LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Murray sells shoes below cost. B. W. Holloway, Watchmaker and Jeweler.

Mr. James Guthrie, of Orcas, was in town Tuesday on business.

Mr. J. A. Gould went to Seattle on business the first of the week.

Mr. Hans Lee, of Shaw Island, was in town Tuesday on business.

Capt. H. H. Hudson, of Shaw Island, was in the Harbor on business Tuesday.

Mr. J. J. Straub, of Coupeville, brother of R. H. Straub, is in the Harbor.

Mr. E. G. Earle, editor and proprietor of the Coupeville Times, was in the city a short time Tuesday.

Mrs. F. N. Culver has been absent for the past week visiting relatives and friends in the Bay Cities and on Orcas Island.

Mr. L. B. Carter, the live and energetic manager of the Blue Front Store, went to Seattle on the Thompson, Tuesday, on a few days business trip.

The three story China house, now being built by Contractor Farnworth for the Island Packing Co., is under way and is well on the road toward completion.

Fifteen Days More.—The San Juan Trading Co's clearance sale still goes on, and fifteen days more are given to their patrons, in which to secure some of the great bargains being offered by them. Remember this sale closes on March 1st. Come now and get a snap.

Mrs. W. P. Holt, who has been seriously ill for some time and who has been in the hospital at Seattle for the purpose of having an operation performed for peritonitis, has so far recovered as to be able to return to her relatives here. She is greatly improved in health and is speedily recovering and gaining strength.

The masquerade ball given in Union Grove hall, San Juan Valley, on Monday evening, Feb. 22nd, was attended by about seventy couples and was very much enjoyed by all. Dancing was kept up all night and the interest of dancers was not allowed to lag for a single moment. Prizes were given as follows: For best ladies' costume, Mrs. Dr. Kelley, and for best gentleman's costume, Dr. Kelley. Miss Nellie Peterson was awarded the prize for sustaining best lady character and Mr. Will Jakles for best gent's character. Messrs Geo. B. Higgins, Newton Jones and Will Oaks acted as judges. Receipts of the evening $35.

Mr. J. M. Rose, of Shaw Island, died at 12 o'clock on Saturday last, of a complication of diseases, and was buried in the Valley cemetery, on Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Mr. Rose was a native of Kentucky, but for many years resided in California. He came to this state in 1889, residing in Port Townsend for a short time, and in 1891 came to this county and took up his residence on Shaw Island, where he made it his home up to the time of his death. He was about 48 years of age and leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss. He was a gentleman of high moral character and was always an energetic and active worker in all he undertook. His family and relatives have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. Wesley Warner, of Lopez, was in Friday Harbor on business Monday, and made this office a friendly call, and informed us that he is about to remove to Seattle where he goes for the purpose of giving his daughters better educational advantages, and also to embark in the commission business. He tells us that he wishes to handle exclusively the products of San Juan county. As Mr. Warner has been a resident of Lopez Island, San Juan county, for over twenty years, and is very much interested in the people here and knowing all the conditions, feels assured that he can be of service to all who will favor him with their patronage. Mr. Warner is so well and favorably known here we bespeak for him an extensive trade with our merchants and people, and wish him the best of prosperity.

Mr. William Moore, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of this county, died at Olga, last Friday, February 19th, 1897, and was buried in Olga cemetery, on Monday, February 22nd, Rev. I. A. Mills officiating. Deceased was born near Greenville, South Carolina, March 30th, 1827, and at the time of death was 77 years of age. While yet quite young his parents removed to Georgia, where he lived until 1851. He then left there for California, where he spent seven years at mining and prospecting, but was never very lucky. He then heard that there were better mines at Cariboo, B. C. and left California for the new gold fields, but never got any further than Hope, B. C. Mr. Moore then came to Puget Sound, where game was plentiful and spent two years or more at hunting deer and small game, selling them in Victoria, and in the latter part of 1880, where he resided until his death. Deceased leaves a widow and nine children.

Mr. J. H. McSorley, of 602 Second Avenue, Seattle, has been making a tour of the county during the past ten days, arranging with our merchants and farmers for their produce for the coming season, and reports that he has thus far been very well pleased with his success and thinks the prospect for a flourishing business is first-class. He will pay cash for all kinds of produce and fruit consigned to him, and will make remittance the day following receipt of goods. He comes highly recommended as a business man and we feel confident that he may be relied upon. The farmers of this county have reason to be a little leary of commission men, as they have been bilked and badly beaten in many instances, but we have reason to believe that such would not be the case here. At any rate, those who have produce to dispose of will do well to consult Mr. McSorley before selling or contracting with other parties.

Mr. Holland is on the sick list and Mr. A. Hamilton is with him doing his work.

Mr. Billrigg, of East Sound, was at West Sound Saturday on business, also Mr. Walton Saturday.

Mr. Jerome Metzler came home from Seattle on the Thompson last week. He reports the hop market very dull.

Quite a number of the West Sound and Deer Harbor folks attended the Camp Fire at East Sound, Monday eve, and report a fine time.

Mr. Marion Fitzhugh went to the county seat last Monday on business. He intends to start for Vancouver as soon as he returns, where he intends to work.

Rev. W. Dickson was called away last Sunday to the funeral of Mr. J. M. Rose, of Shaw Island. For this reason communion services were postponed until a later date.

