Adams County Ranch.
2460 acres, situated 2 miles west of Lind on the N. P. Ry., 2200 acres of which are now under cultivation, 1000 acres summer-fallowed ready for fall seeding; 100 acres more of this ranch may be broken out. All fenced and cross fenced. There is fair house and 8 rooms upon the place besides milk house, etc. There is a temporary barn on this farm sufficient to house 30 head of horses; also hog house, blacksmith shop and machinery shed sufficient to house all the farm implements now on the place. There is a bearing orchard composed of a variety of fruit, such as apples, pears, cherries, peaches, and other small fruit.
Forty head of work horses and harness, as well as all kinds of farm tools consisting of one steam threshing outfit, of large proportions; combined harvester, almost new; besides drills, harrows, clod mashers, subsoilers, etc.
This ranch is fully equipped in every way possible to make it an ideal wheat raising farm. In addition to the above wheat land mentioned, there are 200 acres of bottom land situated in Lind Coulee that is susceptible of irrigation from the fact that water may be had in abundance at a very reasonable depth.
This farm may be sold with all equipments for $70,000, and the owner will take as part pay for same a smaller farm and a moderate amount of cash, and will accept as payment for balance, paper covering a long period of time.

Excellent Timothy Ranch.
This ranch consists of 240 acres of all bottom land, composed of the very deepest black loam soil, and without question there is nothing in the Colville valley more adapted for the raising of timothy, oats or vegetables than this farm.
It is situated one and a half miles from Colville. The buildings consist of a new 7-room plastered house, a good barn capable of housing 10 head of horses, 2 large hay sheds, and other out-buildings, also family orchard. A lot of outstanding right at the land. Price is $22,000, with only $3,000 down and practically your own time on the balance. Investigate this, for it will pay for itself within a reasonable short time.

A Dandy Buy.
320-acre ranch two and one-half miles from Mohor, in the famous Harrington country, Lincoln county.
300-acres are now in cultivation and the other 20 are in good pasture land. There will be 190 acres ready for crop this coming season. There is a small house, barn, well and wind mill upon the place. All fenced and cross fenced. This land has been thoroughly tested for years past and has proven to be as good land as can be had in Lincoln county. Price of this farm is $32.50 per acre, with only $3,000 down and the balance may run for a long term of years at 6 per cent interest, with a moderate payment each year.
This is positively the best buy of its size anywhere in the wheat belt.

A Good Buy.
320-acre timothy farm, five miles from Colville and one-half mile from railroad station, store, postoffice, school, etc. 270 acres now in cultivation, and all can be cultivated. This has been plowed up for the past two years and is now reseeded to timothy. This land is all the best of deep, black timothy land; is also adapted for raising oats, clover, alfalfa, etc. This land is all above any overflow, and has two mountain streams running through the place that could be used for irrigation if ever needed. Improvements consist of fairly good hay sheds and barn, fair house, and small family orchard. This is one of the best pieces of land in Stevens county, and the income from it will pay for it easily in a few years when put back into timothy. Price is $25,000, with small cash payment down and the balance on easy terms.

A Trade.
270-acre farm at Lamona, on the main line of the Great Northern, in Lincoln county, in summer fallow; about 50 acres of bottom land, of which 30 acres can be irrigated by a gravity ditch from a spring on the place. The bottom land will raise timothy or alfalfa in great abundance when irrigated. Small house, barn and well on the place. Good team and harness, sulkey, plow, harrow and wagon go with the place. Price is $7,000, with only $1,000 down and the balance on very easy terms, will consider good property. This is one of the best money making propositions to be found anywhere for a man of moderate means. Write us for further particulars as to this.
