

GONE CRAZY!

Not yet--but guess the Boss would think so if he should step in and see the way we are cutting the prices on all our Summer Goods.

We are selling them so cheap it's like riding a pullman for the price of a side door sleeper, for you can't help having that feeling of satisfaction that you've got your money's worth and a little bit more. We don't promise to give you the biggest package for the least money but what we sell you we guarantee to be the best your money can buy--and we'll be here for years to come to make good the statement. Don't think we are afraid to make the prices, for the Boss, "John," has written us to clean out the Summer Goods to make room for the Biggest Line of Fall Goods ever brought to Colville--and we are working hard to carry out his instructions. Just come in and we'll convince you that your money will go a long ways.
