Michael Adams, who has been seriously ill for some time, has gone to Bellingham where Dr. Reed will call a consultation of physicians.

Those who heard Mrs. Kip's beautiful contralto solo last Sunday evening will be pleased to learn that she will sing again on next Sunday.

Real estate has been very active in East Sound this spring. Among recent sales are Ephraim Langell's prune orchard to L. D. Pike, and the Stowers property, occupied by the post office, also to Mr. Pike.

Through an inadvertence the name of Howard Wilson was omitted from the report of the musicale given by the Madrona club last week. Mr. Wilson gave a beautiful rendition of "For All Eternity," and in response to an encore sang "Kentucky Babe," by request.

Complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. John T. Whiteley, who returned from their wedding trip on Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cramer were at home to their friends on Thursday evening. A delightful evening was passed and at midnight a buffet supper was served.

After being closed for a number of years, the pretty little Episcopal church at this place has been opened for regular service, with Dr. Reed as lay reader and Mrs. Chas. E. Woods, organist. A very good choir will be in attendance and an effort will be made each Sunday to have a solo by one of its members. Services will be held at eleven o'clock in the morning and at eight o'clock in the evening.
