The Rev. W. L. Beaumont will offer at private sale at his bungalow in Kettle Falls, at the home of Prof. W. P. Wagley from March 22 to 30, numerous articles of furniture, such as stoves, bedsteads, springs, mattresses, china closet, washing machine, dishes, fruit jars, stone jars, etc., all at a very low price. He also will offer his bungalow for sale on the easiest of terms. Mr. Beaumont's health demands a radical change of climate hence this sale.

Mrs. J. K. Wallace of Orient spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Flora Kinsey.

Persons inclined to look upon divorce as a rather unimportant pastime will get a severe shock in the news that a Spokane man has been denied a chance to get a $10,000 damage verdict simply because a little matter of a decree stood in the way.

The Scimitar office has about thirty packages of government seeds. Anyone who desires a package can have same by calling at the office of Miss Foyle, as long as the supply lasts.

At a cost understood to approximate $13,000 G. A. Warsinke of Spokane has secured the improved farm of James E. Richey, southeast of Daisy, Washington, and will probably superintend the operation of the place himself this season. Applied on the consideration for the place, which consists of a half section, Mr. Richey took considerable Spokane and Hilliard property and will soon move to that city.

Another deal reported from the Daisy section is that by which N. S. Hunt sold his ranch, just west of that place to K. S. Waterman, who has just taken possession, while Mr. Hunt has left for Roseburg, Oregon, where he will make his home.

Dr. J. P. Luxmore, of Spokane, specialist on the eye, will visit Kettle Falls from Wednesday, March 23 to Thursday, March 30th. He will be located at the Hotel Munro. He is prepared to fit and relieve all cases of falling vision, headaches, double vision, cross eyes and kindred troubles, requiring specially ground lenses. He intends to visit this city once every three months.

For any pain, burn, scald or bruise, apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—the household remedy. Two sizes 25c and 50c at all drug stores.—Adv.

These services are under the auspices of the First Presbyterian and the First Baptist church of this city. Every one is cordially invited to attend these services.

The cup is more than a foot high, is of sterling silver, gold lined, with walnut base, and has the following engraved inscription: "Presented by the First National Bank of St. Paul to Ozelle Nettleton of Kettle Falls, Wash., Dist. No. 1.—Best 10 ears of corn. Boys' contest First National Corn Show, December 5, 1915."

L. E. Savage, son of T. L. Savage, a former resident of this city, who accidentally shot himself Saturday night while examining an "unloaded" rifle, is improving. The bullet entered the leg just above the knee and came out below the knee. The wound is not thought to be serious.

H. Fullner returned Thursday from Spokane, where he spent several days on his boyer.

Postmaster George H. Bevan this week assumed charge of the John H. Roche orchard south of town. The trees are undergoing a thorough pruning and as soon as the weather permits spraying will be done. This is an Al orchard and this fall there will be a fine crop of apples. Mr. Roche can consider himself fortunate in securing the services of one so able and so well versed in orchard work.

Mrs. N. A. Stafford was a Colville visitor Wednesday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Cranston on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerguson returned to Spokane Wednesday, after spending several days in this city. Mr. Jerguson has been appointed by the state to take charge of Fish lake this summer. He will return to his duties in about two weeks, snow and ice deterring him from doing anything at this time.

Dr. Willbur, state inspector of registrars of vital statistics spent Wednesday in this city examining the books and records of the local registrar, Miss Foyle. He highly complimented her, stating that she was very proficient in her work. He also emphasized the fact that birth and death certificates must be filed as soon as possible after the occurrence of either the birth or death and that nobody should be intimated without a burial permit first having been obtained from the registrar.

Mrs. N. A. Stafford was hostess to the Willing Workers' Society of the Baptist church at her home Tuesday afternoon. Twenty-two members and guests were present. A dainty two-course luncheon was served by the hostess. The afternoon was spent in needlework and crocheting.

TO RID CHILD OF WORMS. Don't scold the fretful, nervous child. Often it's due to worms. Get rid of these by giving one-half to one lozenge Kickapoo Worm Killer, a laxative worm candy. Give only plain nourishing food, lots of out-door exercise and put to bed early. Watch stools and continue giving Kickapoo Worm Lozenges. They will positively remove the worms. 25c at druggists.—Adv.

