The new base ball team gave a very successful dance last Saturday. There was a goodly number at the hall and the light fantastic went pretty lively all the time. The supper was served by the ladies of the W. I. I. and was much appreciated.

Mr. McLennan has the finest strawberry patch in this vicinity. It is enough to make one's mouth water to go by the fence and see the bloom. It promises fair for strawberry festivals in the near future. It is hoped that at the next W. I. I. dance they will be able to serve strawberries and cream to the warm and tired dancers.

Mrs. J. G. Curry has joined her husband in his new home near Kamloops, B. C. Everyone wishes them the best success in their new location. Many of the Orcas people are looking with rather longing eyes toward the B. C. district since Mr. Curry has been there and reports so favorably concerning the locality. Far-off fields look GREEN. A rolling stone gathers no moss but it gets lots of experience and hard bumps. If you have no faith in the old adage, try it for yourselves.

JACK AND THE BEANSTALK, AN OPERETTA IN FOUR ACTS

Jack and the Beanstalk, an operetta in four acts, will be given by the pupils of the West Sound school, assisted by the pupils of the Deer Harbor and Orcas schools, at Woodmen hall, West Sound, Thursday evening, June 2, at Odd Fellows' hall, Friday Harbor, Friday evening, June 3, and at Woodmen hall, Lopez, Saturday evening, June 4.

The music throughout is exceptionally good, and the choruses promise to be well rendered by fifty children's voices. The West Sound orchestra will furnish music between the acts. Following is the argument:

The operetta is founded on the old story of "Jack and the Beanstalk." Jack's mother is very poor and they are obliged to sell their cow.

Jack sells the cow to a butcher for some beans, which the butcher persuades him to believe will bring him some money. Jack's mother throws the beans away, but they take root and grow in a single night. A fairy appears who tells Jack about the giant, his gold and his wonderful hen which lays golden eggs. She claims that the hen once belonged to Jack's father, but was stolen by the giant, and urges Jack to climb the beanstalk and go to the castle for it. Jack does so, enters the castle, is hidden by the giant's wife, and when the giant is about to discover his presence, calls for the fairy, who at once appears and charms the giant, while Jack runs off with the hen.

Jack cuts down the beanstalk when he reaches the foot, and he and his mother live "in peace and plenty" ever after. A party of Jack's playmates appears several times on the scene.

Following is the cast of characters:

Jack, Louis Johnson
Jack's mother, Ruth Van Bogaert
Giant, Alphonse Van Cromphaut
Madam Giant, Carrie Staggs
Fairy, Rebecca Armstrong
Butcher, Paul Chase
Jennie, Leola Sanders
Fannie, Hazel Chase
Dick, Henry Boede.

Admission, reserved seats, 35 cents, general admission 25 cents, children 15 cents. Tickets on sale at Friday Harbor Drug Company, Lopez store and Richardson store.

If your Stomach, Heart or Kidneys are weak, try at least a few doses only, of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. In five or ten days only, the result will surprise you. A few cents will cover the cost. And here is why help comes so quickly. Dr. Shoop doesn't drug the stomach, or stimulate the heart or kidneys. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to the weak and failing nerves. Each organ has its own controlling nerve. When these nerves fail, the depending organs must of necessity fail. This plain, yet vital truth, clearly tells why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is so universally successful. Its success is leading druggists everywhere to give it universal preference. A test will surely tell. Sold by Friday Harbor Drug Company.
