KETTLE FALLS NEWS.

Work of clearing out the ditch of the Columbia Irrigation Company commenced this week and water will be turned in about the 15th of the month.

Harry Moore left Tuesday for Spokane to remain indefinitely.

Lewis Fuller, deputy game warden, returned to Colville Saturday, after spending a week at Trout lake in Ferry county, where he was doing some work for the Stevens county game commission.

Osee Noble, Jr., A. R. Squire, F. Ray, Miss Foley, J. M. Williams and wife, Miss Hitchcock, Mrs. Willis Belknap and Stanley Smith were Colville visitors this week.

Mrs. W. P. Wagley was hostess at a large children's party Monday afternoon, the affair being in honor of little Miss Dorothy Wagley. The guests of the afternoon were the little folks of the first and second grades. Games were played and as one of the little folks was heard to remark "one of the best times I ever had," was enjoyed by the children. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Wagley was assisted in entertaining by Miss Bess Llewellyn.

H. A. Tilden is a visitor in Spokane this week as a guest of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Tilden.

Unusually warm weather all this week has made us think that warm weather is here to stay. Trees of all kinds now are in bloom and the larger orchards give promise of an enormous crop. Apples bid fair to be a big crop and the trees are said to be in better condition so far as infection is concerned than ever before in the history of this valley. Spraying has been conducted generally by owners.

Attorney E. E. Atwood, J. C. Wilson, E. J. Kelley, E. B. Growdon, M. Churchill, A. E. Baldwin were among those who attended the republican county convention in Colville Saturday.

Messrs. and Mesdames W. A. Doyle, J. C. Wilson and E. K. Jacobs attended the Christian Science lecture in Colville Tuesday evening

Mrs. Frank E. Smith is entertaining the members of the "Weavers" this afternoon.

Mrs. J. M. Williams is entertaining the members of the "Skidoo" Club at her home this afternoon.

Mrs. A. Humphrey and her little grandchildren, Pearl and Lyle, were Marcus visitors this week.

County Game Warden C. J. Rhode was a business visitor in the city Saturday.

J. B. Martin of Olympia has leased the ranch formerly owned by Noel Sicotte in Bonnie Vale. Mr. Martin has commenced to farm this tract of land, also the vacant land on the J. B. Llewellyn place. Mr. and Mrs. Martin and little daughter arrived in this city from Olympia about two weeks ago, and are delighted with the Columbia valley as a place to reside. Mrs. Martin is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Hause.

Rev. Hause will deliver the baccalaureate address to the members of the senior class on the evening of Sunday, May 14, at the First Baptist church.

Mrs. C. A. Heath was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the members of the aid society of both churches.

Five new members were given the right hand of fellowship by Rev. Hause during the morning service at the First Baptist church Sunday.

Miss Fogh of Seattle is a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Karen Fogh.

St. Peter's church—Confirmation services will be held at the Masonic hall Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Bishop Page of Spokane will deliver the confirmation address. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend this service.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bradbury were Colville visitors this week, guests at the home of their son, Ray Bradbury.

At the regular meeting of the Odd Fellows held at their hall Monday evening G. H. Bevan, postmaster of this city, was for the third successive time elected as district delegate to the state convention which will be held at Medical Lake on May 16 and 17.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Lenora Koerner of the Kettle Falls high school has been chosen as one of the six contestants in the northwestern oratorical contest, which will be held at Spokane May 12. Miss Koerner's oration is entitled "Child Labor." Out of thirty-four eligible schools a Kettle Falls candidate was chosen as one of the six contestants. Surely, this speaks well for the K. F. H. S.

On account of the track meet at Chewelah, May 6, the K. F. H. S. baseball team did not play with Chewelah on May 5, as had been arranged. The game has been postponed until a later date.

The Colville high school baseball team and the Kettle Falls high school team will cross bats on the K. F. H. S. diamond May 10. If you miss this game you will miss half your life. Everybody come.

The orders for "Kettles" are coming in thick and fast. Get your order in early, for its too good to miss.

RIOKEY CANYON.

George Brown made a short visit to his parents and sisters and brothers, Sunday evening. He left Monday morning for Chewelah.

Alvin Brown and family moved onto their ranch Tuesday. He will also work the Sanford place this year.

Earl Gunn has rented the old Laing place for the coming season.

Everybody Invited to the Convention Next Week.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL convention to be held in Colville Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, the program of which appears elsewhere in this paper, is the largest convention of its kind ever held in this part of the country, and it will probably be some time before a meeting of the kind will be held again in this territory.

