

DENTAL WORK

May cost too much or be too cheap to carry quality. We make a moderate charge for strictly first-class service; our operations are as nearly painless as perfect equipment and modern methods can make them, and we guarantee the work absolutely.

HIGH GRADE PLATES $ 7.00
$ 8.50
$10.00

Painless extracting.....$ .50
Gold fillings.....$1.00 up
Bridge work.....$5.00 up
22 pt. gold crowns, $5.00 $6.00

EXAMINATION FREE OF CHARGE

WHATCOM DENTAL PARLORS
CLOVER BLOCK
BELLINGHAM, - WASH.

We Pay Your Fare

TO BELLINGHAM
and offer you the lowest prices for the highest grade of

DENTAL WORK
GUARANTEED TEN YEARS

Full Sets of Teeth.....$5.00
Partial Sets from.....$3.50 up
Silver Fillings.....50c
Cement Fillings.....50c
Platinum Fillings.....$1.00
Gold Crowns.....$2.50 to $5.00
Bridge Work.....$5.00

New York Dental Parlors
Incorporated
Dr. O. C. Gilbert and Specialists
Sunset Block
Cor. Elk and Holly Sts., Bellingham

COMMERCIAL HOTEL

211 East Holly St., near Elk Street
BELLINGHAM

Newly furnished, steam heated modern rooms. In heart of retail district and close to theaters. A well conducted house run by experienced people. Rates 50 cents and up. Transient trade solicited. This is about the most convenient stopping place for you in town.

Mrs. Harry Whipple, Prop.

I. W. HARPER KENTUCKY WHISKEY

For Gentlemen who cherish Quality.

For Sale By JOHN DOUGLAS

MT. CONSTITUTION INN

Formerly East Sound House, East Sound, Wn., has been repapered, refurnished, and a large living room added. The repairs and additions are completed and the house is now ready for guests. Prices, ten dollars per week, children half rate.

BUSINESS NOTICE

Having sold my grocery stock and business to G. A. Tulloch and retired from that branch of trade, I desire the prompt and full settlement of all accounts due me in order that I may meet my own obligations. Thanking all of my grocery customers for their long continued patronage, I will be especially grateful if those who are indebted to me will call upon me as soon as possible and settle their accounts.

G. B. DRIGGS.
Friday Harbor, Aug. 5.

San Juan

Area 254 Sq Miles

Island

Pop. 1550

Howard Shull has returned from a visit at the Seattle Fair.

—You can't miss it by using Quality flour.

Miss Jean McLachlan has gone to Lopez Island where she will visit with friends.

John Tempin came in on the Rosalie from Seattle on a business trip Wednesday.

Arnold and Peter Kirk, of Roche Harbor, were in town on business on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Galbraith will leave tomorrow for Seattle to spend a week at the Fair.

D. C. Lewis, an attorney of Bellingham, came in on the Yankee Doodle on Wednesday evening.

The Western Mills and Lumber Company have shipped large quantities of melon crates this week.

Judge Joiner came over from Anacortes on the Islander on Tuesday to hold the regular term of court.

Miss Lettie Todd and Miss Sadie Todd expect to leave next Tuesday for a visit at the Fair at Seattle.

The Master Mason's degree was conferred upon J. S. Groll and Chris. Fredrickson in San Juan lodge Wednesday evening.

Joe Dunson spent several days in town this week. He is still endeavoring to have the post office established at Smith Island.

T. R. Ramsden, who has been in Bellingham for several days on business, returned home on Monday afternoon on the Islander.

Professor F. F. Joubert, of Enumclaw, former principal of the public school of Friday Harbor spent Monday here with his family.

—FOR SALE—Good work horse, weight 1350 pounds. Will work single or double. Price $125.00. John Douglas, Friday Harbor.

Mrs. Fred Lighthouse is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Gross, and two sisters, Miss Buchla and Janie Gross, of Seattle, for a few days.

Rev. Robert Irwin, a former pastor of the Presbyterian church here, is now pastor of the University Mound Presbyterian church at San Francisco.

