Entertainment Committee

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement club last week there was little done except to make sure that some good entertainments be provided for future meetings of the club. This was done by selecting the exceptionally strong "Program, Entertainment and Literary Committee," as follows: L. J. Bowler, Chairman; Mrs. G. B. Driggs, Mrs. Gene C. Gould, Mrs. Ida H. Blaine, J. A. McCormick, F. E. Kirby, and Rev. J. E. Nelson. At the next meeting of the club, which will be Monday, March 3, the new committee will likely have something provided which will be worth while.

Working Under Difficulties

This number of the Islander is edited and issued under difficulties. The drug company is remodeling the room which we occupy, and three carpenters, a painter and a paper-larger have been making all the noise and muss which such people know how to make when real busy. And to add zest to the confusion it was necessary for us to print the minstrel four-page program and the sixteen-page school magazine this week. While we are not making special apologies for lack of anything, the situation is so strenuous as to be at least worth mentioning.

Picture of Friday Harbor

Union Services

Rev. E. S. Chappell of the Washington Children's Home Society, will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning, and at the Presbyterian church in the evening. These services will be in the nature of union services, both congregations uniting both morning and evening. Sunday schools, League and Endeavor services will be held at the usual hours.

Death of Wm. Malcom

Wm. Malcom, who has been a sufferer for a long time with asthma and heart trouble, and who has been confined to his bed for a time died Sunday morning at the family home in this city.

Mr. Malcom was born 77 years ago at Clinton, Kennebec county, Maine. He came to this section about fifteen years ago, living at the north end near Mitchell bay for some years before moving to Friday Harbor. Mr. Malcom's former occupation was that of a mill man, but after coming off their ranch here had lived more or less quietly, but generally busy at something. He was of a kindly disposition and esteemed by those who knew him best. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church at 1:30 Monday, Rev. Walker officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the Valley cemetery. He is survived by his wife, one son Chas. Malcom, and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Geo. Coffelt.

James D. Gore Dies

Undertaker Harpst was called to Orcas the first of the week to embalm the body of James D. Gore, who died there Monday. A heavy steel casket was furnished. Mr. Gore was 57 years old. The remains were taken to Seattle by the family to be buried.

Pictures for Saturday Night

The following titles indicate that some good pictures will be shown Saturday night at the Star Theatre, in addition to the illustrated song: "Cowboy Pies," "Mother Love," "The Burglar's Dog" and "Scenes in Manila."

Base Ball Meeting

There is call for a meeting Monday evening at the Star theatre for all who are interested in having a base ball team here this summer. Most of last year's team are still in the city, and there appears no reason why we should not have a good strong team again. Come out and talk the matter over, so that organization and practice may begin early. Be on hand at eight o'clock.

Tends to Complicate Matters

About the first of the month the Henry Cowell Lime & Cement Co., who are contesting the right of the city of Friday Harbor to use the water from Trout lake, filed a claim with the county auditor, which may complicate the situation somewhat in case the matter continues in the courts. The filing in effect reads as follows: "I, the undersigned, do hereby appropriate and claim the water lying, being and flowing in Trout lake to the extent of 10 cubic feet per second of time, for the purpose of irrigating the lands lying below and to furnish power for the manufacture of electricity to be furnished to the inhabitants of San Juan island and the inhabitants of Friday Harbor, and to supply the inhabitants of said island and town with water for domestic purposes." It is signed by the Henry Cowell Lime & Cement Co., by C. Coghlan, agent.

The forms of this issue of the Islander were closed too early to make mention of the minstrel performance, but we know "it's a bear." Every seat was sold—about 425, and as they were 50c. each, the receipts were well over $200.

John Cousins of Bellingham has been in this section for a few days. Mr. Cousins has a couple of hundred acres of land on Lopez island, some of which he is about to sell. He purchased five milk cows while here—three to go to Bellingham and two for his place on Lopez.

The funeral of C. H. Sutton, who died in California, was held at the Valley church Sunday, and the remains interred in the cemetery there. Rev. Nelson delivered the discourse at the church and the Masonic fraternity, of which Mr. Sutton was a beloved member, had charge of the services at the grave.

Frank C. Vining, Jr., of Seattle, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Vining, who have a strawberry and vegetable garden near Jones' lagoon, arrived here last week to remain for some time. Mr. Vining as an experienced carpenter and has just finished a series of houses in one of Seattle's growing additions. He will seek work in this community.
