Death of A. E. Pffner

The funeral of A. E. Pffner, who died Saturday after a brief illness, from an attack of pneumonia, occurred Monday. No public funeral was held, but leaving the home at one o'clock, the remains were taken to the Catholic cemetery, where the last rites were performed by John Doyle. We understand Mr. Pffner was a member of both the Workman and Woodman lodges and carried considerable insurance in each. Quite a delegation of lodge members attended. Relatives from a distance were in attendance. Mrs. Pffner and the two daughters who survive him, have the sympathy of the community in the loss of a kind husband and father. In his death San Juan county loses a good citizen.

The Teachers' Meeting

The county teachers' meeting last Friday and Saturday was considered of exceptional interest and profit. Friday evening the Friday Harbor teachers entertained those from a distance at an informal reception at the residence of Mr. Ed. Allen. An enjoyable evening and a closer and better acquaintance was the result.

For nicely furnished rooms go to the Maple House. Prices reasonable.

Glenn Tulloch leaves

Glenn A. Tulloch, a resident of Friday Harbor, and in business here for several years, and a resident of the county most of his life, having been born at East Sound, left Tuesday with the expectation of taking up his residence in Oregon. He will stop at East Sound to visit his children, relatives and friends, and probably be in Seattle with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Tulloch, of Rainier Beach, for a week or two.

Special Meetings

Special meetings are being held at the Methodist church this week. The interest manifested is not as great as Pastor Graham would like, though the services have been a source of help and strength to those who have attended. Rev. Graham is a very pleasant speaker, and his efforts at creating greater religious sentiment in the community and a desire for more regular church attendance on the part of citizens generally, is deserving of success.

MILLINERY OPENING

Mrs. P. Barene, who has purchased the millinery business of Mrs. Loyal B. Larson, announces an opening for March 20, 21 and 22. The display of spring hats—trimmed and tailored—for ladies and children—will be unusually pleasing, and the prices are sure to attract. Mrs. Larson will be with Mrs. Barene on these opening days and until after Easter and will be pleased to meet all her old friends.

Council Meeting

At the council meeting Tuesday evening the water proposition, voted on last week, was discussed, and though no special action was taken, the members familiarized themselves with the situation so as to be prepared for action when opportunity offered.

The right-of-way committee which was appointed, reported that they had interviewed land-owners along the route, and found no opposition.

A motion was carried that the city purchase what remained of the old electric light plant, provided Mr. Cueny would accept the price at which it had been offered—$350.

After some routine business, allowing of bills, etc., the meeting adjourned.

If you have trouble in getting rid of your cold you may know that you are not treating it properly. There is no reason why a cold should hang on for weeks and it will not if you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by Friday Harbor Drug Co.

Killed By a Fall

News reached here Sunday that Frank Miller, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fleming, of Kanaka bay had received such serious injury from a fall at Seattle the day before that he did not survive. The family left here on the Anacortes Monday morning to attend the funeral. Mr. Miller fell from the third floor to the basement of the Wintonia hotel, breaking nearly every bone in his body and cracking his skull. He lived two hours. He was route loss of the Pure Milk dairy and was delivering a rush order for a can of milk, because all the drivers were away at the time. He was descending the stairs, and fell down the shaft between the stairs, striking the cement basement three floors below. He leaves a wife and a 9-months old baby.

The New Store

The grocery stocks recently purchased by John Douglas are now on sale, and Mr. Douglas says that the prices he is offering them at will reduce them pretty fast. It will pay the economical buyer to call at the new store.

A Spirited Runaway

When starting for a trip to the country with a rig from the Dightman livery, Wednesday afternoon, the horses became unmanageable because of the tugs becoming unfastened, and when turning the corner at the Islander office, the occupants, Mrs. Hatch, Miss Bertha Hatch, Mrs. Jas. McKay and Will Archambault, were thrown out, the rig upset, and the horses kept on up the street. No serious injury to vehicle, horses or people resulted. The horses circled around several blocks and were stopped exactly where they started. Miss Hatch sustained a slight bruise over the left eye.

Now is the time to order your printing done. Don't wait until you are all out, or then you may have to wait. "Come early and avoid the rush". DO IT NOW.
