

Your Little Girl

A Philadelphia schoolgirl asked permission to quit school and go to work. She said her father had been killed, her mother was ill, and her brother was on half pay, so she had to help support the family.

Might a series of similar misfortunes put your daughter into a similar position? Or is your life insured, and are you building a bulwark of savings at the Bank of Colville to protect her from such a possibility?

Bank of Colville

Colville, Washington

COLVILLE NEWS

Go to Rich's for your glasses. Satisfaction guaranteed.

For Sale—L. C. Smith typewriter at a bargain. Inquire at Examiner.—adv.

For Sale—International correspondence school scholarship; bargain; inquire at Examiner.

No Trespassing notices, cloth, large type, 3 for 25c. At Examiner.

Poison signs for ranchers can be had at the Examiner office at bottom prices.

Earl R. Hicks almanac (reg. 35c) and Word and Works (reg. $1 year) and Colville Examiner (reg. $1 year) all for $1.65, at the Examiner office.

Collier's Weekly, the great national weekly, is now only $2.50. With every yearly subscription to Collier's Weekly sent to the Examiner office we will send the Examiner one year free, or advance your subscription one year.

For good work and reasonable prices take your watch to J. F. Leighton, jeweler. Watches cleaned $1, and guaranteed one year. Spring $1, jewels $1, hands and glass 25 cents each.

The Examiner has for years made a specialty of high class job work, and in this department does all classes of commercial printing, society printing, color work, engraving, embossing, punching, ruling, perforating, loose leaf work, and carries a stock of loose leaf binders and fillers for same. This office sells all classes of cuts, notarial and corporation seals, corporation books, stock certificates, bonds and warrants. Mail orders are promptly answered.

The pocket loose leaf billing and statement system is the latest in use in Colville. Bills and statements and memoranda can be carried in an indexed pocket book, thus saving much time, worry and calculation. It is also used for a petty ledger, or by houses which do a cash business with an occasional credit carried for a few days. The Examiner furnishes these books and fillers, and samples can be sent by mail.

Proprietary internal revenue stamps in all denominations up to four cents and documentary internal revenue stamps in denominations up to one dollar may be had at the postoffice.

Ronald B. Slater, who had just finished his first year at the North Pacific Dental College at Portland, has gone to San Diego, where he has employment for the summer vacation.

Mrs. J. W. Lee of Arden left for Webster, Kansas, on Monday to visit at the home of her parents, and expects to be gone all summer.

H. Y. Dorman received a telegram last Friday announcing that his sister, Mrs. John Case of Minneapolis, had died that morning. Mr. and Mrs. Case visited in Colville a couple of years ago.

Horace Rice was host to the senior class of the Colville high school last week Tuesday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rice. The house was artistically decorated with crepe paper and flowers. Various contests and games and progressive 500 were the entertainment features. Honors in the contests were won by Sam Christman, and at cards by Miss Lillian Dowling. Refreshment were served, the class colors, purple and gold, being carried out.

Dr. C. Henderson of Lind, brother of Dr. J. W. Henderson, is a Colville guest this week, his mission being to attend the meeting of the Stevens County Medical Association.

Miss Bae St. Clair left last week Friday to attend the summer term at the Cheney normal. She graduated from the Colville high school with the 1914 class, and taught a very successful term of school the past winter at Williams.

Want to buy a beef stock bull, 1 1/2 to 2 years old.—L. C. Favor, Kettle Falls.—adv.

For Sale—Two-cylinder motorcycle in good running condition, $60. Inquire B. H. Winslow, Colville, or see machine at Columbia garage.

If you want graham, try a nine-pound sack of Top-Noch, for mush or gems. For sale at all dealers.—adv.

All those living within the corporate limits of the city of Colville, desiring to register, will find the registration books open at the store of the Stannus-Keller Hardware Company. J. C. Hard, city clerk.

Wanted—Boys to bring clean cotton rags to the Examiner office

The Colville sanitarium is being thoroughly renovated, calcimined and repainted this week. A new porch floor has also been laid. When the work is finished the sanitarium will look like new.

