The Examiner has for years made a specialty of high class job work, and in this department does all classes of commercial printing, society printing, color work, engraving, embossing, punching, ruling, perforating, loose leaf work, and carries a stock of loose leaf binders and fillers for same. This office sells all classes of cuts, notarial and corporation seals, corporation books, stock certificates, bonds and warrants. Mail orders are promptly answered.

The pocket loose leaf billing and statement system is the latest in use in Colville. Bills and statements and memoranda can be carried in an indexed pocket book, thus saving much time, worry and calculation. It is also used for a petty ledger, or by houses which do a cash business with an occasional credit carried for a few days. The Examiner furnishes these books and fillers, and samples can be sent by mail.

Proprietary internal revenue stamps in all denominations up to four cents and documentary internal revenue stamps in denominations up to one dollar may be had at the postoffice.

A seven pound son was born Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gillie.

Small boys have been the cause of a lot of annoyance and expense lately to property owners by throwing rocks at buildings, invariably hitting a window. Boys are often taught by their parents that a down-town district is not a proper place to practice with stones, also that buildings should not be used as targets. Boys who amuse themselves in this way are very likely to create trouble for themselves as well as their parents.

An auto party composed of Attorney W. Lon Johnson, Henry R. Spedden, Oliver Trueblood, Clyde Heberling and George L. Rieth made a trip to the South Half Sunday.

Bert Nicol, manager of the Golden Rule store, went to Spokane Sunday on a few days' business trip.

Mrs. Elmer Heaton, daughter of Mrs. J. E. Hotchkiss, who has been making her home in Stevens county for the last five years, left last week to join her husband at Mt. Vernon, Iowa. They will go to their old home at Moore's Hill, Ind., where they will reside permanently.

Quinn W. McCord, undertaker, went to Kettle Falls Sunday and conducted the funeral of A. Haag who died last Friday at the age of 83. Funeral services were held at the church three miles west from Kettle Falls, in Ferry county. Interment was made at that place. Deceased is survived by a son, Gregory Haag. He lived on a ranch one mile south of Kettle Falls.

Niel Thomas left Monday for Sandpoint to play a few days in that city's band, and also to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Embury left Tuesday for Wenatchee. Mr. Embury, with S. S. Beggs, will conduct an auto stage between Wenatchee and Waterville, the gentlemen having purchased a 1500-pound International auto truck for that purpose. Mr. Embury has resided in this city the last seven years. For two years he was telegrapher for the Great Northern, and for the last five years ago he went back to Illinois and joined the ranks of the benedicts. Mr. and Mrs. Embury have many friends here who wish them godspeed in their new location. They made the trip to Wenatchee in the auto truck.

The remains of Rane Landry who died at the county farm April 29 at an advanced age, were interred Monday afternoon at Highland cemetery by Quinn W. McCord, undertaker. Rev. M. L. Sanders performed the final rites. The remains were being held pending the location of relatives, but none were heard from.

G. M. Peddycord of Spokane was a guest of Charles Wingham the latter part of last week. Mr. Peddycord was formerly manager of the Empire Packing plant at Spokane.

The residents of the White Lake community will give a benefit dance at the Grange hall Saturday night the 22d, all proceeds to go to caring for Miss Violet Tracy, who was severely burned more than a month ago and who has been in the General hospital ever since. The ladies will serve one of their famous suppers, and the music will be donated, hence every cent received at the dance will go into the benefit fund. Everybody is invited to come and bring a dollar. Autos will make the round trip for 50 cents.

Oscar Cain, formerly U. S. district attorney for eastern Washington, was here in attendance on the superior court during the early part of the week. Mr. Cain is practicing in Spokane.

G. M. Wilson of Wilbur and W. J. Maxwell and E. E. McClintock of Spokane were in Colville Monday and Chewelah Tuesday buying horses for the French government. The offering in Colville consisted in an alarming selection of the poorest horses ever seen on our streets, and only six came near enough to the advertised "specifications" to be purchased. The buyers stated that Colville offered the poorest bunch of horses they had seen in northeast Washington.

Letter of Appreciation
Kettle Falls, May 7, 1915.—The Colville Examiner, Colville, Wash.—Gentlemen:

I wish to express to you my appreciation for the excellent work done on our annual "The Kettles." Truly the workmanship and artistic designing is all that can be desired.

I wish also to thank you for your promptness in completing the work and the generous consideration you have shown.—Sincerely yours, W. P. Wagley, Supt.
