The launch Osprey brought a crowd from Anacortes and Pt. Stanley to the dance Saturday, returning on Sunday to Pt. Stanley.

Mr. Stafford with his sons, John and Jimmie, and Mr. Yeager were in port with their launch Monday on their way to Dolphin Bay.

The steamer Mabey with Wm. Viereck as skipper brought a party from Decatur to the Saturday evening dance, returning via Guemes and Anacortes with passengers for those points. He was carefully carried to the camp and a doctor sent for. He was injured around the head, chest and one arm, but if no complications set in, will be able to get to work again in two or three weeks.

Oscar Viereck, of the well known pioneer family of this place, had a narrow escape from death at Wilson's logging camp on Guemes island, April 15. He was working near the donkey engine when in some manner the cable that hauls the logs slipped and one of the large hooks struck Viereck on the arm and chest, knocking him senseless. The cable coiled around his body like a snake and dragged him for several yards before anything could be done to help him.

—Our friends from Bellingham say they have tried the new "QUALITY" Flour, made by the Bellingham Flour Mills Co. and find it to be most excellent. It is fine of texture and very springy, rises quickly and makes a light, delicious loaf. These qualities make it exceptionally good for pastry.

The Ladies Helping Hand society met Friday afternoon, April 10, with Mrs. Henry Glossop. There was a good attendance, several gentlemen coming for dinner. Mrs. Glossop furnished an excellent dinner, being so far above the standard permitted by the society that the ladies found it necessary to fine her for setting a dangerous precedent.

The death of Ernest Jones was a great shock to this community, no word having been received by his relatives here that he was ill. A large number of the people of Shaw island attended his funeral at Friday Harbor and the Valley cemetery, where he was laid to rest beside his parents. Further notice of his life and death will be found on the first page of this paper.

"A precious one from us has gone.
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon His Love has given;
And though the body moulders here,
The soul is safe in Heaven."
