CITY OF COLVILLE. Commercial center of the Colville valley, county seat of Stevens county. Population 2500. Altitude 1635. Average yearly temperature 45.5. Average yearly precipitation, 17 inches. No extreme in temperature or rainfall. School registration 589. High school registration 140. Three school buildings, total value $75,000.

Paved streets, cement sidewalks and crosswalks, 140 pound pressure water system, $22,000 sewer system, electric light system, $22,000 opera house, $16,000 flouring mill, $10,000 cash market for all grains in the county, $9,000 postoffice building, free postal delivery being instituted, $25,000 saw mill plant with dry kiln.

The city of Colville is growing. Its Chamber of Commerce is an active body of business men who welcome all who wish to make a home in a growing business center.

Those who desire a suburban or country home, with the advantage of good schools, have a varied choice of employment—fruit growing, dairying, poultry raising, truck farming, diversified farming, or lumbering.

Dairying experts claim the Colville valley is the most ideal place in the northwest for profitable dairying.

Land suitable for farms and orchards may be bought at reasonable prices. For any information, write the Colville Chamber of Commerce.

THE LEGAL NEWS

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. Serial No. 69223. Department of the Interior. United States Land Office at Spokane, Washington, December 22, 1913.

Notice is hereby given that Fremont M. Johnston, whose postoffice address is Three Forks, Washington, 614, on the 14th day of February, 1913, filed in this office sworn statement and application, No. 69223, to purchase the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter, section 32, township 37 north, range 40 E. Willamette meridian, and the timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1878, and acts amendatory, known as the "Timber and Stone Law," at such value as might be fixed by appraisal, and that, pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been appraised $125.00, the timber estimated 190,000 board feet at $8 each appraisal per M. and the land $10.00; said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application and sworn statement on the 25th day of March, 1914, before Katharine S. Ide, United States commissioner, eastern district of Washington, at Colville, Washington.

Any person is at liberty to protest this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest at any time before patent issues, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.

SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION. No. 4698. In the superior court of the state of Washington, in and for the county of Stevens.

Felix Roy and Amanda Roy, his wife, plaintiffs, vs. Henry Dredfield, George H. Norton and A. Kingsley Norton, husband and wife; E. H. Vaughan and Helen Vaughan, husband and wife; J. M. Gleason and Mrs. J. M. Gleason, husband and wife; and R. Lindsay, National Bank of Commerce, a corporation, and Fruitland Irrigation Company, a corporation, defendants.

The state of Washington, to the said George H. Norton and A. Kingsley Norton, husband and wife, and E. H. Vaughan and Helen Vaughan, husband and wife, and Henry Dredfield, defendants: You and each of you are hereby summoned to appear in the above entitled court within sixty (60) days after the date of the first publication of this summons, exclusive of the date upon which the first publication is made, to-wit: Within sixty (60) days after the 7th day of February, 1914, and answer the summons and complaint of plaintiff, and serve a copy of your answer or other pleading upon the undersigned at the place specified as the postoffice address, and defend the above entitled action in the court aforesaid, and set forth your answer, and upon your failure to do so, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the complaint, which will be filed with the clerk of the said court.

The object of the above entitled action, is one wherein the plaintiffs ask to have a decree issued out of said court in said cause, cancelling a certain contract for the sale of land hereinafter described, between the plaintiffs and defendant Henry Dredfield, and declaring the same to be void and of no effect, and asking that the same be cancelled of record, and removing same as a cloud upon plaintiffs' title to the lands and premises hereinafter set out; that the plaintiffs' title to said lands and premises be quieted in them as against each and every of the defendants above named, and that their claims be adjudicated, and then and there by the court determined to be junior and inferior to the rights of plaintiffs herein in said lands and premises, and that the plaintiffs' title to said land as aforesaid, be quieted as against the claim or claims of the said above named defendants, and each and all of every of them, and that the plaintiffs have such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable.

The lands above referred to are described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the northwest corner of lot three (3), section two (2), township thirty-five (35) north, of range thirty-seven (37) E. W. M.; thence N 88 degrees 21 minutes E 1208.9 feet; along the township line, between townships 35 and 36; thence S 13 degrees 32 minutes W 612.6 feet; thence west 1061 feet; thence N. 0 degrees 13 minutes E 663.7 feet to the place of beginning; containing 15.10 acres of land, all of said land being in Stevens county, Washington.

SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION. No. 4611. In the superior court of the state of Washington, in and for the county of Stevens.

Ethel Cutsinger, plaintiff, vs. Charles R. Cutsinger, defendant.

The state of Washington, to the said Charles R. Cutsinger, defendant: You are hereby summoned to be and appear in the above entitled action and court, within sixty (60) days after the date of the first publication of this summons, exclusive of the date upon which the first publication is made, to-wit: Within sixty (60) days after the 17th day of January, 1914, and answer the summons and complaint of the plaintiff, and defend the above entitled action in the court aforesaid, and serve a copy of your answer or other pleading upon the undersigned attorney for the plaintiff at his office below stated, and in case of your failure to do so, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demands of the complaint, which has been filed with the clerk of said court.

The object of the above entitled action is to obtain a decree of this court dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant, and the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment of plaintiff by defendant, making it impossible for them to continue together to live as husband and wife, and for failure of the defendant to provide the plaintiff with the necessities of life, that the court give the custody and control of the two minor children of plaintiff and defendant to the plaintiff, namely, Melvin L. Cutsinger and Lester C. Cutsinger, aged five and three years, respectively; and that this court grant such other and further relief as may appear just and equitable in the premises.
