KETTLE FALLS NEWS.

Rhode Island Red roosters, best laying strain, from Pullman college, $2 to $3. R. C. and S. C. Karen Fogh, Kettle Falls.

Mrs. Elvira E. Taylor died Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Day at Kettle Falls. Mrs. Taylor was 90 years old last September. She was a native of New York state.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ferguson were Colville business visitors Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Leone Haynes returned to her home in Spokane last Thursday having been here to attend the funeral of Mrs. W. A. Doyle.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Doyle returned to their home in Seattle last Friday. They have been in the city to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. W. A. Doyle.

Dad Fortinler is now possessor of the handsome team of mares which belonged to W. A. Doyle. Everyone spoke of them as being the finest driving team in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Logan and little daughter Jean returned last week to their home in Spokane, W. A. Doyle returning with them, where he will make his home for the present.

Mrs. Thomas Towns of Great Falls, Montana, is a guest at "Kozy Korner," the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Jacobs.

J. I. Benton was a Colville visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Williams visited at the P. B. Goetter home in Colville Sunday.

Mrs. O. W. Noble and children left last week for their new home in Colville.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Tucker of Nebraska have rented the James Lesh place a mile north of town, and will put the five acres into potatoes.

I. H. Dewey of the Dewey Land Company, left last week for his home in Rochester, N. Y.

Mrs. Amanda H. Growdon has been appointed registrar of births and deaths of Kettle Falls, Meyers Falls and the rural district including Columbia precinct, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Ethel Foley, who is now making her home in Colville. All births and deaths must be reported to the registrar, and a death certificate must be filed with the registrar before any burial takes place. It would be well for everyone to keep this in mind.

Miss Ethel Foley of Colville was a guest at the E. B. Growdon home several days this week.

Wasted sugar in our cup of coffee and bread thrown away amount up into millions of dollars. Similarly, one of the ways of planting an acre is not to waste an acre.

Early reports that dandelions had been winter killed appear to have been in error.

For croup or sore throat, use Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. Two sizes, 25c and 50c. At all drug stores.—Adv.

S. H. Luckett and little daughter were Colville visitors on Wednesday of this week.

WORMS MAKE CHILDREN FRETFUL Children suffering from worms are dull and irritable, puny and weak, often grind their teeth and cry out in sleep, being a constant source of worry to their parents. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a mild laxative remedy in candy tablet form that children like to take. Promptly effective, it kills and removes the worm from the system. Irregular appetite and bowel movement, lack of interest in play are sure signs of worms. Relieve your child of this burden. At all druggists, 25c.—Adv.

"THE BALL GAME THAT AM" The hints that am will play a game scheduled for Sunday, between Kettle Falls fair ones and the regulars. The lasses say they can make a hit—who doubt this?

Mission baseball team ran away with the game last Sunday 18 to 6, and the ladies issued a challenge to the regulars to play a match game Sunday, May 13. Line-up on ladies side—Miss C. Butler, catcher; Tina Donley, pitcher; A. Keyser, first; Miss A. Smith, second; Martha Wagner, third; Miss Gene Koerner, center; Miss Helen Smith, right; Nellie Morris, center; Miss M. Ferguson, left; the imported places will be announced on the diamond. Choice of first inning will be selected by toss of copper cent. Tails win, heads lose. Married men have second row, bald headed have grandstand on proper payment, and they pay for the best place to see. Rooting only by home friends. Meals served free on the ground. Peanuts free to boys and girls. Candy free to lady players. Rooting allowed to Mission, Colville, Meyers Falls, Rice and Inchellum. Spokane and all towns up to Addy must make no noise to disturb the equilibrium of girl players. No flirting during game with the lady players. Home boys only allowed to sit with players, to save embarrassment to our modest players. Only white stockings and short skirts allowed in this game, to prevent dislocated limbs. Physician has been provided. Face powder will only be administered after ninth inning. No music or dancing until night. R. BILL.

SICK WIFE'S STORY SURPRISES COLVILLE A business man's wife suffered from dyspepsia and constipation for years. Although she dieted she was so bloated her clothes would not fit. ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-I-ka relieved her INSTANTLY. Because Adler-I-ka empties BOTH large and small intestine it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold. C. M. Baker last week purchased from Charles Lewis of Spokane 150 acres just north of the Baker ranch near Narcisse creek. This makes the Baker ranch consist of 900 acres, nearly 700 acres all in one block, making the Broadview ranch one of the largest places in Stevens county. Short-horns and Berkshires are the principal products of this big place.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Ledgerwood entertained at a five hundred party on the evening of the 4th. Cards were played at four tables, the prizes being awarded to Mrs. E. J. Strong and Enos Lavigne. Delicious refreshments were served by the host and hostess.

Leo A. Lehrman and Miss Lucy Jane Schlutter were married at the home of Mrs. E. K. Arnold Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. Leonard Garver.

W. H. Clinton is now established in the building south of the Examiner office, and buys all classes of junk. See him regarding prices on everything, and don't sell your wool until you see him.

The Amethyst club was entertained on the evening of the 4th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Spedden. Five hundred was played at five tables.

Ray Cranston of Rice is ill with typhoid fever at the Colville General hospital.

Donald Hutchinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hutchinson, is recovering from a severe illness caused by a mastoid abscess.

