EXPECT CROWDS OF SOLDIERS AT SMOKER TONIGHT

TONIGHT'S CARD

Main Events.
 Frank Farmer, Kapowsin, vs. Chet McIntyre, Tacoma, heavyweights, six rounds.
 Frankie Sullivan, Los Angeles, vs. Bert Forbes, Camp Lewis, 125 pounds, six rounds.
Semi-Windups.
 Earl Conner, Camp Lewis, vs. Frank Pete, Seattle, 125 pounds four rounds.
 Eddie Quinn, Tacoma, vs. "Pickles" Martin, Camp Lewis, 128 pounds, four rounds.
Preliminary.
 Nick Sugar Everett vs. Walter Porsch, Roy, 142 pounds, four rounds.

seen lots of amateur boxing in their barracks, they are eager to see some of the good boys of the coast in a real boxing show.

Chet McIntyre and Frank Farmer, heavyweights, will furnish the big noise of the evening. The match will be unique. Both boxers are well up towards the age where professionals quit the ring. Both are married. Both are beginning to get gray, and they are both slightly bald.

But McIntyre is heavyweight champion of the Pacific coast, having grabbed the crown this spring when he made a whirlwind charge upon California. And Farmer is one of those rugged boxers who started the game thru practical experience in man-to-man encounters and has continued it because of his natural aptitude for the game. These men will put up a real slug-fest, or we miss our guess. McIntyre is a favorite. He has a strong punch, and is inclined to rush his opponent off his feet. What Farmer will do in front of a rushing powerful antagonist remains to be seen.

No introduction is needed for any of the boxers on the card. All are well known on the Pacific coast and in the Northwest. The show starts promptly at 8:15. Art Schock, the Eagles' referee, will be official arbitrator.

FRANKIE SULLIVAN, clever Portuguese-Mexican boxer, will meet Bert Forbes, newly enlisted soldier of Camp Lewis, in one of the main events of tonight's Eagles smoker.

Thanksgiving day sport events will have their grand climax this evening when the Eagles lodge stages one of its all-star boxing cards at Tacoma hall, 13th and Fawcett ave.

Advance sales of tickets indicate that the big hall will be jammed to the roof. For this is the first time since Camp Lewis was established that a big boxing show has been staged in Tacoma on a day when soldiers were permitted leaves of absence. And altho soldiers of the camp have

EVERS, PEPPER BOX OF CUBS AND BRAVES, MAY LEAVE GAME FOR GOOD

The unconditional release of Johnny Evers by the Phillies may not mean his retirement from baseball—it may be that the 1918 season will again see him in uniform either as manager of one of the new clubs which will require new pilots or as adviser to the manager of some other club, in a capacity similar to that he held with Pat Moran.

But it is not likely that Johnny will ever actively take the field again. His age and his physical condition are both arguments against this.

Few second basemen have surpassed Evers' record at the key-stone sack over a long period of years. He is among the ranking

RAIN WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH ARMY-NAVY GAME

A drizzling rain which set in Wednesday night threatened to make the Stadium Thanksgiving football game between army and navy teams uncomfortable for spectators. But it was announced that the game would not be postponed unless a downpour occurred in such proportions that a game would be impossible.

Today's army-navy game is scheduled for 1:30 and will be over by 3 o'clock. The 91st division all-cantonment team is one of the greatest football squads ever assembled in the west, and the naval training station team from Seattle, composed of young athletes from all parts of the country, is right behind it in its number of stars.

UNBEATEN TEAM IS WINNER ONCE MORE

The fast 362nd infantry football team of Camp Lewis won its eighth straight victory in the inter-regimental series yesterday afternoon and continued to maintain its standing of 1,000 per cent. Its next competitor is the 361st, which has won 6 games and lost 2. The 362nd defeated the 346th

Thye Refuses Mat Challenge of Kid Irish

Ted Thye, well known Spokane wrestler, who was challenged a week or so ago by Kid Irish of Camp Lewis, lightweight champion of the world, declined today to accept the match.

"Kid Irish is too small to draw a house with a man of my weight in a city like Tacoma," wrote Thye. "But I would like to meet any man of my own weight."

Thye is a welterweight. The boys met last year in Idaho, and Irish was only beaten when a muscle in his arm snapped. The Spokane boy says that he will be glad to come to Tacoma if a good match can be made with a boy of his own weight.