First Session COLVILLE, WASHINGTON Stevens County Music Teachers' Association May 10-11, 1916

Wednesday Afternoon, May 10. Methodist church, 2:30 o'clock. Opening talk by the president, Mrs. E. Clark. Piano solo, "Polichinello" (Rachmaninoff). Mrs. Vera Smith, Kettle Falls. "Standardization in the Music Course" Mrs. L. E. Savage, Northport. Piano solo, "Sonata Pathetique" (Beethoven). Mrs. John R. Stout, Northport. "Memorizing: Shall We Insist Upon It?" Mrs. L. E. Savage, Northport. Discussion. Piano solo (selected). Mrs. John R. Stout, Northport. "Memorizing: Shall We Insist Upon It?" Mrs. L. E. Savage, Northport. Discussion. Piano solo (selected). Mrs. John R. Stout, Northport.

Thursday Morning, May 11. Methodist church, 10 o'clock. Organization and election of officers for the coming year, and report to the state association.

COVADA. Mr. Robinson from New York is the guest of Mr. Terpening. He is much interested in the prospects of the camp.

Mr. King, who is interested with R. D. Loran in the mining property on Rattle Snake mountain, is in camp with Mr. Ryan. They will do some building on their group of claims besides doing considerable development work.

The discovery of tungsten in various places on the south half of the Colville reservation is causing much interest and it is not unlikely that mining claims will be staked on Indian allotments which were made to include mineral land, notwithstanding the government mining expert's classification.

The allotting agents knowingly ignored this classification and have thus incurred much needless expense to the government besides greatly inconveniencing Indians and also mining men.

DAISY. A fair sized crowd attended the field meet and declamatory contest held here Saturday, April 29th. Six schools were represented as follows: Ward, Miss Smith, teacher; Stranger creek, M. Corey, teacher; Edendale, Miss McCune, teacher; Pleasant Valley, Miss Clinton, teacher; Rice, Miss Toppink, teacher; Daisy, C. R. Grimes and Miss Phillips, teachers. The events of the afternoon were: Broad jump—Fred Stalder, Daisy, first, 12 feet 11 inches; Macy Mason, Edendale, second, 12 feet 4 inches; High jump—Albert Heidigger, Pleasant Valley, first, 4 feet 2 inches; Fred Stalder, second, 4 feet. Shot put—Macy Mason, Edendale, first, 25 feet 4 inches; Fred Stalder, second, 24 feet. Fifty-yard dash—Heidigger, Pleasant Valley, first; Macy Mason, Edendale, second. One hundred and twenty yard hurdle race—Albert Heidigger, first; Fred Stalder, second. The standing of the High Jump—Albert Heidigger, Pleasant Valley 29.10 points. Daisy 17 points and Edendale 16 points.

At the declamatory contest held in the evening a crowded house greeted the contestants who were Libbie Lawson and Janice McCay of Rice, June Sturman of Edendale, Arvilla Maxwell and Hattie Finnel of Stranger, Frances and Dorothy Ball of Daisy. The judges were Mrs. Loren Holbrook of Harvey, Miss Beryl Clinton of Pleasant Valley school and Mrs. Chas. C. Hall of Daisy, who awarded Frances Ball first place and June Sturman second. These winners are expected to attend the county meet at Chewelah, Saturday, May 6.

O. S. Ford of Boundary, Wash., transacted business here Saturday.

A Hart of Oakville, Wash., was here Tuesday. He was looking over some farms in this section in view of buying.

E. F. Taylor, Earl Bottorff and Geo. Webb made a business trip to Colville Tuesday.

Andy Williams of Rice and Everett Goakey and Kelly Burnham of Pleasant Valley have been plowing the Charlton orchard tract and the 30 acres adjoining. Mr. Charlton intends to plant 30 acres in seed beans.

W. P. Foster is working on the Ford ranch north of Rice at present.

The Commercial Creamery Co. of Spokane was represented here Saturday by R. A. Goodhue, president and M. Johnson, salesman. They contemplate putting in a station here for buying butter fat, eggs, pork and veal, etc.

Jupiter's Moons.