Claude C. Casey of Colville has sold his residence at 205 south Maple to M. A. Buchanan, father of Carl Buchanan. Mr. Casey has bought the J. L. Lasswell property on north Elm street and will make extensive improvements. The changes of ownership will occur about the middle of this month.

At the last meeting of the Women's Relief Corps of Colville, Washington, two new candidates were initiated. Mrs. T. B. English and Mrs. Floyd became members of the order. A large number were in attendance and as usual a nice time was spent. Arrangements were made for Memorial day. Refreshments were served in the dining room at the close of the session, and many lingered for some time visiting.

Colville's next Yep-Kanum will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 3-4-5, 1917. It will be the biggest and best of all the series. The Colville Chamber of Commerce with J. D. Casey as president, and Sid E. Barnea as secretary will have charge of the event. There will be hundreds of novelties and all sorts of delightful carnival doings. Make a note of the date and forget it not.

The day of harsh physics is gone. People want mild, easy laxatives. Doan's Regulets have satisfied thousands. 25c at all drug stores.—Adv.

FOR THE GYM

"Rosalee," one of the most satisfying short plays of a modern situation that has been written, is to be a number of the entertainment series next Tuesday night. While there are but three characters, the action is crisp, never dragging during the entire twenty-five minutes of production, and the lines are right to the point.

The play, written by Barrett H. Clark of the University of Chicago, has been well received wherever given.

Rosalee, the stubborn maid, who asserts herself at a very opportune time to her employers, the would-be elegant Monsieur and Madame Doe, is very well represented by Miss Mary Mantz, the other two characters being Professor Charles Humble and Miss Irma Harrison.

No one will regret having seen this refreshing little example of domestic harmony.

Seven reels moving pictures before the play. Comedy reels repeated. Date of play Tuesday night, May 15. Admission, children 25, adults 35. Proceeds for the benefit of the Colville gymnasium.

IN THE CHURCHES

Services will be held in the Christian church, Colville, Washington, next Sunday, May 13, as follows: Bible school at 10 a. m. Lesson found in John 15:1-16. Subject, "Jesus the True Vine."

Last Sunday gave us almost 50 per cent increase in our bible school. Our teachers and officers are doing splendid work. We were more than pleased to see several of our scholars back in their places after their experiences with the measles. It is bad to have to stay away from Sunday school on account of the German measles, but it will be worse yet if we must stay away on account of the measles.

Evening services as follows: Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock. Subject, "Fellowship With God." This noble band of young people is doing a great work and since you are proving loyal, Mr. Member, we are expecting greater times in the name of the Lord. The social given by the young people last Tuesday night was one grand success.

At 8 o'clock the pastor, Grover C. Flannery, will preach a sermon on the "Unpardonable Sin." A big welcome awaits you at any or all the above services. Yes, Sunday May 13, 1917.

Services at the First Methodist Episcopal church, Colville, Washington, May 12:

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Mother's day services with appropriate music and address. Let us honor mother's memory by attending services. Epworth League at 7 p. m. Evening services at 8 o'clock. Mid-week services Wednesday evening 8 o'clock. The subject will be, "Prayer as Communion With God." We will welcome you to all of these services.

Services at the Congregational church in Colville will be held next Sunday as follows:

Sunday school and bible classes at 10 a. m. William C. Keller, superintendent. Communion service and reception of members at 11 a. m. Evening service at 8 o'clock. Subject of the sermon, "Preparedness." Prayer meeting and bible study Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The cabinet will meet with the pastor at 7:30. All are welcome to these services. The young people especially invited.

Rev. E. A. Swain is the pastor of the Congregational church at Meyers Falls. The schedule of services for next Sunday follows: Sunday school at 10:30 o'clock. A mother's day program will be given by the school. Junior Endeavor at 2 p. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Mother's day service at 8 p. m. There will be short addresses given on mother by members of the congregation. Special music and recitations.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS FOR BACKACHE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

FAIR EXCHANGE

A New Back for an Old One. How it Can be Done in Colville.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame that to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back if the kidneys are weak. You cannot reach the cause. Colville residents would do well to profit by the following exchange:

C. J. Lewis, Hayden Lake, Idaho, says: "Off and on for a number of years I suffered considerably from kidney trouble. At times I had such pains in my back and loins that it was almost impossible for me to be around. On such occasions, the kidney secretions became scant and irregular in passage. My back soon became strong after taking Doan's Kidney Pills and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition, causing me to feel better in every way. I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions since then and they have always brought good results."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lewis had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the farmers of Stevens and Ferry counties: For the past year friends have urged me to enter the field as an auctioneer, handling public sales and livestock, and I have now taken out a license and am prepared to handle sales of all kinds and solicit your patronage. While my services as an auctioneer may in some cases be a trifle higher than others, I feel that the attention I will give every sale will merit my charges and a continuance of your patronage.—Fred B. McKeehan, Marcus, Wash.

Say, Mr. Farmer

What kind of a farm are you looking for? If you want a livestock proposition with good free range cheaper than stealing it, then buy a ticket for $1.25 to the town of Northport, Wash., and have a talk with G. A. Gaines. His many years in the livestock business place him in a position to be of great assistance to any one wishing to embark in that kind of farming. He has a large number of places where you can grow the feed for winter, with unlimited free range in the summer, range where cattle grow fat, not just exist. But don't call him a bloodsucking real estate man when you meet him, but an old broken down cattle man.
