Stroud, of Deer Harbor, was a passenger on the Thompson, Tuesday enroute to Seattle on a business trip. Mr. L. B. Carter has just received a new line of fine shoes for ladies and gentlemen. Call and see them at the Blue Front.

Mrs. Fred Thompson was a passenger on the steamer Thompson Monday and Tuesday taking a pleasure trip with her husband, Mr. Fred R. Thompson. The steam schooner Nellie Jensen was in port Monday. Report has it that she has been chartered by a Seattle company to make a trip to Alaska this fall. The Island Packing Co.'s steamer Michigan went to the Quilicoe river on Monday for a boom of trap piles used by the company, and returned Wednesday morning. Everyone desires to keep informed on Yukon, the Klondyke and Alaskan gold fields. Send 10c. for large Compendium of vast information and big color map to Hamilton Pub. Co., Indianapolis, Ind. Mr. Calberg, of Port Stanley, who has been employed on the Davis fish trap during the fishing season, was in the city Monday, having returned from a business trip to up-Sound points. We are reliably informed that the Meyers Canning Co., of Seattle, expect to build a cannery in this county next season, probably at some point near Richardson, if a suitable site can be procured. Mr. L. M. Harper, accountant for the Tacoma and Roche Harbor Lime Co. at Roche Harbor, was in town a short time Saturday while enroute to up-Sound points on a business trip. He returned yesterday morning. Mr. John Lawson, of Waldron, who has been employed on one of the salmon traps during the summer has now returned to his home, the fishing season having closed. He was in town on business the first of the week. We understand that Mr. E. Langell, of East Sound, has lost most of his immense prune crop on account of his not having a drier to take care of it, and not being able to get it dried at other driers, all of them having all they could handle of their own.

The bark Menoek finished taking her cargo at the Island Packing Co's plant Tuesday, and is now lying here awaiting orders. She took 21,000 cases here and will require about 14,000 more to complete her load. Her entire cargo is valued at about $100,000. The total receipts from the electionary entertainment given by the ladies of the Christian church last Friday evening were $29.70 and their expenses very light, leaving them a nice balance. Miss DeVoe is entitled to all the praise given her and is a thorough master of her elocutionary work. Miss Louise Culver has been again engaged to teach the Doe Bay school, beginning the first Monday in November. She was not an applicant for the school but it was offered to her by the directors who were very desirous that she should take it. She has taught there every term since the district was organized. If you are in need of fine clothing, shirts, etc., send your order and measure to the well known firm of Irving & Cannon, Merchant Tailors, Room 1 Colonial Block, Second Avenue and Columbia Street, Seattle, Washington. They guarantee a perfect fit and best satisfaction. Place your order now for an overcoat. Miss Aiken, of Point Lawrence returned to her home Wednesday from a week's visit with her nephew, O. H. Culver and family, at Whatcom. She would have returned Monday but for minutes ahead of her advertised time, without any notice to the public, a match to the annoyance and inconvenience of Miss Aiken and many others. The work of drying the prune crop on the Peters farm at East Sound is now completed and they have a large quantity of prunes of very fine fruit. Messrs. Wm. Hambley, of East Sound, and W. O. Clark, of West Sound, have also about completed their seasons drying and their product is of a most excellent quality and will no doubt find a ready market and bring a good price. Tomorrow evening, under the auspices of the Fraternal Union of America, the nautical drama "The Turn of the Tide" will be presented by local talent at Odd Fellows' hall. Those who are to take part have been rehearsing for some time past and promise to give their audience a first-class entertainment. Everyone who can should attend. Admission, adults 25 cents; children 10 cents. We neglected last week to give mention of the "Peak Sisters" Aid of the Presbyterian church. We like to stand time he will attend to such civil and bad term to continue for four days. Persons desiring to obtain their final citizenship papers can do so at that time. E. H. NASH, Clerk.

Ripans Tablets cure headache. Ripans Tablets cure bad breath. MOUNTAIN GLEN, Ark.—Our children were suffering with croup when we received a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It afforded almost instant relief.—F. A. THORNTON. For sale by drug department San Juan Trading Co. EAST SOUND LOCAL NOTES. Mr. E. P. Newhall was in our village a few days last week. Miss Grace Phillips spent Saturday with her parents at Newhall. Mr. and Mrs. Lowman, of Seattle, are at the East Sound house. Orchardists are busily engaged picking apples. Everyone reports a large yield. Mr. James Tullock has shipped up to the present date, 1100 boxes of choice apples. Louise Hastings, daughter of Mr. S. H. Stowers, has been quite ill for the past week. Little Edna Mills, infant daughter to Rev. Ira Mills, fell from a porch and sprained her arm. Mr. Frank Shattuck is putting up a new building and will have it ready for occupancy in a short time. The many friends of Mrs. Luther Sutherland will be glad to hear of her recovery from her late illness. Mrs. Henry O'Neill and children left Friday evening for Whatcom, where they will reside during the winter. Mr. Alexander Chalmers returned to his home at Doe Bay, Saturday, after several days visit with his son Estyn, of this place. Dr. Fred Geoghegan, of Whatcom, arrived home Saturday and will spend a few days on his island visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. H. D. Mahler, after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Billing, returned to her home on Patos, Friday. Some of the miners who went from East Sound to the Cariboo mining country, early last spring, returned home the first of the week. Mr. George McCauley, after spending a number of days at East Sound, the guest of Mr. C. H. Stowers and family, returned to Whatcom the last of the week. Although Rev. Wm. J. Dickson is not now located at East Sound, services have been held at the Episcopal church each Sunday by Messrs. Walton and Williams. Mr. Charles Woods met with a serious accident last week he having the bone of his left thumb broken and the flesh badly lacerated. Dr. Garner amputated the thumb at the first joint and now Mr. Woods is speedily improving. EAST SOUND. A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of a gripe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly. Indeed, it effected a cure and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Caught Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.—The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland. For sale by drug department San Juan Trading Co. Sweeney is now offering the greatest bargain ever heard of in woolen goods which he has just received from the Washington Woolen Mills. NOTICE. We have been appointed agents of the Svea Insurance Co. of Gothenburg, Sweden, and the American Fire Insurance Co., of Philadelphia. Your insurance is solicited. Farm risks a specialty. We will accept note for part of the premium. See us before insuring. NASH & JONES. Those who believe chronic diarrhoea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Grisham, Gaars Mills, La., has to say on the subject, viz: "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found that was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." This medicine can always be depended upon for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by drug department San Juan Trading Co. NOTICE OF SUPERIOR COURT SESSION. Notice is hereby given that Judge J. P. Houser will convene a term of Court for San Juan county at this place, on Monday, October 18th, 1897, at which time he will attend to such civil and bad term to continue for four days. Persons desiring to obtain their final citizenship papers can do so at that time. E. H. NASH, Clerk.
