Because a Republican is sore at the acts of a convention does not justify him in supporting a man who has never possessed a party principle.

When he was a United States senator Turner traduced the American soldiers in the Philippines whenever occasion offered. One of his wild-eyed assertions was that our army had deliberately lined up and shot down 2,000 Filipinos. Is that sort of man worthy of the votes and support of any decent patriotic American citizens?

A. E. Mead didn't demand a fee from Eastern Washington grain growers when he worked for the Anderson bill in the 1893 legislature. Geo. Turner charged $1,000 for appearing at Olympia in 1895 in behalf of the Helm bill. Yet he poses as a friend of the farmer while his personal organ, the Spokesman-Review, traduces Mead.

Geo. Rice, of Marietta, Ohio, has sued the Standard Oil trust for ruining his business. Rice has an oil refinery worth $750,000 which yielded him an annual profit of $50,000. By their control of railroads they were able to discriminate against Rice and force him to the wall, hence the suit. Standard Oil has an attorney in this state who is the Democratic candidate for governor on an anti-trust, regulate-the-railroads platform. But he is not against the Standard Oil trust, nor will he regulate the railroads against their desires, if he is elected.

The ISLANDER is pleased to acknowledge receipt of the first number of the Puget Sound American, published at Bellingham by the owners of the Seattle Times. It is metropolitan in "make-up" and general character and to a newspaper man furnishes convincing evidence, if any were needed, that Bellingham has in very truth become a city. Bellingham is far better represented in the newspaper field now than either Seattle or Tacoma were when their population was no larger, and in fact it may well be questioned if any other city of equal size in the west is as well served in this respect. Mr. Darwin, the resident manager of the American, was for a considerable time prior to 1897 in the employ of the present publisher of the ISLANDER, through whom he secured his position with the Times and his first experience in newspaper work. He is an energetic, capable and honorable young man and the writer has watched with the friendliest interest his rapid progress in his chosen field of labor.

It is expected that Congressman Humphrey will speak here Tuesday evening, the 27th, the day upon which the Republican county convention is to be held. He will probably be the only candidate upon the state ticket to speak here during the campaign. San Juan county is regarded as being so safely Republican that the state committee considers it unnecessary to send many spell binders here to razzle-dazzle our people. We still have a few good old-fashioned Democrats among us, pursuing the even tenor of their way, but it seems a bit like adding insult to injury to ask them "where they are at" since the party went over "body, boots and breeches" to the gold bugs and trust magnates of Wall street. They are free moral agents and reasoning beings and can probably be depended upon to work out their own political salvation in course of time. They may wander in a wilderness of doubt for a while, searching for a new idol to worship, but we may as well do like "Little Bopeep who lost her sheep and didn't know where to find them; Let them alone and they will come home Wagging their tails behind them."

The Bellingham Herald isn't "blowing its own horn" a great deal about what it is doing but it is "getting there just the same." It was the first paper on the Sound north of Seattle to install a linotype machine, and that was only four years ago. A few days ago it installed its third machine and has now contracted for a leased wire news service with the intention of publishing the full report of the Associated Press, the greatest newsgathering association in the world. Col. Blethen made a mistake four years ago when he failed to take advantage of an opportunity offered him to secure a controlling interest in the Herald, carrying with it the control of this valuable press franchise for the city of Bellingham. He is now establishing an 'opposition' daily there at large expense, but he cannot for any amount of money secure for it the news service of the Associated Press, except by purchasing the Herald, which probably is not for sale now.

IF YOU WANT TO KNOW WHAT AILS YOU the U. S. mail will bring you the best medical advice for only the cost of writing materials and stamps.

Many people owe their present good health to the fact that they consulted Dr. Pierce by letter, giving him all possible information about their condition, symptoms, etc., and received in return good medical advice which cost them nothing. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce by no means confines himself to prescribing his well-known medicines. He tells you in the most common-sense way what ails you, what you ought to do, what line of treatment should be followed out in your particular case, and if your case does not indicate the need for this proprietary medicine, he tells you plainly and frankly what you do need, and the best possible method of improving your health. Dr. Pierce treats many chronic cases at a distance, through the mail, and all you have to do is to write him your symptoms. "During my two years of married life I have not had good health," writes Mrs. Daisy Studdard, of 608 S. Esplanade Avenue, Leavenworth, Kans. "I was all run-down, and my husband got me to write to Dr. Pierce. I got an early reply telling me what the trouble was. I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and also the 'Pleasant Pellets,' and now can say that I feel like a new woman. I do all my work and do not feel tired out like I used to. I have taken eight bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription.' It makes one feel well and strong." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure dizziness and sick headache.
