kidnaping, described the sensations of hanging today, as he paced restlessly back and forth in his cell at the county jail here.

DEATHS

Mrs. Susan Thompson, age 80 years, died Sunday night at a local hospital. She had spent the last ten years of her life on the sick bed, as she had been troubled with rheumatism. Three sons, Paul, Karl L. and M. Roy Thompson, survive her, all well-known in the city. The body was removed to C. C. Mellinger's.

Many Insane

Is the war or the high cost of living making Tacomans go crazy? In the last five weeks, out of 84 prisoners taken into the county jail, 24 have been sent to the Steilacoom asylum.

Held As Dodger

Frederick Wilhelm Fay, 22, who is held by government officials in Los Angeles, Cal., following a spectacular arrest on the high seas, is charged with attempting to evade the registration law.

Teutons Wait For Decision

No Germans or Austrians were examined this morning in the naturalization hearing held in Judge Clifford's courthouse by U. S. Examiner R. W. Thomas. Judge Clifford told the applicants to come back within three months, as he expects to have the decision of the U. S. supreme court in their cases by that time.

FLINGS GOLD

(United Press Leased Wire.) LOS ANGELES, June 11.—Leaving a shower of gold behind him as he gave twenties and tens and fives away to those who crossed his path, Nathaniel S. H. Hillman, 38, of Beloit, Kansas, led the crowd who followed him, hoping for more gold, to a cheap rooming house here.

While dozens waited in the belief that he would reappear with more gold, he blew out his brains. Fear of insanity is ascribed as the cause in a note left to his family in Kansas.

Frederick Wilhelm Fay, 22, who is held by government officials in Los Angeles, Cal., following a spectacular arrest on the high seas, is charged with attempting to evade the registration law.

Fay's arrest took place at four o'clock in the morning when Special Agent Boden boarded the steamer San Juan, bound from San Francisco to Matzatlan, Mexico, on which the young man was a passenger. He was taken off in a coast guard cutter and held for investigation.

Fay declares he registered before leaving San Francisco, claiming exemption on the grounds that he is of German parentage.