The Deer Harbor literary, Saturday night was very good and a large attendance was present. Mr. James Fry and others from East Sound were there. The police court scene was very good, the prisoner was a member of the legislature and he was held under bonds to appear before a higher court.

There is nothing that would pay the people of West Sound better than a good hall for general use. At this time there is no public place where the young folks can amuse themselves or for any public gathering of any kind. A place as well populated as the surrounding country and its rich farming and fruit lands should be able to put up something. Do not let the thing drop. Brace up and give it a pull. SCRIBE.

Mr. Wells, mother of Mrs. F. C. Harper, is quite ill.

Mrs. A. Dudley left Monday for Anacortes to visit her son.

Mrs. Martin, of Tacoma, is the guest of the family of I. S. Waldrip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Chalmers returned to East Sound, Friday morning.

Mr. B. King and son Ernest spent several days in Whatcom this week.

Rev. Wm. J. Dickson went to Whatcom, Tuesday, to attend convocation.

Miss Minnie Fry, after spending a week in Whatcom, is again at home.

Rev. Wm. J. Dickson went to Whatcom, Tuesday, to attend convocation.

Miss Minnie Fry, after spending a week in Whatcom, is again at home.

The village improvement society had a very interesting meeting on Friday and active work will soon begin.

Quite a little excitement has been occasioned over the discovery of both gold and silver near East Sound.

Mr. R. Billing and son Charles met with a serious accident last week which might have been much more disastrous while blasting.

The revival services of the M. E. church which have been held during the past week were discontinued on Thursday evening last.

Mrs. A. H. Slier came over from the Harbor to visit her sister Mrs. Wm. J. Dickson and family, on Friday last and returned home yesterday.

The children of the Episcopal Sunday school gave an entertainment on Washington's birthday, which was well attended and much enjoyed.

The Rev. Wm. J. Dickson has been seriously ill for some time past, being unable to attend to his church duties, but is now much improved and able to be out again.

Messrs Harry D. Mahler, of Patos Island and Charles Billings, of East Sound, went to Whatcom, on business connected with the Patos Island lighthouse, this week.

The subject for discussion at the meeting at Library Hall this week is one of much interest to the boys. The entire evening will be devoted to the question of forming a band and boxing club.

The usual meeting held each week at Library hall was attended by a good sized house. The subject, "fish traps" was not discussed, as expected, owing to only the negative side of the question being present.

The raffle for the handsome clock which was conducted by Mr. F. W. Harper was held Saturday evening at Harper, White & Co's. store. Mr. J. Cramer held the lucky number which drew the clock. EAST SOUND.

"The Home Garden."

The catalogue season is at hand, and it is none too early to plan the present year's garden. First in order is the selection of various vegetable seeds.

Peas—Nott's Excelsior for early; Champion of England for late.

Radish—Rosy Gem, or Early Scarlet, Turnip, White Tipped, planted every two weeks, for a succession.

Onions—Yellow Globe, Danvers and Pritzaker.

Cabbage—Early Jersey Wakefield for early; Early Summer, All Season, Succession for intermediate; Autumn King, Lumpton, Danish Ball Head for late.

Beans—Golden Wax, Henderson's Bush Lima, Burke's Bush Lima; these varieties will make succession.

Beets—Eclipse for early; Dewing's Improved Turnip for late.

Cucumber—Most any strains of the White for early or slicing; Thorburn's Everbearing for pickling.

Sweet Corn—Early Fordhook, Cross-bred, Country Gentleman, Evergreen, ready for the table in the order named.

Melons—Musik; Emerald Gem, Nettled Gem, Haekensack, Osage, Champion Market. Water: Hungarian Hot Ice Cream, Dizon, Seminole, Cole's Early.

Squash—Giant Summer Crookneck, Osage Marrow, Hubbard.

Cauliflower—Snowball for both early and late.

Celery—White Plume Self-Blanching for early; Dwarf Golden Heart, Giant Rascal for late fall and winter.

I usually start my tomatoes about the middle of February and early cabbage the last of the month or first of March. They can be started in shallow boxes in the open ground, and when about an inch high transplant to the hotbed or cold frame. The plants should stand not closer than two inches each way. They should be hardened off by gradually giving more ventilation and withholding water a week or so before setting in the open ground.—Dwight Herrick, Rochelle, Ill.

Clover to Destroy Weeds. Farmers who sow clover seed thinly, with the expectation that it will spread so as to fill the vacant spaces, make a great mistake. It will spread, but so slowly that weeds, which abound in the soil, are not crowded out to produce anything, will crowd and stunt it. On the contrary, if the seeds are close enough together, and the soil is in good enough tith and richness to make a clover plant each two or three inches square of space the clover will go very fast, crowding out the annual weeds, like ragweed and charlock.

The Battle for Crimson Clover. We are sorry to see that some are giving up the battle for crimson clover. Crimson clover will pay for itself in a fast season, even though every plant die in the spring. When it forms a thick mat over the soil before Thanksgiving, it has done its full duty. Let us learn to farm so as to feed red clover to stock and crimson clover to the soil. In other words, make the red clover into hay and use the crimson as a winter cover for the soil, to be plowed under in the spring.—Rural New Yorker.
