A weekly summary of events of interest to Kettle Falls and the Upper Columbia River Valley, the garden spot of the great Northwest

NEWS ITEMS OF KETTLE FALLS

Miss Della Johnson of Rice was a guest at the home of Mrs. E. K. Jacobs.

Orders for steel foreshadows an enormous part to be taken by the United States in rebuilding the war shattered Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kelley motored to Deep Creek Tuesday, returning Wednesday evening.

School will commence on September 6th. Although it is Labor Day and a legal holiday scholars will be registered on that day, although no school work will be done.

Miss Della Little returned Sunday from Chicago, where she spent the winter. She will remain here indefinitely, the guests of her sister, Mrs. H. M. Beaman.

J. F. Tiddy lost a valuable cow last week. He was leading it home tied to his wagon. It got between some logs, broke its leg and had to be killed.

Professor W. P. Wagley has been canvassing for high school pupils and has found three boys who would like to get a place where they can work after school hours and thus partly pay for their board.

The many friends of Mrs. Gustav Weigelt are glad to learn that she is slowly regaining her former health and strength.

Sidney Cruff returned home from Harrington this week to look after the ranch during his father's illness.

Mrs. J. W. Bradbury and Mrs. Hector Curry and little daughter will return from Colville Sunday.

H. C. Root of Spokane spent several days as the guests of Captain and Mrs. C. A. Heath at Riverton fruit ranch.

In recognition of the interest taken in the C. L. S. C. by Dr. Blakely and his efforts to keep the original Chautauqua and its work before the public, the Chautauqua management or Chautauqua Institution as it is now called, forwarded him a complimentary set of the books of the reading course for the coming year.

T. Haag and family motored through town on their way to Colville on Saturday to dispose of a load of farm produce.

When Dr. Blakely sent in his census of birds to the biological bureau he included the ruby-throated hummingbird. The department questioned the correctness of this, and a letter from Willis W. Cook said the bird did not occur in Washington.

Rev. Petter and daughter and Miss Olga Petter and Peter Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cole were Colville visitors Friday.

Miss Olga M. Petter and Peter F. Schroeder, both of this city, have secured from County Auditor Sansburn a license to marry.

Clarence Cranston and Miss Bessie Alldredge, both of Rice, both under age, by proper procedure have secured from County Auditor A. B. Sansburn a license to marry.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. James Jacobs of Spokane returned Tuesday evening from a two days' fishing trip to the Pend Oreille lakes.

Commercial printing orders taken at the Scimitar office at Spokane prices. The work and stationery, as a rule, is superior. Why not help your own community by patronizing home industry?

Butter wrappers can be procured at the Scimitar office in Kettle Falls. Orders taken for printing of all kinds. When in need of anything in the paper or printing line, call and see Miss Foley and she will quote you prices for good work at reasonable prices.

Keep posted by subscribing for the Kettle Falls Scimitar.

Why do you fail to advertise in the Scimitar? Nearly everybody in the valley reads it and that is where Kettle Falls gets her trade from.

Most children have worms. And their parent or child knows it, yet it explains why your child is nervous, pale, feverish, backward. Often children have thousands of worms. Think of how dangerous this is to your child. Don't take any risk. Get an original 25c box of Kickapoo Worm Killer, a candy lozenge. Kickapoo Worm Killer will positively kill and remove the worms. Relieves constipation, regulates stomach and bowels. Your child will grow and learn so much better. Get a box today.—Adv.

The registration books are now open. Those residing within the corporate limits can register at the office of Miss Foley. C. J. Webb is registration clerk for the rural district.

Two Common Summer Ailments. Thousands of hay fever and asthma victims who are not able to go to the mountains find relief in Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It allays the inflammation, soothes and heals raw and rasping bronchial tubes and helps to overcome difficulty in breathing, and makes sound, refreshing sleep possible. Carroll's Pharmacy.—Adv.

Hugh Ranahan, one of the pioneer residents of the Kelley hill country, near Orient, died this week after a long illness. He leaves a family, and a brother, John Ranahan at Bossburg; the deceased was a native of Prince Edward Island, Canada.

A meeting will be held in Marcus, August 21, to organize the Upper Columbia Livestock association, and to arrange for a stock sale to take place at this point about the first of October. It is expected stockmen from along the Columbia and north of here will be in attendance. It is proposed to have regular stock sales and instructive meetings at intervals. Marcus, on account of its railroad facilities, will likely be selected as the meeting point, and efforts are now under way to increase the number of stock pens here. The nearness of the Canadian market is pointed out as particularly advantageous to the territory embracing Marcus, Meyers Falls, Orient, Northport, Rice, Laurier, Bossburg, and Danville.—Marcus correspondent in Spokesman-Review.

Riverview
G. Shudell moved his family to Spokane the past week.

Mrs. James Chivers of Downers Grove Ill., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roy J. Worley.

Mrs. I. Vaughn is visiting her mother, Mrs. Redding.

Catarh Cannot be Cured. with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarh. Send for testimonials free.

NOTICE OF HEARING OF FINAL ACCOUNT AND PETITION FOR DISTRIBUTION.

In the superior court of the state of Washington, in and for the county of Stevens.

In the matter of the estate of Albert S. Dingle, deceased.

On the 13th day of August, 1915, L. C. Jessup, the duly appointed, qualified and acting administrator of the above entitled estate, having filed and rendered in this cause his final account and petition for distribution:

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that on the 18th day of September, 1915, at the hour of 3:30 o'clock, in the forenoon of said day, at the court room in the courthouse, in the city of Colville, Stevens county, Washington, said distribution will come on for hearing; and

Notice is further given, that all persons interested in said estate shall appear at said time and place and show cause, if any they have, why said final account should not be accepted and approved and said administrator discharged; and

Notice is further given to all persons interested in said estate, to appear and show cause at said time and place why interest in said estate shall not be distributed to legal heirs entitled thereto, as prayed for in said petition.

Witness the honorable W. H. Jackson, judge of the above entitled court, and the seal of said court affixed this 13th day of August, 1915.

(Court Seal) L. C. RICHARDSON, Clerk.