Miss Madge Wells, daughter of Rev. G. A. Wells, of Sandpoint, formerly of Colville, has purchased a valuable harp and is making a special study of harp music, taking regular lessons in Spokane besides keeping up in her piano work, in which she has become most proficient.

W. B. Dingle and J. G. Wiley started for Newport in the Dingle auto Tuesday morning, but south of Chewelah an axle was broken while going slowly over bad roads, and Mr. Dingle came to Colville on the train to get repairs. They got started again Wednesday morning.

W. R. Baker, past grand master, and J. C. Harrigan, master of Colville Lodge No. 50, will leave for North Yakima the first of next week to attend the Masonic grand lodge. Mrs. Harrigan will represent Colville chapter of the Eastern Star at the meeting of the grand chapter which convenes there next Thursday.

Harry Dixon, aged 16, arrived Wednesday to make his home with Mrs. Margaret Rosch at Echo. Harry was one of the brightest of the parentless boys at the State training school, and became a firm friend of James Petty, who has secured the Stevens county home for him.

Dr. R. S. Wells was called to Northport Sunday evening to attend Mrs. Adolph Frederickson, who is ill with typhoid fever. She was brought to the Colville sanitarium Monday, accompanied by her nurse, Miss Lillie Erickson. Miss Erickson returned to her home at Northport Thursday.

Dr. Ralph F. Goetter arrived Saturday for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Goetter. The doctor received his early education in Colville. He entered Gonzaga university of Spokane in 1901, remaining there until 1904. He then entered the Santa Clara college of California, from which school he graduated in 1910, receiving his A. B. degree. In 1913 he received his M. A. degree from Gonzaga university. Dr. Goetter entered the St. Louis Medical school in 1911 where he spent four years studying under the most learned professors. He graduated from that school in 1915, receiving his M. D. degree. Dr. Goetter will leave June 21 to enter the Michael Reese hospital in Chicago where he will remain two years.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jesseph and son Harry visited in Spokane over Sunday at the home of his brother, Attorney M. E. Jesseph. Mrs. Jesseph and Harry remained this week visiting friends and expect to return home today, accompanied by her mother Mrs. G. B. Aubin, who has been visiting several weeks at the home of her cousin Mrs. Wm. E. Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Biggar, Miss Alvina Storm and Mrs. Elmer Walker were among the campers at the Pend Oreille lakes Monday. They reported a splendid outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Nicol and nephew and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gordon went to the Pend Oreille lakes Sunday evening. A splendid trip is reported.

Chauncey St. Clair has created a new ice cream dish which he calls a "German submarine." It is one of the most palatable dainty dishes ever made and submerges to perfection, but, contrary to what the name implies, St. Clair's submarines are not a menace to humanity like the treacherous German submarines of the mighty Atlantic. These local submarines are very pleasant to encounter, being very gratifying to the taste.

May broke all records in Colville for rainfall, according to the report of U. S. Weather Observer W. L. Sax. Precipitation was 3.10 inches, which is 1.28 more than normal, and the greatest for May in the last 16 years. Temperature was 83 on the 6th, minimum 32 on the 16th, average for month 55 1/2, which was .1 more than normal. Clear days 2, cloudy 15, part cloudy 14.

Memorial observance on Monday brought into the parade 17 veterans and 12 Sons of Veterans. In the morning the graves of the dead were decorated by the Relief Corps, and the afternoon service was held at the theater. Lincoln's Gettysburg address was delivered by Attorney W. Lon Johnson, preceded with an interesting talk. Invocation was by Rev. L. W. Ross. The children of the primary grades gave the flag salute in beautiful form. Rev. M. L. Sanders delivered the address of the day, and the audience sang America at the close. Plans had previously been made to hold the exercises on Saturday, but Monday was finally fixed as the day of observance. Stores and offices were all closed.

Phillip Henderson, eldest son of Dr. J. W. Henderson, and his grandfather, S. H. Shawger, of Pittsburg, Kan., arrived in Colville last week Thursday evening and will make their home with the doctor. Phillip will be a student at the Colville high school next year, a member of the junior class.