H. A. Chadwick, owner and editor of the Seattle Argus, came into port on Saturday evening with a party of friends on his beautiful gasoline launch Wastena.

Lee McEuen, of the Islander force, expects to leave tomorrow for Chilli-wack, B. C., where he will visit his father for a few days and then go to Seattle to visit the Fair.

The revenue cutter Guard, Captain Woolford, is laid up here for repairs and a general overhauling. She is having all the old paints burned off and a new coat applied.

J. G. Smedburg and John Bergman of West Sound, with Charles Larson of Orcas, left on the Rosalie on Saturday for Seattle to be present on Swedish Day at the Fair.

300 feet of the lead at the Mitchell bay trap was washed out by the heavy tides on Tuesday. Pile drivers were put to work at once, and the trap will resume fishing today.

The transfer of the Bugge realty and business interests here to the San Juan Agricultural Co., reported in the Islander last week as pending, was concluded on Friday.

Lena Stroud, who has been living with her sister, Mrs. Glenn Tulloch, for the past few months, spent Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stroud, at East Sound.

—Do you want to buy a good house and lot in Friday Harbor? We have one. Also a house for rent close in. E. H. Nash & Co.

J. F. Gallagher and Mrs. Gallagher, of Walla Walla, came into Friday Harbor on Wednesday evening. They expect to buy a home here and become permanent residents of San Juan County.

Mrs. John Cramer, of East Sound, was a visitor in town Saturday, coming as far as Friday Harbor with her friends Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Wright, who left on the Rosalie for their home at York, Nebraska.

Misses Kathleen, Helen, and Margaret Delaney, of Seattle, are visiting Mrs. Sweeney and Miss Nellie Sweeney. The little girls are daughters of the late Thomas Delaney, who for a number of years was Chief of the Seattle police.

William Trimble has returned from a trip to Spokane.

John Taylor has returned from a trip to Eastern Washington.

The Yale made a special trip over from East Sound on Wednesday evening.

Joe Lachapelle has returned from a business trip to Eastern Washington.

Wm. Fowle and two daughters returned on Tuesday from a visit at the Fair.

A game of base ball is scheduled at an early date between the firemen and the band boys.

Mrs. J. C. Myers came in on the Yankee Doodle from East Sound on Tuesday evening.

George E. Gandy, of East Sound, was a Friday Harbor visitor on Wednesday evening.

The steamer Roche Harbor was in port on Tuesday to bring a scow load of water for the cannery.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter and daughter Della are at home again after spending a short time at the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McKenzie have gone to Seattle for a week's visit with friends and to attend the Fair.

Mrs. William Worthington was called to Seattle on Saturday by the serious illness of her daughter.

A. H. Stevens, of Portland, Ore., will arrive in a few days to visit relatives and friends at Friday Harbor.

A. J. Hill and James McGregor were at Friday Harbor attending to some legal matters during the session of court.

Mrs. S. M. Bugge and her guest, Miss Bugge, of Hoffman, Minnesota, left on Tuesday for a short visit with friends at Anacortes and Bellingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Payton Reddick, Arthur Reddick and Christina Nicoll, of East Sound, passed through Friday Harbor on Tuesday enroute to Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith, of Anacortes, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Claghorn. Mr. Smith is Immigration Inspector at the port of Anacortes.

A number of Odd Fellows took their final degrees at their meeting on Saturday evening. At the conclusion of the ceremonies, the Daughters of Rebekah gave the men a delightful surprise in the shape of a fine spread.

Samuel Hemphill met with a serious accident on Sunday while driving a young colt. The horse ran away, throwing the young man to the ground, breaking his collar bone and inflicting painful bruises.

The young people of District 22 have organized a society to be known as the "District Boosters." The purposes of the society are for literary and social advancement, and the meetings are held every two weeks.

The yachts Intrepid, L. Jewitt, master, and Verona, D. E. Johnston, master, of the Vancouver, B. C. Yacht Club, came into port on Tuesday evening, remaining until Thursday morning. During their stay they entertained several parties of friends on board.

The base ball team will play at Edison on Sunday, leaving here on the launches Edna and Fram at 6:30 in the morning. The early start is necessary in order to take advantage of the tide. The fare for the round trip will be 75 cents.

