

Jan Kubelik, the celebrated violinist, plays in Spokane tonight.

The Colville band rendered several selections on Main street New Year's day and received much praise for their part in starting off the new year in Colville.

On New Year's eve the B. Y. P. U. held a social and watch night service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Treadwell. The Free Methodists held special services at the church. The Junior Endeavor of the Christian church gave a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lasswell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coe and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lilly of Meyers Falls were in Colville Thursday attending the Coe-Wright wedding.

Pat Grace, living at Deep Creek, was in Colville Thursday on his way to Spokane to visit at the James Durkin home. Mr. Grace has been under the weather for several weeks and unable to be about very much. He has resided in Stevens county twenty-two years and is one of the old-time staunch democrats of the county.

Thursday afternoon in the parlors of the Hotel Colville occurred the marriage of Florence Isabel Coe and LeRoy A. Wright, Rev. H. A. Sheldon officiating. The ring ceremony was used, following which the wedding party of relatives were seated at a beautifully appointed wedding dinner in the hotel dining room. John L. Wright acted as best man for the occasion, and Miss Mary F. Hayes as bridesmaid. The bride has been teaching school at White Mud and is well known in Colville, her parents having lived at Arden before moving to Meyers Falls. The groom is a son of John S. Wright of this city. They are the recipients of many beautiful presents and have the congratulations of a host of friends.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the International Mining and Milling Co. on January 2, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: John Keough, president and general manager; Paul Starr, vice president; A. L. Knapp, secretary and treasurer; John Keough, Paul Starr, R. A. Thayer, L. B. Keough, A. L. Knapp, Wesley Keough, J. D. Millspaugh, trustees. The intentions are to push work on their claims all winter and try and be in shape to put in a stamp mill on their free mining property in the spring. This company owns seven mining claims in the northern part of Stevens county, all promising properties, in one of the best mining countries in the northwest. Mr. Keough, the president and general manager, having had 28 years experience as a practical miner, says he has the best property he has had the good fortune to run across. He returns to the mine Monday and will have the assistance of a man the rest of the winter.

After considerable delay the cells at the county jail are being placed in position. Reid & Winter, the local contractors, have been kept from completing their part of their work by the non-appearance of the steel work. Now all are busy over at the bastille and the finishing process has commenced.

The Seventh Day Adventists hold services today, with Mr. Huntley in the pulpit. He is well known in Colville and his parents live at Echo.

J. L. Eisendrath of Chicago has been in Colville this week meeting his many friends and going over the accounts of the year's business at the Leader with his partner, J. D. Millspaugh. Mr. Eisendrath is an up-to-date advertising man and the growth and success of the Leader has been in part due to his wide experience in mercantile lines. He will leave for his home Sunday.

We deem it a pleasure to show you our work. Call and look it over. Justus & Treadwell.
