

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Yanish Tuesday morning.

N. M. Williams of Marcus was in town Monday renewing his license.

S. L. Wait, editor of the Kettle Falls Tribune, was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

The Bennett & Walgamott orchestra will play for dances at Marcus next Tuesday and at Kettle Falls on Thursday.

Miss Maud Cameron and Grover Graham have returned for the holiday vacation from their school work at Pullman.

Mrs. Catherine Thomas, who suffered the injury of a broken leg last week, is improving nicely despite her age of 83 years.

Mrs. R. T. Wynne and son arrived Tuesday from Hedley, B. C., to remain in Colville this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Wynne left Colville four years ago, this being their old home.

This week has seen some good skating in the valley, and many of the young people have taken advantage of it, the moonlit evenings and good weather making this sport very enjoyable.

Ralph Goetter returned Thursday evening from his work in the sophomore year at Gonzaga college, Spokane. Ian Grant returned the same evening from his first year's work in this excellent school.

William Buckley, the auctioneer and second-hand man, has branched out in a business line and is now carrying a line of first-hand goods which includes cigars, tobacco and fresh confectionery, in his store building on Main street.

D. Daniels of Seattle arrived Monday for a visit with his son, W. M. Daniels. He is connected with the Puget Sound Detective Agency, the oldest on the coast, which works in connection with the government emigration and customs officials.

On Jan. 7 Rev. H. E. Crowell, late professor of biblical history in Moody's Bible Institute at Northfield, Mass., will begin a series of bible readings and special prayer services in the Baptist church to last during the remainder of the week.

W. H. McClure of Spokane, assistant district superintendent of the Washington Children's Home Society, was in Colville this week looking after the financial interests of the society. He occupied the Congregational and Methodist pulpits Sunday morning and evening.

The Colville Implement Company just received a car load of Sweet's common sense bobs, light sleighs, etc. Call and see our line before buying. Graham & Lynch.

The young child of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Treadwell has been seriously ill this week with pneumonia.

Colville public school will close next Tuesday until January 2nd for the Christmas holiday vacation.

Mrs. Dr. Harvey went to Spokane Monday to meet her sister, Mrs. A. J. Lee, on her return from her eastern trip. They returned Thursday evening.

Miss Nellie L. Lee has returned from her college work at Pullman to spend the holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee.

Lasswell's furniture store window represents Santa Claus soundly sleeping in one of their up-to-date beds. The many bargains in this big store undoubtedly put Santa to sleep.

The First National Bank issues a beautiful picture postcard to announce to its patrons that they may secure one of the bank's beautiful lithographed calenders by calling at the banking house.

Colville lodge No. 50, F. and A. M., elected officers for 1908 on Thursday evening as follows: Worshipful master, L. C. Jesseph; senior warden, A. B. Sansburn; junior warden, L. E. Jesseph; secretary, H. Wade Bailey; treasurer, G. W. Seale. Joint installation with the Eastern Star will occur in January.

Prosecuting Attorney Rochford was in Spokane this week attending to the filing of an appeal in the tax case of the S. F. & N. vs. Stevens county. On his return he was called to Addy on account of reports of disregarded quarantine instructions at Maud, Dunn and Daisy. Matters were satisfactorily arranged and the law will be observed hereafter.

John Samuel McCammon, and Miss Agnes R. Campbell were married by Rev. C. S. Treadwell at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Agnes Campbell in the Basin near Arden, Dec. 13. The house was very prettily decorated with cedar and a bounteous wedding supper was served to a large company of invited guests. The bride and groom are among Arden's best and most highly esteemed young people and have the congratulations and best wishes of a large circle of friends and relatives. The wedding was a brilliant one and the gifts were many.

Estray Notice—Came to my place about two weeks ago, two small pigs. Owner please call and pay charges and take same away. Al Lynch

Don't delay coming for those Christmas photos. Give us time to get you up some fine ones for gifts. Justus & Treadwell.

Calling cards at the Examiner.