James King will race his little gray mare at Edison on Sunday against the same horse that ran here on the Fourth of July, when the claim was made that the race was thrown. Mr. King will put his own jockey up this time, so that his entry will have fair play.

The Sidney base ball team were unable to reach Friday Harbor on Sunday on account of rough water. They left their home port at eight o'clock in the morning, but were compelled to turn back, and reached Sidney at six o'clock in the evening, after spending a disagreeable day in the Straits.

Senator and Mrs. Blair returned Thursday morning from a visit to the exposition and from the G. A. R. reunion at Anacortes. Like all other visitors to the great fair Mrs. Blair enjoyed it greatly. It was not the senator's first visit, his trip this time having been especially to attend the reception to Governor Hughes, of New York, the senator's native state.

Joseph Thornton, of Lopez, was in town on Tuesday.

Thomas Bell, of Port Stanley, was in town on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ackley are spending the week in Seattle.

L. A. Borchers, of Stuart Island, spent Tuesday in Friday Harbor.

Luther Kimple, of East Sound, was a Friday Harbor visitor on Saturday.

—Quality flour is guaranteed to stand every test. Try a sack.

William Laplant, of West Sound, came over to town on business on Monday.

Miss Emma Nichols is suffering from a severe case of fish poisoning in her hand.

George Walrod and Mrs. Walrod have returned from a few days' visit at Bellingham.

O. E. Abrams, a prominent attorney of Bellingham, was in town on business, Saturday.

F. P. Christensen returned on the Islander on Monday from a visit with friends at Bellingham.

E. S. Pease and family have returned from a two weeks' visit with friends in Skagit county.

Mrs. G. B. Driggs will entertain the Ladies' Guild on Wednesday, August 11, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. C. B. Dinius, of Seattle, arrived on Monday for a short visit with her cousin, E. H. Claghorn.

Charles McNally of Lopez, is put in the masonry at the new home being built by P. E. Peterson, at Ar-gyle.

—FOR SALE—Leather go-cart, practically new. Inquire of Mrs. J. W. Geoghegan, Friday Harbor.

Enoch Coffelt, of Richardson, and Miss Nina Claw ey, of Lopez, were married at Victoria, B. C., on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Breedlove returned on Monday from Seattle where they have been spending some time at the Fair.

Ray Madden left on the Islander for a few days' stay at Anacortes and Seattle. He expects to return next week.

Attorney R. E. Morris entertained his friend, C. A. Clement, of Seattle, for a few days during the past week.

Mrs. Darcy Andrew came over from Bellingham on Monday, having legal matters to attend to at this term of court.

Henry S. Gilbert and John W. Geoghegan, publishers of the Burlington Journal, were in town for a few hours on Sunday.

George Crawford, vice president of the Home Security bank, of Bellingham, was in town on Saturday attending to some business matters.

Mrs. Samuel Collyer, of Seattle, was a passenger on the Rosalie Monday, making the round trip through the islands with a party of friends.

The City of Anacortes took a party of excursionists on a short cruise on Sunday evening. The affair was for the benefit of the San Juan Military Band.

Judge Joiner issued a number of permits during his stay at Friday Harbor to children under 14 years of age to allow them to work at the cannery during the school vacation.

SAN JUAN VALLEY

Victor Frank returned Monday from a visit at the fair at Seattle.

Jos. Lachapelle returned Wednesday from a visit to Eastern Washington.

Ray Madden went to Seattle on Monday to spend a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Peterson returned on Monday from a visit at the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Bailor left on Wednesday morning for a visit to the exposition.

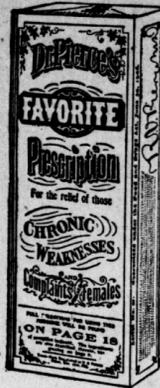

Miss Myrtle Hemphill went to Seattle on the Rosalie on Tuesday to spend a few days at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Ackley left Tuesday for a visit with friends in Seattle. They will also visit the Fair before they return.

