WHITE LAKE. Mrs. Jeanie G. Gammage, Colville, Washington. The members of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen of Old Dominion Homestead No. 3830, of Colville, Wash., in the entirety extend to you their most sincere heartfelt condolence in this, your darkest hour, when the grim reaper has pursued in his flight and with a relentless hand taken from your midst your beloved husband. In this solemn hour we are again made to realize that life is a fleeting shadow which hurriedly passes before our vision. Mourn not over his body, for it was but the temporary tenement of the immortal spirit that has flown to its eternal home, where all of us at no distant day will be reunited, where partings are unknown.

Resolved, that by this token be it known that his many noble deeds and many sterling qualities will be ever kept bright in the hearts of all who knew him best; be it further Resolved, that a copy of this be sent to you and a copy be placed upon the minutes of our meeting.

Adieu, 'tis love's last greeting. The parting hour has come, And fast thy soul is fleeing, Toward the starry home; Yet dare we mourn when heaven Has bid thy soul be free; A fresher life is given, For evermore to thee.