Harry Jolson Shows Himself Without Color

Here is the way Harry Jolson looks when he is a natural. When Jolson is an natural he is white. When he is earning his daily grape juice and cakes he is black as the night-gloom on Mt. Tacoma. It is in his darker shades he is known best, as shown by the way Pantages audiences are laughing at him this week.

(United Press Lensed Wire.)
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 29.—Virgin Hamlin, 125 pound Multnomah A. C. wrestler, won one decision last night for the local club and the two judges won the other when they robbed Eddie Kysch, 108 pound Olympic club, San Francisco boxer, of the decision which he had easily taken from Phil Neer, Multnomah boy. Hamlin won over A. Vallancourt, the 135 Canadian wrestling champion.

Francis and Beverly Have Stirring Drama at Apollo

Francis X. Bushman, that favorite of millions, is at the Apollo for three days in "The Adopted Son," a Metro six reel feature of stirring dramatic situations and love. Bushman as a western hero is something new on the screen, and he fills the role to perfection, his stalwart manliness combined with his natural grace making him ideal for such a part. Beverly Bayne is playing opposite him, and she also is splendid.

"Nothing But the Truth" Is Comedy Treat of Year

Max Figman can tell the truth—when there's $10,000 at stake—but it's a terribly hard job.

For nearly three hours last night Figman kept a capacity audience at the Tacoma theater in an uproar as he struggled manfully to tell the truth while a half dozen clever friends did their best to catch him.

It was over a little bet of $10,000 that Figman, in the role of Robert Bennett, bright young business man, couldn't tell the truth for 24 hours.

"Reaching for the Moon" Is Latest Aircraft Release of Fairbanks

Based upon original ideas of Douglas Fairbanks, "Reaching For the Moon," this popular star's latest Aircraft production, will come to the Colonial next Sunday for a week's run.

Douglas is somewhat of a philosopher, and has always contended that if a man can make good in a small way he can develop himself to succeed in a bigger venture; that the attainment of happiness

Film Comedy of Military Class Is Hit

Charming Gertrude Selby and clever Neal Burns in the military comedy, "Hubby's Holiday," are an added feature of the Colonial bill this week. The tribulations of a soldier are amusingly unfolded.

"The Hungry Heart," which tells the story of a beautiful woman neglected by her husband and forced to turn to another man in her loneliness, is the feature.

The awakening of the husband, and the thrilling incidents that follow make up an interesting story.

"Freckles" Is Here Friday

The dramatization of Gene Stratton - Porter's "Freckles," which comes to the Tacoma theater Friday and Saturday and Saturday matinee, stands as a substantial success, it is said.

As a love story, it is full of real sentiment; as a story of adventure it is positively gripping, in fact, in all the elementary features, there have been few characters on the American stage for years so intensely interesting.

Comedy Couple In "Baby Mine"

With the acquisition of John Cumberland as a member of the supporting cast in the picture production of Margaret Mayo's famous comedy, "Baby Mine," in which Madge Kennedy is starred, Goldwyn Pictures reunited the greatest farce comedy pair in America.

John Cumberland will be remembered by those who saw the stage production as playing the roles opposite Madge Kennedy in those two great successes, "Twin Beds" and "Fair and Warmer." The combination of Kennedy and Cumberland had proved so advantageous that Goldwyn took steps to continue it.

"Baby Mine" is the latest Goldwyn release, and will remain at the Liberty, 9th and Pacific, until Saturday night.

Two Captains Assigned to Utility Department

Capt. Frost Snyder, assistant to Lieut. Col. David L. Stone, constructing quartermaster at Camp Lewis, has been assigned to the department of utilities, which will have charge of all construction work at the camp. Capt. Will R. White of the engineers' reserve, who recently received his commission, has been assigned to the same department.

Albert E. Bauer Laid to Rest With Ceremony

The body of Albert E. Bauer, Tacoma merchant who died Monday evening, was buried in the Tacoma cemetery Wednesday afternoon with impressive Masonic ceremonies. Services were conducted in the Buckley-King chapel at 3 p. m.

Mayor H. Gill of Seattle says he knows there's something he ought to be thankful for today, but he just can't remember what it is.

Having been exempted from selective service, Pete Herman probably will show his patriotism by wearing a red white and blue sash about his fighting trunks.

Manager John Schlarb of the Tacoma telephone system is very much like a baseball umpire who has been influenced by the opposing team to make a rotten decision. He can't do anything but stick by the original ruling.