The statement that Jupiter's moons can occasionally be seen without optical aid by keen sighted persons needs some qualification. Within the last quarter of a century the space penetrating power of the camera, combined with the world's giant telescopes, has added no fewer than five Jovian satellites to the four which Galileo discovered 300 years ago. Four of the five new moons were "netted" at the famous Lick observatory, on Mount Hamilton, California, and the fifth is to the credit of Greenwich observatory. But all of the new discoveries are so small and, with one exception, so distant from Jupiter that they are beyond the range of naked eye vision, even from Jupiter itself, unless an observer on the planet had better eyesight than we terrestrials. Indeed, to see Satellite IX (the latest addition to Jupiter's family of moons) a hypothetical observer on Jupiter would need eyesight capable of seeing a star 300 times fainter than the faintest visible to human eyesight.—London Chronicle.

The Frugal Breton.

"As I watched the fishermen unloading their cargoes I had a striking illustration of Breton frugality," writes Herbert Adams Gibbons in an article on "The Sardine Industry of Brittany," in Harper's Magazine. "So many sardines come into the port of Douarnez that their white, flecky scales cover the sand in mounds, washed up by the tides. Some of the boats have their decks covered several inches deep with the catch. But the fishermen actually count every sardine and send them ashore in baskets of exactly 200 each. "There is no guesswork, no approximation by weighing. Since at low tide the boats are fifteen feet below the mole, the porters let down ropes to fishermen in the boats. The baskets are drawn up one at a time. If a single fish happens to fall overboard they go after it with a hand net and make really strenuous efforts to recover it. These are fishermen to whom the admonition to gather up the fragments would not have been necessary."

The Four Great Sauces.

A French epicure has declared that "man has created the culinary art; he does not feed like an animal—he breakfasts, dines and sups." The French are particularly eloquent on the subject of sauces. Among their famous chefs are recognized four great sauces, Spanish, veloute, bechamel and German. The Spanish and veloute were known as far back as the seventeenth century. In the eighteenth they were modified by the masters of cookery, particularly by Careme, who was called "the Raphael of the kitchen."

The Spanish sauce is composed of juices extracted from a mixture of ham, veal, chicken and pheasant. Veloute is similar, but is not colored. Bechamel is veloute to which cream has been added, and the German sauce is veloute plus the yolks of eggs.

Curious Dwarf Oaks.

Known to ranchmen as chinney, the dwarf oak of the southwest presents a curious instance of the devious and inscrutable ways of nature. There the Hiliputan of the great oak family covers a great area in the plains of Texas bordering on New Mexico. The trees, it is said, rarely attain a height of twenty inches and are replicas of their giant brothers in other parts of the country. The acorns which they bear are as large as those of the common burr oak and present a grotesque appearance hanging from the little limbs of the low growing shrub or tree. The annual crop of mast is used for fattening hogs. When the acorns are ripe many wild animals and birds flock into the miniature forest to feast on the nuts.—Argonaut.

Told Almost All.

Here is a story told by one of our women lawyers: "I told my client to tell me everything just as it had occurred—to hold back nothing—and then, being perfectly familiar with all the facts, I might be able to help him. After the story had come to an end I asked him if that were all. "Everything—except where I hid th' news" was the answer."—Buffalo News.

Islands.

There are about 100,000 islands, large and small, scattered over the oceans. America alone has 5,500 around its coasts. There are 305 in the bay of Rio Janeiro, 10,000 between Madagascar and India and some 1,200 off the eastern coast of Australia between its mainland and New Guinea.

Legal Snags.

"Seems to me that the lawyers have it easy in life." "Why so?" "The rest of us have to surmount our own obstacles, but if a lawyer strikes one he applies to some judge and has it set aside."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Three Clocks.

The best three clocks in the world are at the naval observatory at Washington and the observatories at Greenwich and Berlin. The former two are the best and show a mean deviation of fifteen one-thousandths of a second a day.

Holstein Fresian Beauty

The cow that pays the mortgage And the cow that pays the bill Is the Holstein Fresian Beauty That grazeth on the hill.

She feeds the little urchin Milk, butter, cream and cheese; She keeps them clothed in winter And kindly lives for these.

Her calves are good to fatten And eat the farmer's grain; Of what they bring on market He seldom doth complain.

Year in and out and ever On her do they depend, And with her milk days over They her to market send.

She gave them of her bounty She had no thought of these, She nobly did her duty, Her only thought to please.

The children called her blessed, The housewife sings her praise, The farmer says and means it 'Tis the Holstein cow that pays. —B. S. Frier, Sumner.

Foot-Ease for the Troops

Many war zone hospitals have ordered Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder, for use among the troops. Squeezed into the shoes and used in the foot-bath, Allen's Foot-Ease gives rest and comfort, takes the friction from the shoe, and prevents the feet getting tired or foot-sore. Drug and department stores everywhere sell it, 25c. Don't accept any substitute. Try it today.
