

George Rusch has resigned his position as cashier at the Lee cafe.

Elmer J. Mullan, a business man of Marcus, was a Colville visitor Tuesday.

Mr. Foster of Ione was a Colville caller Wednesday, reporting eighteen inches of snow in the hills near Ione.

Miss Inez Fenn has returned to her home three miles east of town after assisting several weeks at the Lee cafe.

James Lewis of Orin, who has been critically ill at the hospital for two months with typhoid fever, is now improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Burdsal will leave tomorrow night for Chicago, their former home, to remain three or four weeks.

Mr. Baughman of the Basin arrived at the hospital Wednesday and was operated upon by Dr. Peck. He is reported as doing nicely.

Matt Friederichs of North Dakota, who had been working at Kettle Falls and was brought to the hospital a month ago, is slowly improving from his siege of pneumonia.

Fred Horton of Spokane was in town Thursday investigating real estate, which he contemplates purchasing in this county. He spent part of the day in conference with C. A. Hunt.

Swan Johnson, a patient at the Harvey hospital for the past year, being treated for paralysis, is showing signs of improvement and predictions are that he will be able to walk in five or six months.

Miss Mamie Ely of Portland, sister of Mrs. Garland Dorman, who has been in the hospital for five weeks, is now able to leave and will finish the visit with her sister while gaining sufficient strength to travel.

Wm. W. Fee of Grand Forks, B. C., and Lillian May Galloway of Republic were married at the Lee hotel Wednesday afternoon by Justice W. L. Terry. They will reside at Grand Forks where Mr. Lee is a butcher.

Contract was let this week to Jones & Dillingham of Spokane for art glass for the new Christian church, the same to cost approximately $375. The building is being pushed to completion, the heating plant being finished now.

C. L. Johnson of Casper, Cal., and Ethel Locke of Grand Island, Nebr., were married Thursday at 3 p. m. in the commissioners' room at the court house by Rev. G. H. Wilbur. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Locke, lives at Chewelah. The couple will make their home in Casper.

The Williams Jubilee Singers appeared before a pleased audience Tuesday evening at the opera house and through a canceled date at Republic were retained for another entertainment Wednesday night. They received many encomiums for the splendid music rendered at both occasions.

Elmer L. Goodwin and Flora H. McArthur, both of Addy, were married Thursday at 4 p. m. at the Congregational parsonage by Rev. G. H. Wilbur. Their home will be near Addy, where Mr. Goodwin owns a farm. The bridesmaid of the occasion was Miss Gertrude Goodwin, with Mr. Sidley as best man.

Colville Chapter No. 57, Order of the Eastern Star, held annual election of officers Thursday evening, with the following result: Worthy matron, Mrs. Hattie Jesseph; worthy patron, Henry R. Spedden; associate matron, Mrs. Flora Jesseph; secretary, Mrs. Margaret Reid; treasurer, Miss Edith Acorn; conductress, Miss Osa Brouillet; associate conductress, Mrs. Jean Alice Grinstead. Installation will be in January.

Bell & McFarland, of the Colville Land Co., have sold the Henry Dorne place in Spanish Prairie to Gus Moe, recently from Harvey, N. D., for $10,000. The farm contains 320 acres, half of which is timber and the other half meadow land. This is the third time this firm has sold this tract of land within a year, the first time for $5,000, the second time for $6,500, and finally for $10,000, each purchaser enjoying the satisfaction of a bargain.

The Colville Bachelors' Club was entertained at the Lee Cafe Monday evening at eight o'clock by Bliss Phillips, who was about to break his allegiance to the club by deserting the ranks of the benedicts. Covers were laid for 20, and a royal time was enjoyed, with toasts and remarks of congratulation and condolence. The club was instituted Oct. 1, with vows from the following young men that should any one be married within a period of eight months from that date, he should furnish the spread for the club, with nothing less than plates at $3 each: Charles Adams, Lon Johnson, R. M. Thomas, C. A. Heberling, Chas. A. Hunt, J. E. Mason, W. C. Spedden, Bliss Phillips, C. Elmer Peterson, H. Wade Bailey, Henry R. Spedden, H. T. Grimm, F. L. Townsend, T. L. Montgomery. At the banquet W. M. Manning, Henry Lambert, George K. Armstrong, L. M. McFarland and I. D. Sill were adopted into the ranks of blessed single life. Prognostications regarding the next probable deserter were made in plenty, but W. C. Spedden's prophecy was the only one which appeared to warrant due credence.

Kelly's for fine dishes.