"THE WEAVERS."

St. Patrick's Day has seldom been as fittingly celebrated in Kettle Falls as it was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Zirtzmann last Friday night, the 17th of March, when one-half of the members of "The Weavers," entertained the other half, with a number of friends.

The invitations were written in rhyme with green ink on white paper cut to represent an Irishman's plug hat with a shamrock pasted on the front and the hat band of green ribbon. Many of the acceptances revealed real talent in the art of making rhymes.

The guests were dressed appropriate to the occasion. Miss Minnie Weigelt was awarded the lady's prize and Waldo Putter the gentleman's prize for the best costumes. Mr. Putter's make-up was artistic and he played his part well as a typical Irish gentleman, although it was noticed that he manipulated his old cod pipe with considerable difficulty.

Harry Cole attracted much attention from the ladies and was no doubt the handsomest Irishman of the bunch, his reddish side whiskers were regarded with much envy by those who were not so fortunate as to have a supply of corn silk of the right hue on hand.

Prof. Wagley was there; no doubt about that; with his Irish songs and witty jokes and his ever present she-halle, no one was permitted to forget that he was there, prepared for a frolic. He entertained the bunch with several fine Irish songs accompanied by Miss Verna Smith.

Messrs. Cole, Putter, Wagley and Squire wore high silk hats and no one knew before that there were so many really and truly plug hats in the valley.

Our host, Mr. Zirtzmann, was conspicuous for his "choker," his hair paint, his white "ducks" and a big smile.

The three Irish lassies with their hair in long braids and curls and their Irish frocks were especially attractive to some of the younger Irish gentlemen. Several were heard to remark: "How well Mrs. Zirtzmann looks."

Progressive games, all appropriate to the occasion and a number of real Irish stunts occupied most of the evening, furnishing much fun for the guests.

Then came the grand two-course luncheon. The menu cards were the map of Ireland, the cover in green paper with the cities and rivers of Ireland marked and lettered with white ink and the inside was of white paper, with the menu printed with green ink. The gentlemen chose their supper partners by being blindfolded and pinning a shamrock on the first lady he touched while they danced around him in a circle.

Table covers were decorated with green pigs, snakes, frogs, hods, plug hats, pipes and shamrocks as a centerpiece.

After luncheon each gentleman present was required to tell an Irish story. Suddenly some one discovered that it was half past one, whereupon Fred Wheeler took a flashlight of the bunch. After the picture the jolly crowd reluctantly departed for their homes, unanimously voting the party a grand success.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cole, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wagley, Mr. and Mrs. Archer R. Squire, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Zirtzmann, Mrs. Lilly, Mrs. H. Keyser, Miss Stella Lilly, Miss Jessie Lilly, Miss Verna Smith, Miss Minnie Weigelt, Miss L. Charlton, Miss Etta Wareing, Miss Hattie Maupin, Miss Lou Kilgore, Miss Lucille Zirtzmann, E. E. Atwood, Dr. H. A. Greenwald, Ralph Smith, Fred Wheeler, Valdo Putter, George Kruse, Harry Tilden and Master Francis Zirtzmann.

Can't look well, eat well, or feel well with impure blood. Keep the blood pure with Burdock Blood Bitters. Eat simply, take exercise, keep clean, and good health is pretty sure to follow. $1 a bottle.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Zlotter of Arizona were callers at Marty's Tuesday.

AVOID SPRING COLDS.

Sudden changes, high winds, shifting seasons cause colds and grippe and these spring colds are annoying and dangerous and are likely to turn into a chronic summer cough. In such cases take a treatment of Dr. King's New Discovery, a pleasant laxative tar syrup. It soothes the cough, checks the cold and helps break up an attack of grippe. It's already prepared, no mixing or fussing. Just ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. Tested and tried for over 40 years.—Adv.

Prof. Grubb gave his school a vacation last week.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and, therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Science has proven Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Company, Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Take Halls' Family Pills for constipation.

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1/2 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or send for it by mail. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.