Miss Estella Dingle and Dr. S. E. Rosenthal were married last Saturday afternoon in the parlors of Hotel Colville, Judge W. H. Jackson performing the marriage rites, in the presence of relatives. A five o'clock wedding dinner was served in the hotel dining room by the bride's parents. The bride was neatly and becomingly gowned in a dark blue suit of faille silk. She is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Dingle, pioneer residents of this city and proprietors of Hotel Colville. She has resided in this city since early childhood and has many friends who wish her a happy destiny. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Rosenthal of Portland. He has been a successful practitioner here for a year in partnership with Dr. L. B. Harvey. The bridal couple will take up their residence in Spokane about June 15, the doctor practicing medicine in the office of Dr. W. T. Phy. A host of Colville friends wish them all the pleasures attendant upon a happy marriage.

J. J. Merriman of Lind is visiting this week with his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Henderson.

Mrs. J. A. Mason of Warner, Alberta, arrived in Colville last Saturday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. M. A. Lynch.

Carl Kollmorgen returned Monday to his home in Seattle, after a few days' visit at the home of his son, Emil Kollmorgen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dingle and children autoed over from Newport last Saturday to attend the Dingle-Rosenthal wedding.

Miss Marie Basham of near Meyers Falls is assisting in the dining room of the Lee cafe.

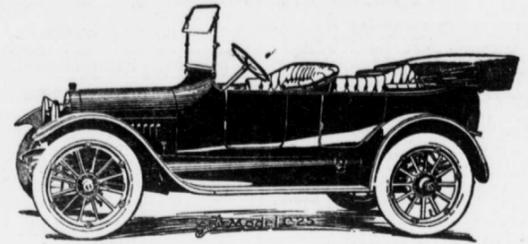

Milton Acorn returned last Saturday from Portland, where he finished his first year in a dental college.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Winfere, Miss Winfere and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Rea returned to Spokane Monday, having spent several days camping and fishing at the Pend Oreille lakes. They report a pleasant trip and an excellent catch. The party made the trip by auto.

Merlin Stolts returned last week from his first year's work in a dental college at Portland.

Miss Minnie Buckley left last Friday to visit relatives at Bellingham.

Watch for the 1916 Announcement of the Buick Baby Six

Prices no more than you would have to pay for the average Four. The 1916 Buick is a masterpiece of automobile engineering. Order now and have the pleasure of driving over all the hills on the high gear.

J. W. Stack, Proprietor

BUICK GARAGE

Agency and service station for Buick cars in Stevens County.

Fourth and Main

Colville

THE FULL LINE OF I-P LOOSE-LEAF POST AND RING BINDERS

CAN BE SECURED FROM THE COLVILLE EXAMINER

OUR BEST CLUB OFFER

THE FARMING BUSINESS

A Real Help to the Farmer

The great new $1.50 weekly farm paper, illustrated in colors, with a circulation of more than 100,000 and but a few months old. Not an ordinary farm paper; it treats farming as a BUSINESS and the farmer as a BUSINESS MAN. It helps you run your BUSINESS at a profit—helps you with the selling and to get highest prices for your products.

MANY ARTICLES BY EXPERTS ON FARM PROBLEMS

—only farm paper with investigator in Europe on crop outlook for benefit of U. S. farmers. Many features—News Review for Farmers—Colored War Map—Market Letter (War affects markets, markets determine success of farmer's BUSINESS)—New farm inventions and discoveries which lower costs and increase profits—Many Departments—to show the farmer how to make more money. You need this extraordinary paper in your BUSINESS.

DEPARTMENTS FOR ENTIRE FAMILY—Boy and Girl's

page—Pattern Department—Needlework and Embroidery Section—The Home Maker's Club—in short you will find The Farming Business a mighty big surprise. We have made arrangements with the W. D. Boyce Co., publisher, by which we can offer you the following wonderful club with your subscription to the

6 Ever Blooming Rose Bushes

Make your yard and garden a rosy Paradise. This assortment consists of the most beautiful varieties; there are a wide range of colors and they are not surpassed by anything in the rose family. They are strong, well rooted plants, hardy as oaks and ready to be transplanted in your garden. We guarantee them to reach you in good growing condition. They will be mailed at the proper time for planting in your section.

The Farming Business, 1 year, 52 issues, $1.50
Six Ever Blooming Rose Bushes - - 1.00 Value

With the Colville Examiner one year for $2.10