Mrs. J. Dougherty, Jr., Mrs. J. Stoddart and Miss K. Dougherty returned Monday from a visit to Bellingham and Seattle and the A. Y. P. Exposition.

Wood for Sale

Good alder and second growth fir cordwood delivered anywhere within the city limits for $2.75 per cord. Warren Dightman.

Honored by Women

When a woman speaks of her silent secret suffering she trusts you. Millions have bestowed this mark of confidence on Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. Everywhere there are women who bear witness to the wonder-working, curing-power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—which saves the suffering sex from pain, and successfully grapples with woman's weaknesses and stubborn ills.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG IT MAKES SICK WOMEN WELL.

No woman's appeal was ever misdirected or her confidence misplaced when she wrote for advice, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets induce mild natural bowel movement once a day.

DECATUR

Nels Person is taking in the Fair this week.

Mrs. William Hunton made a short trip to Anacortes, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Maggie Mitchell, of Port Stanley, is now cooking in the yard camp.

Frank Edlin, of Anacortes, called at the yard on Wednesday in his launch Ray.

Mrs. J. M. Reed and sister, Mrs. N. P. Lane were guests at the Reed home on Tuesday.

William Parker and Roy Harmon have finished skidding a road and expect to get out a number of logs this month.

Reed Brothers are unusually rushed with work at their yard at present, and they have a large force of men employed.

Frank Wilson, Wiley Perry, Sol and Norman Blake made a flying trip to Anacortes on Saturday in the launch Freddie.

Mrs. Mary Reed and daughters Margaret and Jessie, were the guests of Mrs. Thomas and daughter Ellen, on Blakeley island on Friday.

Mrs. J. T. Jones and family, and Miss Caring Peterson, were the guests of the Mesdames Thomas and Jones, at Thomas Jones' home on Blakeley island on Tuesday.

Miss Ellen Thomas, and her cousin, Thomas Jones, of Seattle, who for the past two weeks have been visiting their cousin, Thomas Jones, on Blakeley island, called on friends here Tuesday.

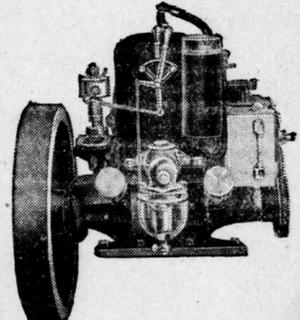

A number of people from here report an enjoyable trip to Olga, last Sunday in the launch Freddie. The party consisted of Caring Peterson, Miss Jessie Reed, Miss Katie Krider, William Reed, Jesse Frank, Carl Flodin, and Wiley Perry.

Messrs Armstrong and Shannon, of Anacortes, came over and organized a Sunday School, July 24. The officers are Mrs. A. N. Stewart, snpt., and Miss Jessie Reed, secretary. The teachers are Mrs. L. Howell, Miss Caring Peterson and Miss Mary Howell.

Misses Margaret and Jessie Reed were hostesses of a pleasant little party on Thursday afternoon in honor of their nephew, little Edwin Parker, the occasion being his second birthday. Carnations and ferns were used for decorations. Thirty-two guests were entertained at dinner, after which the evening was spent most enjoyably in playing games.

—We have another house for rent, a little further out. Three rooms and large pantry. Unfurnished. E. H. Nash & Co.

Gray Motors

Pacific Electric Co.
Port Townsend, Wash.

Agents for San Juan County. Write for Catalogue

FOR SALE

Full Blood Oxford-down Buck Lambs, Registered. Cut shows 3 1/2 months old lamb. Weight 120 pounds.

Address
Alfred Lawson
Friday Harbor, Washington

Friday Harbor Hardware

ROSS W. TULLOCH, Prop.

Heavy and Shelf Hardware, Graniteware, Tin-ware, Pipe and Pipe Fittings, Brass Goods and Electrical Supplies.

Launch Supplies a Specialty

Ross Block, Opposite the Bank Building

Glenn A. Tulloch GROCERIES

The Best and Freshest Stock in the County. A Trial Will Convince You. Free Delivery to Any Part of the Town.

Ross Block

Friday Harbor