Rhode Island Red roosters, best laying strain, from Pullman college, $2 to $3. R. C. and S. C. Karen Fogh, Kettle Falls.

The annual baccalaureate address to the graduating class of the high school was delivered at the First Baptist church Sunday morning by the Rev. Amos H. Hause. Special music was furnished by the Misses Verna Smith, Marjorie Smith and Lucille Zirtzmann. The graduating class includes Jessie Lill, Edith Hinton, Viva Llewellyn and Albert Weigelt.

High school graduation exercises were held last Thursday evening at the gymnasium, with a large attendance of parents, patrons and citizens. Following was the program of the evening: Invocation, Rev. A. H. Hause; march, Miss Norma Rule; instrumental solo, Miss Verna Smith; oration, "Labor Organizations," Miss Viva Llewellyn; instrumental solo, Miss Ethel Kelley; oration, "Textiles," Miss Edith Hinton; solo, Mrs. J. M. Williams; oration, "Immigration," Miss Jessie Lilly; violin solo, Miss Lucille Zirtzmann; class address, Rev. Bussabarger; presentation of diplomas, Principal W. S. Lanthorne.

The action of the school board in hiring Mrs. J. A. Burke of Spokane as assistant principal for the next term of school is a very creditable one. Two years ago Mrs. Burke was a teacher in the high school, and her work was exceedingly satisfactory to both patrons and students. The success of the high school during the years of 1915 and 1916 was due largely to the efforts of the principal W. P. Wagley and Mrs. Burke. We feel sure that the year 1917 will be a better year for the Kettle Falls schools and no longer will it be necessary for students to go fourteen miles to secure what they should and will be able to get at home.

NEWS IN COLVILLE IN THE CHURCHES

CLAUDE D. GRUBB Claude Daniel Grubb, second son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Grubb residing east of Colville, died at the Colville sanitarium May 25 from cerebral meningitis, resulting from typhoid fever. For many years he had been a sufferer from the result of injuries sustained while playing football while at college 17 years ago, at which time the doctors told him he had but three years to live, but his indomitable courage and will power kept him up. Since last fall he had been in unusually poor health, and it is probable that the beginning of a nervous breakdown and an attack of grip weakened him to the extent that typhoid set in.

He was born in Rising City, Neb., July 23, 1882, and was therefore 34 years of age at the time of death. He graduated from the Rising City high school at the age of 16, and then attended the state normal school at Peru, where he was injured in the football game with Kansas, three ribs being broken, a rib puncturing the lung, the hip mashed, and the sciatic nerve permanently injured. He was in the hospital for many months, and ever after walked with a limp.

At the age of 19 he became principal of the schools at Hanna, Wyo., and after his family moved to Colville he taught successfully for eight years in the White Lake, Bear creek and Red Schoonhoop schools. Last January he accepted the position of deputy auditor under Earle T. Gates, whom he had known in his Nebraska home.

His brothers and sisters are War J. F. of Sparta, Ore., Charles M. of Lincoln, Neb., Mrs. D. Burgess of Hornistown, Ore., and Mrs. Irving D. Sill of Colville, all of whom were present at the funeral except Mrs. Burgess who is ill and could not come.

Funeral services were held at the undertaking parlors Sunday afternoon, Rev. Leonard Garver of the Congregational church delivering the address. Pallbearers were Earle T. Gates, Wm. C. Spedden, George Walsh, D. M. Hurt, S. E. Barnes, Dale Jones. The Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and White Lake strange members all attended. The funeral was held at the Odd Fellows.

The memory of Claude Grubb will long remain among the people of the Colville country. His love of home, his kindly spirit, his efforts for the youths of the country schools, and his struggles against his own sufferings made lasting friendships which will not pass.

We desire to thank the friends and neighbors, also members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our dear son and brother. (Signed) Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Grubb, Mr. and Mrs. Irving D. Sill, W. P. Grubb, C. M. Grubb.

Eri Wheeler, formerly chief outside representative for the Colville steam laundry, is now at Valley, where he has a fine position in the magnetic mines. As soon as he gets a home fixed up his bride, nee Miss Cora Hicks, will join him. Mr. Wheeler will be in Colville every Saturday until his new home is ready for occupancy.

D. F. Ham leaves today for Vancouver as delegate to the grand lodge of Odd Fellows. Miss Bertha Gates will represent the Rebekahs at the state assembly. Mrs. R. E. Lee, past president of the state assembly, will also attend.

CUNNING COMPANY COMING MONDAY AND TUESDAY

How often do we wonder at some one who climbs to the pinnacle of success without apparent effort while you perhaps have labored twice as hard and have attained only a bare living and very little pleasure. Try as hard as you will everything seems to turn the wrong way. You may perhaps say that you cannot account for it and that you consider them unjust, and yet these things are the result of a mental cause. Perhaps you have not stopped to think or if you did your thoughts were scattered and produced no results. If you had concentrated your thoughts upon one thing and put those thoughts into action you no doubt would have met with better results. It is a well known fact that few have attained great wealth by hard physical toil, but it is a fact that those who have made the greatest success out of life are the ones who have done the right kind of thinking. Isaac Watts thought that steam could be utilized as a means of propulsion; other people thought him insane; still today the world is far better off from the results of Watts' right thinking. The result of Franklin's right thinking has given us the printing press and electricity which lights the whole world. The world's greatest achievements have been attained by right thinking. "If you wish to reach success out of right thinking, the Master Mystic, at the Colville theater and his wonderful feats of concentration and transference of thought. It will be a revelation to you.

His large company of oriental and classic dancers, including musicians, will assist in affording you one of the most pleasing entertainments that you have ever witnessed. Replete with startling happenings that border on the uncanny. As an illusionist Cunning stands foremost in his calling and you will be glad you saw things that you did not see before, besides having any questions you ask answered in a manner that you believed never could be. Popular prices 25 and 35c will prevail. This company will be here Monday and Tuesday.

FAIR EXCHANGE

A New Back for an Old One. How it Can be Done in Colville.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame that to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back if the kidneys are weak. You cannot reach the cause. Colville residents would do well to profit by the following example:

C. J. Lewis, Hayden Lake, Idaho, says: "Off and on for a number of years I suffered considerably from kidney trouble. At times I had such pains in my back and loins that it was almost impossible for me to be around. On such occasions, the kidney secretions became scant and irregular in passage. My back soon became strong after taking Doan's Kidney Pills and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition, causing me to feel better in every way. I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions since then and they have always brought good results." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lewis had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the farmers of Stevens and Ferry counties: For the past year friends have urged me to enter the field as an auctioneer, handling public sales and livestock, and I have now taken out a license and am prepared to handle sales of all kinds and solicit your patronage. While my services as an auctioneer may in some cases be a trifle higher than others, I feel that the attention I will give every sale will merit my charges and a continuance of your patronage.—Fred B. McKeehan, Marcus, Wash.

Say, Mr. Farmer

What kind of a farm are you looking for? If you want a livestock proposition with good free range cheaper than stealing it, then buy a ticket for $1 25 to the town of Northport, Wash., and have a talk with G. A. Gaines. His many years in the livestock business place him in a position to be of great assistance to any one wishing to embark in that kind of farming. He has a large number of places where you can grow the feed for winter, with unlimited free range in the summer, range where cattle grow fat, not just exist. But don't call him a bloodsucking real estate man when you meet him, but an old broken down cattle man.
